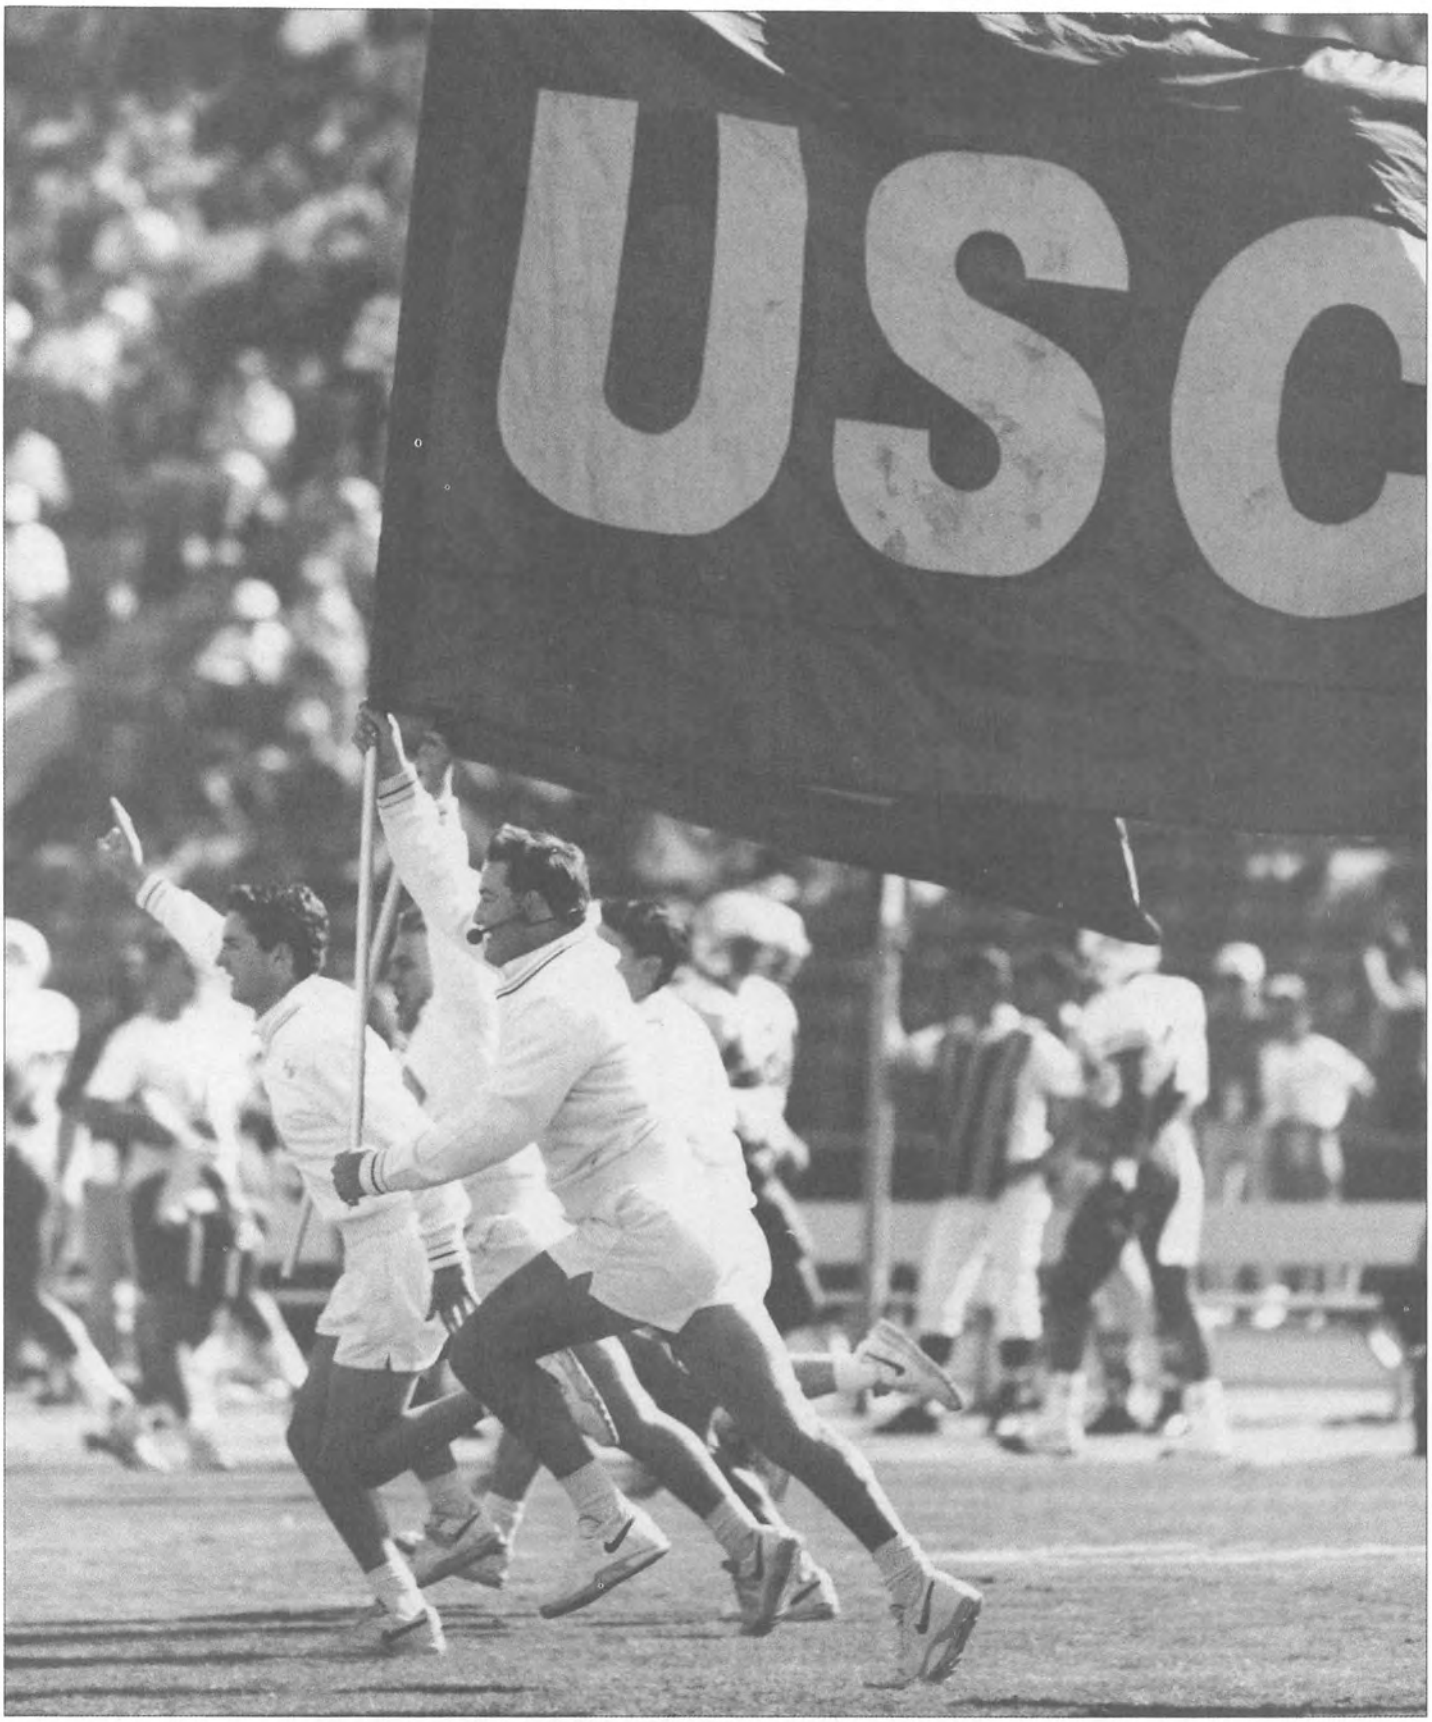
IT'S NOT "SOUTHERN CAL"

Note to the media: In abbreviated references to athletic teams of the University of Southern California, the following are preferred: USC, Southern California, So. California, Troy, Trojans, and Women of Troy. PLEASE do not use Southern Cal (it's like calling San Francisco "Frisco" or North Carolina "North Car.").

1996 OUTLOOK



1996 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Momentum.

It's hard to capture and it's equally hard to maintain.

Certainly, the USC football program has been riding a wave of momentum since head coach John Robinson returned in 1993.

In those 3 years (1993-95), Troy has won more Pac-10 games (18) and overall games (25) than any other league team, captured 2 Pac-10 co-championships (USC finished second the other time), won 3 post-season bowls, ranked in the final Top 25 poll each season, and signed highly-rated recruiting classes.

In 1995, USC beat No. 3 Northwestern in the Rose Bowl after winning the Pacific-10 co-championship with a 6-1-1 record. USC went 9-2-1 overall to rank 11th by USA Today/CNN and UPI and 12th by AP. Robinson and his staff then signed what many experts said was a Top 5 recruiting class of 23 players (including 11 prep All-Americans).

Although Robinson will be the first to admit that all of his goals have yet to be met--snapping USC's 13-game non-winning streak to Notre Dame and 5-game losing streak to UCLA come to mind most prominently--the question facing the Trojans in 1996 is whether they can keep the momentum going.

Troy returns 71 players (38 lettermen) from 1995, including 10 starters (4 on offense and 6 on defense) plus the placekicker. Twenty-nine of the players listed on USC's Rose Bowl 2-deep are back, but there are only 16 seniors on the roster.

This might not be a club bursting with marquee names, but it is full of solid players. For instance, the quarterback, a defensive tackle and a cornerback rank among the best in the country, another defensive tackle is a classroom star and there's a 1,000-yard rusher.

"We have a chance to continue our upward swing of the past 3 years, but we must be patient in 1996," said Robinson, whose 78.3% winning percentage (92-24-4 in his 10 years at USC) makes him Division I-A's fourth winningest active coach. "This is a very young team. There's a lot of talent on it, but we must allow that talent to develop.

"We want to be a more physical team. We want to show that there's another way to win than by finesse, which we've relied on in recent years. So that means we need to have a power running game and a dominating defense."

USC's offense will be built around returning starters Brad Otton at quarterback and Delon Washington at running back. Otton, who is 10-1-1 as a starter, is eighth on Troy's career passing chart. Known for his accuracy (he owns an NCAA record for avoiding interceptions), poise and leadership, he was 159-of-256 (62.1%) for 1,923 yards and 14 TDs last season, including a stunning 391 yards in the Rose Bowl. He'll contend for national honors. Washington, who has 6 100-yard rushing games in his career, was the Pac-10's No. 2 rusher in 1995 as he eclipsed the 1,000-yard barrier (1,109 yards and 6 TDs on 236 attempts, a 4.7 average).

USC's other offensive starters back are wide receiver Larry Parker, who was third on the team in receptions (25) and topped the squad in punt returns (9.2 average) last fall, and offensive guard Phalen Pounds (he could miss the entire 1996 season because of shoulder surgery). Several other offensive players who have started a significant amount of games or seen a lot of action also come back, including wide receiver Chris Miller, who was USC's kickoff return leader in 1995, running backs Shawn Walters, who is on the verge of breaking into USC's career rushing Top 10 list, LaVale Woods and Rodney Sermons, tight end John Allred, and guard Chris Brymer.

But USC's offensive losses are notable, most obviously wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, a unanimous All-American and the No. 1 selection in the NFL draft. The Rose Bowl MVP had a Pac-10 record 102 catches in 1995 for 1,434 yards with 7 TDs and ranked third nationally in receptions. He is No. 2 on USC's career receiving ladder and had 17 100-yard receiving outings, including an NCAA record 12 in a row. Also gone are running back Terry Barnum, Troy's No. 2 receiver the last 2 seasons (33 catches in 1995), tight end Johnny McWilliams (24 catches last year), often-used backup quarterback Kyle Wachholtz (105-of-171, 61.4%, 1,231 yards, 11 TDs in 1995), and 4 starting offensive linemen: Academic All-American center Jeremy Hogue, tackles John Michels (also an NFL first rounder) and Norberto Garrido, and guard Kyle Ramsay.

The returning defensive starters are tackles Darrell Russell, an All-American candidate (he already has been accorded pre-season All-American acclaim) who earned All-Pac-10 first team honors in 1995 (he had 14 tackles for losses last fall), and Matt Keneley, a 1995 Academic All-American first teamer who was third on the Trojans in tackles in 1995 (62), linebacker-safety Sammy Knight, USC's tackle leader in 1995 (89), safety-cornerback Brian Kelly, end Willie Lowery, and 1995 co-starting cornerbacks Daylon McCutcheon, just a sophomore but a contender for All-American honors (he had 50 tackles in 1995 and scored touchdowns on interception and fumble runbacks), and Quincy Harrison. Keneley will be starting for his fourth season, while Russell, Knight, Kelly and Lowery will be 3-year starters. Other returning defenders with career starts include linebacker Mark Cusano and defensive end George Perry.

Gone from the defensive unit are linebackers Scott Fields (USC's No. 2 tackler in 1995 with 81) and co-starters Errick Herrin and Brian Haas, co-starting ends Israel Ifeanyi and Marcus Bonds, safety Micah Phillips and tackle Stuart Gage, plus nickel back Jesse Davis, a safety.

USC's placekicking "Adams"--Adam Abrams (his career-long 46-yard field goal provided the winning points in the Rose Bowl) and Adam Rendon, who shared the job in 1995--both return. But 4-year starting punter John Stonehouse, who owns several USC records, has graduated.

"Winning the Rose Bowl this past January 1 was a day we will all remember with pride," said Robinson, who owns a 7-1 post-season record, including 4-0 in the Rose Bowl. "It put us back on the proper road, but we still have had some major failures by not beating Notre Dame and UCLA. Those are things we must do if we want to get back on top. We're moving in that direction.

"The challenge of the 1996 season is here. We know we can do more."

The Trojans, who have played schedules that were ranked among the nation's 5 most difficult in 2 of the past 3 years, again have a challenging slate. Five of USC's 1996 opponents--including its final 4 foes--played in bowls last season: Penn State (which Troy faces Aug. 25 in the season-opening Kickoff Classic in East Rutherford, N.J.), then a season-ending run of Washington, Stanford, UCLA and Notre Dame. Only 5 of the Trojans' 12 games are at home in the Los Angeles Coliseum

(Oregon State, California, Arizona, Washington and Notre Dame). USC's other non-conference contests are on the road (at Illinois and Houston).

OFFENSE

Only 4 starters--quarterback Otton, running back Washington, wide receiver Parker and injured guard Pounds--return on offense in 1996. USC, which led the Pac-10 in total offense in 1995 (414.8 average), should be more balanced in 1996 (Troy averaged 263.9 passing and 150.8 rushing last fall). The Trojans averaged 29.6 points per game in 1995.

"We had a potent attack last year, but we can improve offensively," said Robinson. "The keys are how our offensive line comes together and how we compensate for the loss of Keyshawn Johnson. It'll take this offense some time, maybe well into mid-season, before it comes into its own. But it has a chance to be very good. We have the talent, but we're short on experience in some areas.

"We're making a renewed effort to run the ball and dominate the opponent's defense. In the recent past, we didn't have the physical, dominant offensive line to do that, so we asked our quarterback to win games for us. We won't do that in 1996."

QUARTERBACK--In Otton (159-of-256, 62.1%, 1,923 yards, 14 TDs, 4 interceptions in 1995), USC has one of America's premier quarterbacks. The poised senior, who is known for his accuracy, leadership and heads-up play, is 10-1-1 as a starter at Troy. He is already eighth on USC's all-time passing list and began his Trojan career by throwing an NCAA record 216 passes without being picked off. His performance in the Rose Bowl--29-of-44 for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs (the yardage was 1 yard shy of the USC record and third most in Rose Bowl history) --should serve as a springboard into a 1996 campaign that could include post-season national honors. At 6-6, he's the tallest signalcaller in Trojan history. He also will be the backup holder on all placekicks.

"Otton could wind up as one of the top quarterbacks in the country," said Robinson. "He displays great poise and leadership, and he has proven to be an intelligent and accurate passer. He has all the tools you look for in a quarterback. He is very intuitive about the game and has great instincts on the field. He's very elusive and can stay alive in the pocket while keeping his eyes downfield better than anyone I've seen. He has a cool demeanor, too. Physically, he's gotten much stronger and his arm is stronger."

Senior Matt Koffler (2-of-4, 50.0%, 13 yards, 1 interception in 1995), who has thrown just 18 passes (with 10 completions for 74 yards and 2 TDs) in his career while appearing briefly as a reserve in 7 games, enters 1996 as Otton's backup. Battling for the No. 3 job will be redshirt freshmen John Fox and Quincy Woods, plus incoming prep All-American Mike Van Raaphorst (Helix HS in La Mesa, Calif.), a freshman who reports this fall.

"Koffler had a great spring and clearly won the backup job," said Robinson. "Although he hasn't had many opportunities, he's the kind of player who could go in a game and compete effectively. He's a smart player. He's a great team member and a leader on our squad. I like Fox's and Woods' futures. Both are athletic and have a lot of tools for the position."

RUNNING BACK--Once again, USC is loaded at the running back spots. Eight players are available for the 2 jobs. Despite this abundance, the variety of Troy's 2-back offense will allow each of them a chance to shine. In turn, Troy's running attack, which has improved statistically each year under Robinson, should be enhanced.

"We're fortunate to have so many quality running backs," said Robinson. "We'll use them in a variety of ways. Each player brings special skills to the position. Also, the competition for playing time will bring out the best in everyone."

Washington (236 carries, 1,109 yards, 4.7 average, 6 TDs in 1995), a crafty junior who should contend for All-Pac-10 honors, returns as a starter at the tailback spot. Last fall, he was second in the Pac-10 in rushing as he became USC's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1990. The All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick had 5 100-yard games in 1995 (he has 6 in his career).

"Washington established himself as an outstanding player in 1995," said Robinson. "He now has a chance to develop into a great player in 1996. He has excellent vision and balance, among the best I've seen. He's just one of those natural backs who constantly does things on the field that you can't explain. He's very special, and that goes for the way he is off the field, too."

Juniors Rodney Sermons (60 carries, 244 yards, 4.1 average, 3 TDs in 1995, plus 12 catches, 7.2 average, 1 TD receiving) and LaVale Woods (28 carries, 146 yards, 5.2 average, 5 TDs in 1995), USC's No. 2 and 4 rushers in 1995, respectively, also are in the mix. Each has played tailback and fullback at USC. The versatile Sermons is equally adept at running, catching and blocking. The small, tough and quick Woods has battled injuries during his career, but has been quite effective when he gets in.

"Sermons is one of the most versatile running backs we have," said Robinson. "He has excellent speed and outstanding competitiveness. He's an acceleration runner. He can see a hole and, zoom, go through it. He improved throughout last year as a receiver, blocker and runner. We need for him to play 'starter-type' minutes this season. Injuries have handicapped Woods' USC career so far, but whenever he has been healthy, he has had a big impact. In the spring, he showed that he's a much improved player. He'll play a lot in 1996, and if he stays healthy, he'll have a big season. He is as competitive as any of our backs. He's very powerful and quick. He's good at making a tackler miss him. He's a good running back and a leader by example."

The Trojans also will benefit from the return of experienced senior tailback Walters (25 carries, 168 yards, 6.7 average, 3 TDs in 1995), whose 1995 season was cut short. Walters, who is on the verge of breaking into USC's prestigious Top 10 career rushing chart (he has 1,855 yards and needs just 171 more to become No. 10), missed all but Troy's first 3 games of 1995 because he was ruled out for a year for receiving payments from an agent. He'll regain his eligibility beginning with USC's fourth contest in 1996 and the bruising inside-type runner with breakaway speed is looking to re-establish himself.

"Walters wants nothing more than the opportunity to re-establish himself as a great team member," said Robinson. "He has to prove that to me and the team. In the spring, he worked hard and ran hard and started working his way back into the team's good graces. He's bigger and stronger than he's ever been. He can be a devastating power runner, but he's also an excellent breakaway back. He can attack, break tackles and make the consistent gain as well as any back."

Also in the tailback fray is redshirt freshman Chad Morton, a speedy converted cornerback who sprinted for the Trojan track team. He might also return kickoffs and punts. And don't be caught off guard if soph cornerback McCutcheon, who rushed for 2,456 yards as a senior prepster in 1994, lines up in the backfield on occasion. As he showed on defense last year, he's dangerous whenever he touches the ball (he'll probably also be a kickoff returner).

"Morton is one of the fastest players I've been around and he plays fast," said Robinson. "He could be a valuable addition to our offensive backfield and return teams. And because we want McCutcheon on the field as much as possible, we might experiment with him running the ball on offense and returning kicks. He's like Deion Sanders."

Sophomore Marvin Powell III, a fullback who was moved to the spot in mid-1995 from linebacker and was impressive as a blocker, won the job vacated by Barnum.

"Powell is a very physical and athletic player," said Robinson. "He loves to run into people. He can become a great blocker. He just needs to quicken his feet. He will be a vital component of our running attack in 1996. I expect him to see a lot of action in the traditional fullback role."

Coming aboard this fall will be prep All-American Ted Iacenda (Hart HS in Newhall, Calif.), a freshman who is a prototype fullback.

WIDE RECEIVER--Sure, there's a great void in the wide receiver corps because of the graduation of unanimous All-American and NFL No. 1 pick Keyshawn Johnson, the Rose Bowl MVP and USC's No. 2 career receiving leader who had a Pac-10 record 102 catches in 1995 for 1,434 yards with 7 TDs (he had

RB SHAWN WALTERS

RB RODNEY SERMONS

WR CHRIS MILLER

WR LARRY PARKER

17 100-yard receiving outings, including an NCAA record 12 in a row).

But don't feel sorry for Troy at this spot. There are 7 highly-gifted players available here, including 3 who played last year (they combined for 49 catches) and 3 incoming prep All-Americans.

"We've lost one of the greatest collegiate receivers ever in Keyshawn Johnson," said Robinson. "But we have a lot of good young talent in the receiving corps. The trick is how many of these players can establish themselves as someone who can make the key plays, the key catches and the key first downs that outstanding wide receivers make. I believe we have the kind of receivers who can fit that category. I think they can play at the level of the receivers we've had here in the recent past, guys like Keyshawn and Johnnie Morton and Curtis Conway, who all were NFL first rounders. We'll just have to spread the catches around more than we have in the past few years."

Sophomore Billy Miller (3 catches, 9.0 average in 1995), a big and fast player with lots of promise, had a big showing in 1996 spring drills and will replace Johnson. Remember his name; he has many of Johnson's skills.

"Billy Miller is a big, physical player with great hands," said Robinson. "He can develop into a great receiver. He could be the biggest surprise on our team in 1996. He was one of our most improved freshmen last season and had a great freshman year, even though most of his outstanding performances were on the practice field because he was playing behind Keyshawn Johnson."

Two veteran juniors--Parker (25 catches, 10.8 average in 1995) and senior Chris Miller (21 catches, 10.2 average, 1 TD in 1995)--will share a spot and also could be on the field at the same time during 3-receiver sets. The sure-handed Parker returns after starting all of 1995. He also topped the Trojans in punt returns with a 9.2 average (second in the Pac-10), a job he'll do again in 1996. Miller, Johnson's cousin but no relation to Billy Miller, played so often last fall as Parker's backup that he could be considered a returning co-starter. He also led the Trojans in kickoff returns (23.8 average) and should handle that duty again this season.

"With improvement in the detail areas of the position, we expect great things from Parker this year," said Robinson. "He has the toughness and athletic ability to step up. He has a chance to be a featured performer. Chris Miller is one of the most competitive and intelligent players on our team. He is a dangerous deep threat, but he can also make the clutch catches and the tough catches in a crowd. He has outstanding speed, with a great burst at the end of his run to catch the ball."

Redshirt freshman Ramsey Jay Jr., a sprinter and hurdler on the Trojan track team who didn't play football in 1995, also will push for playing time.

"Jay is a fast, fast player with a good football background," said Robinson. "We think he can help our receiving corps despite the year's layoff."

The 3 prep All-Americans who might figure in the rotation this fall as freshmen are Troy Garner (Notre Dame HS in Sherman Oaks, Calif.), Stanley Guyness (Los Alamitos HS in Los Alamitos, Calif.) and R. Jay Soward (Fontana HS in Fontana, Calif.).

TIGHT END--What was USC's deepest position in 1995 has thinned out in 1996, but there is still some quality personnel here.

"The past few years, we had the tight end trio of McWilliams, (Tyler) Cashman and Allred to go to and they were all big-time players," said Robinson. "Only Allred remains in 1996. Still, this could be a physical, dominating group."

Allred (6 catches, 11.7 average, 2 TDs in 1995), a tough blocker and good receiver, will step in for the graduated McWilliams. He's a veteran (he has appeared in 28 games in his career with 3 starts) and a top candidate for All-Pac-10 honors. The senior is equally adept in the traditional down tight end role or as an H-back (tight-end-in-motion). He also will be the long snapper.

"Allred will be an all-star tight end this year," said Robinson. "He's one of the most physical tight ends we've had, a dominant blocker and a solid pass receiver. He's a fierce competitor and a team leader. He can become one of USC's best ever at this position."

TIGHT ENDS
John Allred, Sr.	27 career catches
Jeff Diltz, Sr.
Travis Hall, Sr.
Junior Rickman, Jr.	Converted defensive end

Backing up Allred will be seniors Jeff Diltz, a one-time walk-on now on scholarship, and Travis Hall, who sat out last season after transferring to USC from Cal State Northridge, and junior Junior Rickman, a converted defensive end who has been plagued by injuries while at USC (he was sidelined with a pulled hamstring in 1995). Diltz and Rickman play the down tight end role, while Hall is more of an H-back.

"Diltz is a solid player who provides experienced depth at tight end," said Robinson. "He keeps improving each year. Hall is the prototype tight-end-in-motion. We plan to take advantage of his skills from that position. He's a really good player and he'll get the ball a lot this year. I think we've found a good spot at tight end for Rickman. He has a lot of talent and looked good there this spring. If he can stay healthy, he has a chance to contribute. He has good quickness and strength."

OFFENSIVE LINE--This is USC's greenest unit going into 1996. Although 2 players return with starting experience (a 1994 starter and a 1995 starter), 5 senior linemen started in the Rose Bowl so Robinson is looking at a rebuilt offensive front in 1996.

"The development of the offensive line is one of the key questions and challenges facing this team," said Robinson. "We're pretty much starting over from 1995. The group as a whole is young, but it is talented and has unlimited potential. We now have the talent, depth and commitment to be physical. We have the ability to step back to do what we did here in the past, that one-on-one blocking that gave us a power running game."

Going into 1996, the starting guards will be junior Brymer, a 6-game 1994 starter who was academically ineligible in 1995,

TE JOHN ALLRED

OG CHRIS BRYMER

on the left side in place of the graduated Ramsay, and sophomore David Pratchard on the right side in place of junior Pounds, who earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice while starting last fall. Pounds didn't play in the Rose Bowl after he broke a team rule and then had shoulder surgery following 1996 spring drills and is expected to miss this season.

"It's good to get Brymer back," said Robinson. "He's a tough, tested player who will be the backbone of our line. He going to be very good, maybe an all-star in time. Pratchard is a tough, improved player who, with continued improvement, could have a fine career at USC. He's big, but he needs to become more physical. Pounds likely will miss the 1996 season with an injury. He is a solid player and has the ability to develop into an outstanding lineman."

Also in the mix here are senior Dong Koo, redshirt freshmen Jason Grain, Matt McShane and Brett Samperi, and a pair of freshmen who join the fray this fall--prep All-American Travis Claridge (Fort Vancouver HS in Vancouver, Wash.), and Trevor Roberts (Norco HS in Norco, Calif.). Samperi is versatile enough also to play tackle and long snap, Claridge also can play tackle, and Grain also is available at center.

"Koo is more physical and has improved to the point where he could be a contributor to our offensive front," said Robinson. "Grain is a young, developing player who, as he matures, has a chance to be a factor for us. McShane showed improvement during his first year at USC last season and should continue to develop in 1996. Samperi is a developing young lineman who can play a number of positions. He has a chance to be a solid player in the future."

Inexperienced sophomores Rome Douglas (he was converted from tight end late last season) on the left side and Ken Bowen on the right will be the tackles replacing Michels and Garrido, respectively.

"Douglas has taken well to the move to offensive tackle," said Robinson. "He has added weight and it's just a matter of time before he becomes a dominant blocker. He's very athletic and has good speed. Although he doesn't have much experience, he's on his way to becoming really special. Bowen has a good future. He has the size, commitment and intelligence needed to develop into an outstanding player. He's very efficient and knows what he's doing. He just needs to get more physical. He's a giant of a man. He's very bright and nice, and we're trying to make him a bit meaner."

The backup tackles include junior college transfer Grant Boelter, a junior from City College of San Francisco (Calif.) who enrolled at USC this past spring, freshman Brent McCaffrey, another player who came to USC this past spring after sitting out of football last season (his father, Bob, starred at center for USC in the early 1970s and played with the Green Bay Packers), and a trio of freshmen who arrive this fall: prep All-American Faaesea Mailo (Kahuku HS in Kahuku, Hi.), plus Joel Sugg (Irvine HS in Irvine, Calif.) and Mike Whitcanack (Saratoga HS in Saratoga, Calif.). Mailo and Sugg also might be tried at guard.

"Boelter has the size, talent and credentials to be a factor on our offensive line," said Robinson. "He is a well-schooled run blocker. McCaffrey is a developing player with fine bloodlines. As a freshman, he benefitted from being able to go through spring practice."

Junior Jonathan Himebauch will inherit the center job opened by the departure of Hogue. Backup centers include redshirt freshman Mark Manskar (a converted offensive tackle) and incoming freshmen Eric Denmon (Carter HS in Dallas, Tex.) and Pat Smith (Helix HS in La Mesa, Calif.), who enroll this fall. Smith also can long snap.

"Himebauch had a great spring and came through for us really well," said Robinson. "He has the potential to develop into a fine center if he keeps improving. He has physically matured and just needs the experience. Manskar is a big, young player with lots of potential. He just needs to gain some weight. I think the move to center will be beneficial for his career. He really took to the position in the spring."

DEFENSE

Starters return at 6 defensive positions: defensive tackles Russell and Keneley, linebacker-safety Knight, safety-cornerback Kelly, cornerbacks McCutcheon and Harrison (they were 1995 co-starters), and defensive end Lowery. Troy's defense, which topped the Pac-10 in scoring defense in 1995 (17.7, 11th in the U.S.), yielded 338.3 total yards (206.3 passing, 132.6 rushing).

"Our defense is experienced and it must get off to a fast start while our offense develops," said Robinson. "We'll be improved in several defensive areas over last year, but we must continue to improve throughout the season and become a dominant force defensively if we want to become champions."

To fit their personnel and defensive philosophy, the Trojans will switch to a 4-3 formation instead of the 5-2 that was employed most of last season.

DEFENSIVE LINE--"Our defensive line is much more experienced, talented and deeper, than at any time since I returned to USC," said Robinson. "This group has a chance to be a dominating presence. Going to a 4-3 alignment should help."

There might not be a better pair of defensive tackles anywhere than Russell (41 tackles, team-high 14 for losses, 4 sacks in 1995) and Keneley (62 tackles, 12 for losses, 4 sacks in 1995). Russell, a beefy but quick junior who is a strong candidate for All-

DT MATT KENELEY

DT DARRELL RUSSELL

American honors (he already has been named a pre-season All-American) after earning All-Pac-10 first team acclaim in 1995, will be starting for his third season. Keneley, a reliable senior, stars in the classroom (he was a 1995 Academic All-American first teamer), where he has a 3.68 GPA as a public administration major, and on the field (he made 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention and is a candidate for first team honors in 1996), where he was third on the Trojans in tackles last fall. This will be his fourth year as a starter.

"Russell might become the best defensive lineman I've ever coached at USC," said Robinson. "He's so physically gifted. He was impressive when he came here as a freshman in 1994, but few players have improved as much as he has. He's headed for greatness. He had been a bit inconsistent earlier in his career, but he has matured now and has become more consistent. Keneley is really a good player. He can dominate up front. He's an experienced, proven veteran and is a leader. He's in line for honors both on the field and in the classroom."

Angling to serve as backups at tackle are senior Anthony Sanford (1 tackle in 1995), junior Cedric Jefferson (4 tackles in 1995), sophomore Marc Matock, and incoming freshman Ennis Davis (Reseda HS in Reseda, Calif.), a prep All-American who joins the unit this fall. Only the injury-plagued Jefferson has notched much playing time in his career.

"Sanford is a big, physical player who can clog up the middle," said Robinson. "We need for him to step up in 1996; if he does, he'll make a major contribution to our defensive front. If Jefferson can stay healthy, he will be an important part of our defensive line in 1996. He is an excellent run defender and an improving pass rusher. Matock could start coming into his own in 1996. As he continues to improve, he'll become a very solid player for us."

The underrated but effective Lowery (22 tackles, 4 for losses, 2 sacks in 1995), a senior, will start for his third season at a defensive end position, while junior George Perry (13 tackles, 2 for losses in 1995), a converted nose tackle who started USC's first 4 games last season at that spot and then served as a backup the rest of the way, will start at the other end spot (which was handled by Ifeanyi and Bonds in 1995).

"Lowery is a proven veteran," said Robinson. "He's solid and keeps getting better. He knows how to play and how to get it done. He's an effective outside pass rusher and could be a star player. Perry is big, strong and quick and he has shown improvement during his career. Going out to an end position gives him a chance to be a dominant player. That's his true position."

Serving as backups are senior Greg Tellam, a converted linebacker, one-time walk-on junior Dennis Tolbert, who earned a scholarship this season and is a discus thrower on USC's track team (he's also available to play tackle), and redshirt freshman Aaron Williams, a converted linebacker.

"Tellam is a good, veteran player who'll give us depth in the defensive line corps and could see action on special teams," said Robinson. "Tolbert is a physical, improving player who will add depth to our defensive front. We think Williams has a fine future at USC. By moving him to defensive end, we can take advantage of his strength and quickness. In the spring, he really had it going. He has a chance to be a big contributor in 1996. Watch, you'll hear from him."

LB-S SAMMY KNIGHT

DE WILLIE LOWERY

LINEBACKER--Although both of USC's 1995 starters (Fields and co-starters Herrin and Haas) are gone, the Trojans could be solid here with the returning players, plus the help of a key position switch, the return of an injured player and the infusion of some new talent.

"This is another position with a big question mark, like our offensive line," said Robinson. "But, like the offensive line, there is a lot of exceptional young talent. And, with Sammy Knight's move to linebacker, I think we'll be okay here."

Knight (89 tackles, 9 for losses, 7 deflections, 4 forced fumbles, 1 blocked punt in 1995), a hard-hitting senior who is always around the ball, has been moved to the weakside linebacker spot (akin to a rover). The 1995 All-Pac-10 second teamer was USC's tackle leader last season as a strong safety and is in line for first team honors in 1996. This will be his third season as a starter.

"Knight is a complete football player and a team leader," said Robinson. "He's experienced, competitive, tough and aggressive. He's a deserving all-star candidate, a big-time player. We moved him to linebacker to get him in the middle of the action. He wants to be first on the pile; Ronnie Lott was that way and so was Dennis Smith."

Sophomore Mark Cusano (50 tackles, 1 for a loss, 4 deflections in 1995), who played often in 1995 (he even started once) and was tied for fourth on USC in tackles, should start at strongside linebacker.

"Cusano opened our eyes in 1995 by showing us what he can do," said Robinson. "He's a quick, instinctive linebacker with a fine future. One day, he'll be an all-star."

Three players will limited experience will battle for the middle linebacker job: junior Taso Papadakis, who missed last season with a knee injury, senior Mark Farlin, a converted running back (fullback), and soph Bob Aubrey.

"It's great to get Papadakis back," said Robinson. "He's a solid player who thrives in the physical, tough style of play.Farlin is a physical player who should benefit from the switch to linebacker. He also could help us on special teams. Aubrey is a young, improving player who had a good spring and put himself into position to compete for playing time in our linebacking corps."

Junior Ryan Tyiska (13 tackles, 1 blocked punt in 1995) and soph Lawrence Larry (4 tackles, 1 for a loss in 1995), a converted defensive end who saw meaningful action last fall, will serve as the backups on the weak and strong sides, respectively.

"Tyiska is a fast, explosive, instinctive player," said Robinson. "He had a good spring and will help out our linebacker corps. Larry gained valuable experience last season and showed his abilities. Although he's still young, he could play a key role for us this year. Moving to linebacker has been beneficial for him; he belongs there."

And don't count out 4 new freshmen when it comes to playing time. This fall, 3 prep All-Americans come aboard--Sultan Abdul-Malik (Arcadia HS in Arcadia, Calif.), the son of ex-USC linebacker Ed Powell, Chris Claiborne (J.W. North HS in Riverside, Calif.) and Shamsud-Din Shaheed (Verbum Dei HS in Los Angeles, Calif.)--plus Jason Steen (Serra HS in Gardena, Calif.).

SECONDARY--"We had a pretty good secondary last year, as we only gave up 6 passing touchdowns, but I believe we'll be much improved here this season, even though we won't be real deep," said Robinson. "Just about all of our defensive backs have experience and have performed well in the past."

Look for Kelly (35 tackles, 11 deflections, 3 interceptions in 1995) to inherit the free safety spot held last year by the graduated Phillips. Kelly, a junior, started the past 2 years at cornerback (he was a 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention choice and could be a first teamer in 1996) and is the veteran of the secondary.

"We want to get our best athletes on the field and we can do that by moving Kelly to free safety," said Robinson. "He has great cover skills and, when he's at safety, that gives us 3 outstanding man-to-man players in the secondary. He's a key player for us and should emerge into a star player."

A pair of 1995 co-starters will be the starting cornerbacks in 1996: McCutcheon (50 tackles, 10 deflections, 2 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery in 1995) and Harrison (43 tackles, 1 for a loss, 5 deflections, 2 interceptions in 1995). Just a sophomore, McCutcheon is headed for greatness. Don't be surprised if he wins All-American honors in 1996 (he was an All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick in 1995). He was tied for fourth on the Trojans in tackles last season. And because exciting things happen whenever he touches the ball (he scored touchdowns last fall on interception and fumble runbacks), he might even be used at running back at times, as well as returning kickoffs. Harrison, fast and savvy, is a veteran senior with 10 career starts. He might be slowed early in the 1996 season while recovering from neck surgery this past spring.

"McCutcheon is a special player," said Robinson. "He can develop into one of the great USC football players ever. He's a veteran now and plays like one. He has all the skills of an outstanding cornerback: speed, instinct, toughness and great cover ability. Harrison did well in his first year as a starter in 1995. He's one of those guys who can really cover you."

Other cornerbacks available are junior Anthony Volsan (1 tackle in 1995), a converted wide receiver (he had 1 catch for 11 yards in 1995) who averaged 18.7 yards on kickoff returns last season, and sophomores Ken Haslip (8 tackles, 1 deflection in 1995) and Prentice Hill. Volsan and Haslip also sprinted on the USC track team.

"We moved Volsan to the secondary to take advantage of his great speed," said Robinson. "He took well to the position. Haslip has a good chance to contribute in the secondary and on special teams in 1996. He has great speed, too, and is a good cover man. Hill has super quickness and lots of potential."

Vying to replace Knight at strong safety are junior Grant Pearsall (12 tackles, 1 for a loss, 1 forced fumble in 1995) and hard-hitting sophomore Rashard Cook (8 tackles in 1995). Soph Mike Bastianelli (1 catch, 15.0 average in 1995), a converted wide receiver who also handled USC's kickoff duties in 1995, will be Kelly's backup at free safety.

"Pearsall is a talented player," said Robinson. "He was stuck behind Knight last year, but he could be one of our most improved players in 1996. He showed that in the spring. Cook can really play. He did well as a true freshman in 1995 and will be counted on even more in 1996. He's going to be very good. Bastianelli came through for us last year as a multipurpose player. We need him on defense this year. He's a good athlete and a winner who will find his way onto the field in 1996."

Joining the club this fall as safeties are incoming freshmen David Gibson (Mater Dei HS in Santa Ana, Calif.) and Darnell Lacy (Serra HS in Gardena, Calif.).

SPECIAL TEAMS

The placekicker (1995 co-starters Abrams and Rendon) and the top kick/punt returners (Parker, Chris Miller and Volsan) are back, but USC will rely on a new punter, long snapper, and holder in 1996.

"Special teams play never gets much recognition, but it's such an important part of the game," said Robinson. "We have improved in this area each year since I've returned, but we must keep striving for a higher level of special teams play. We have some key personnel back from 1995, so we have a chance to excel here."

SPECIAL TEAMS

David Bell, In. Fr., PK
ADAM RENDON, So., PK	'95 co-starter
R.J. Sansom, Jr., P
Jim Wren, Jr., P	'94 J.C. All-American

PUNTER--Here's another uncertain area for USC in 1996. Four-year starting punter John Stonehouse, who set several USC records, has graduated. But Robinson brought in highly-regarded, strong-legged Jim Wren, a 1994 junior college All-American at Fullerton (Calif.) College who sat out of football last season. The junior, who enrolled at USC this past spring, averaged 42.3 yards per punt at Fullerton. He also will be the holder on all placekicks.

Walk-on junior R.J. Sansom will be the backup punter, with safety Bastianelli available in emergencies.

"Replacing John Stonehouse is no easy task, but Wren is certainly capable," said Robinson. "He comes to USC with a good background and an impressive leg. In the spring, he showed that he's a good punter, but he needs to be more consistent."

PLACEKICKER--It's safe to say that a sophomore named Adam will be handling the placekicking duties for USC in 1996. The likely starter will be accurate Abrams (5-of-6 field goals, 21-of-22 PATS in 1995). He missed half of last season with a thigh injury but he returned for the Rose Bowl, where his career-long 46-yard field goal provided the winning points. He's an All-Pac-10 candidate now. Rendon (4-of-7 field goals, 19-of-20 PATs in 1995) filled in for Abrams as an unheralded walk-on and was productive, including hitting the game-tying PAT at Washington with 33 seconds to play. He's on scholarship now.

"Abrams can become a great kicker," said Robinson. "He gets the ball up very fast and has good leg strength. I said when we first signed him that he'd make some of the bigger kicks in USC history and he already has. In the Rose Bowl, he was faced with a kick that can make or break a career and he nailed it. He might be the best kicker in the Pac-10. Rendon was a lifesaver for us in 1995 and came through in several clutch situations. He's a competitor and will work hard to drive Abrams to the limit."

Incoming freshman David Bell (Western HS in Anaheim, Calif.) will add to the competition this fall. Safety Bastianelli could man the kickoff duties again, as he did last season.

SNAPPER--Starter Jesse Gomez is gone, so tight end Allred will take over the important long snapper job. Backing him are offensive guard-tackle Samperi and offensive guard Smith.

HOLDER--Stonehouse doubled as USC's holder in 1995, but with his departure, punter Wren figures to handle this crucial duty. Quarterback Otton will be the backup.

RETURNERS--USC's top punt returner, wide receiver Parker (9.2 average on 29 returns in 1995 to rank second in the Pac-10), and top 2 kickoff returners, wide receiver Chris Miller (23.8 average on 12 runbacks in 1995) and cornerback Volsan (18.7 average on 12 returns in 1995), are back. Others who could get involved in the return game are cornerbacks McCutcheon and Haslip and running back Morton.

COACHES

After 3 years of his second stint as USC's head football coach (and 10 years overall), John Robinson--known not only for his success and coaching ability, but for the passion he exudes for the game and the way he is able to motivate his players--has brought back a renewed optimism and enthusiasm among Trojan fans and players. And, by the way, he's turned out some pretty good teams.

During the past 3 years (1993-95) since he returned to USC, Troy has won more Pac-10 games (18) and overall games (25) than any other league team while capturing 2 Pac-10 co-championships (USC finished second the other time), ranking in the final Top 25 poll, and winning 3 post-season bowls. The Trojans did all this while playing schedules that were ranked among the nation's Top 5 most difficult in 2 of those years.

In May of 1996, USC extended his original 4-year contract for an additional 5 years through the 2001 season.

Robinson, 61, is Division I-A's fourth winningest active coach (minimum 5 years experience) and 15th winningest all-time coach (minimum 10 years experience) at 78.3%, with a 10-year record of 92-24-4. His 92 career victories are the seventh most ever by a coach after his 10th year at the Division I-A level. His 78.8% winning mark versus Pac-10 teams is the third best percentage in league history (he's 56-14-3, tied for seventh on the Pac-10 win ladder). All 10 of Robinson's Trojan teams have won at least 8 games. He owns a 7-1 post-season record, including 4-0 in the Rose Bowl. Only John McKay (175 games in 16 years) and Howard Jones (170 games in 16 years) have coached more contests at USC than Robinson (120).

Overall as USC's head coach, he has tutored 24 Trojan All-American first teamers, 21 NFL first round selections (and 81 NFL draft picks), 2 Heisman Trophy winners and a Lombardi Award recipient.

Robinson could post his 100th career victory in 1996 (he needs 8 more wins). If USC starts off 8-0, he'll get his 100th win in fewer games (128) than all but 13 coaches in history and faster (the eighth game of his 11th season) than all but 5 coaches.

In 1995, USC beat No. 3 Northwestern in the Rose Bowl after winning the Pacific-10 co-championship with a 6-1-1 record (Troy clinched the Rose Bowl berth with a week still to go in league play). USC went 9-2-1 overall to rank 11th by USA Today/CNN and UPI and 12th by AP. The 1995 schedule featured 5 bowl-bound teams. Wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, who set the Pac-10 season reception record, was a unanimous All-American and NFL first round draft pick.

Robinson's 1994 Trojans, who played what USA Today called the nation's fifth toughest schedule (with 6 1993 bowl teams and 7 which appeared in the 1994 post-season), were 8-3-1 overall. USC was ranked in the Top 15 (13th by AP and UPI, and 15th by USA Today/CNN), finished tied for second in the Pac-10 at 6-2 (for the second year in a row, Troy went into the league finale against UCLA with a shot at the Rose Bowl), and posted a convincing Cotton Bowl victory. Offensive tackle Tony Boselli was a consensus All-American and the second pick of the NFL's draft, while quarterback Rob Johnson became USC's career passing leader.

After a 10-year absence, Robinson returned to USC on Jan. 3, 1993 (he replaced Larry Smith, who resigned Jan. 1 after 6 seasons at Troy). And what a homecoming it was for Robinson. Despite a schedule ranked by USA Today as the fourth toughest in the nation--featuring 9 bowl teams from 1992, 7 teams which played in 1993 bowls, 6 opponents which were ranked in the final Top 25, and only 5 home games--Robinson guided USC to a share of the 1993 Pac-10 championship and, save for 2 more yards at the end of the UCLA game, a near trip to the Rose Bowl. His Trojans were 8-5 overall (all the losses were to Top 20 teams) and 6-2 in the Pac-10 to rank 25th in the final USA Today/CNN and UPI polls. His team won the Freedom Bowl. The 1993 Trojans set 5 USC season passing records, including most yards (3,829), most TDs (31) and lowest interception rate (1.26%). Wide receiver Johnnie Morton, a consensus All-American and NFL first rounder, and Rob Johnson set 22 Pac-10 and USC records between them.

Robinson won 81.9% of his games (67-14-2) in his original 7 seasons (1976-82) at USC, averaging nearly 10 wins a year. He won the national championship in 1978 with a 12-1 mark (USC was ranked No. 2 in 1976 and 1979), led USC to 3 Pac-10 titles (along with 2 second-place and 2 third-place finishes), and guided Troy to 5 post-season bowls (going 4-1, with wins in his 3 Rose Bowl trips). He was 6-1 against Notre Dame and 5-2 against UCLA. From 1978 through 1980, USC posted a school-record 28-game unbeaten streak. He coached 2 Heisman Trophy winners (Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981), a Lombardi Award winner (Brad Budde in 1979) and 21 first team All-Americans. He was National Coach of the Year in 1979 with his 11-0-1 team and Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1976 and 1978. His first team in 1976 went 11-1, winning its final 11 contests, and Robinson became the league's first rookie head coach in 25 years to take his team to the Rose Bowl. That tied an NCAA record for most victories by a first-year head coach.

His Trojan teams were noted as offensive powerhouses with dominant defenses. USC finished third (in 1976) and fourth twice (1977 and 1979) nationally in total offense. The 1979 squad gained more yards (5,655) than any team in Trojan history. Defensively, the Trojans finished first in the conference in total defense 4 times (1976-77-80-81) and the 1980 team led the Pac-10 in every team defensive category.

This is actually Robinson's third go-around at Troy. He was USC's offensive coordinator for 3 years (1972-74) under McKay when the Trojans captured the national title twice (1972 and 1974) and played in 3 Rose Bowls (winning 2).

Robinson coached the NFL's Los Angeles Rams to a 79-74 mark--the most wins of any Rams head coach--in his 9 years there (1983-91). He reached the playoffs in 6 of those seasons, twice advancing to the NFC championship game (1985 and 1989). He coached more games (153) for more years (9) than any other Rams coach.

Considered an expert on the running game, Robinson has produced 4 NFL rushing champions and 2 NCAA rushing leaders. He also has the unique distinction of turning out the single season rushing record setters in college (Allen in 1981 with 2,427 yards, a record that has since been broken) and pro football (Eric Dickerson in 1984 with 2,105 yards).

He spent 1992 as a television analyst with CBS-TV (handling NFL games), USA Network (doing World League games) and Prime Ticket (handling 3 USC football telecasts).

Now with 35 years of coaching experience, Robinson began his coaching career as an assistant at Oregon for 12 seasons (1960-71). He also was the backfield coach with the Oakland Raiders in 1975, working under childhood friend John Madden. He spent 4 months (November of 1982 to February of 1983) as USC's senior vice president for university relations before taking the Rams job

Born on July 25, 1935, Robinson grew up in Daly City, Calif. He starred in football (earning Catholic All-American and All-Northern California honors as an end) and baseball at Serra High in San Mateo. He then lettered at end at Oregon when the Ducks won the 1957 Pacific Coast Conference title and played in the Rose Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Oregon in 1958.

In the fall of 1995, Robinson co-authored his second book, "Coach to Coach, Business Lessons from the Locker Room." Published by Pfeiffer & Company (and co-written with Ann Coyle), it is geared to business executives and football fans. The book shows how business managers can increase productivity and efficiency by taking coaching principles and applying them to the business environment. In 1981, Robinson joined with Los Angeles-area sportswriter Joe Jares on "Conquest," a coffee table-style book about USC's football heritage.

Robinson has 4 grown children, daughters Teresa and Lynn and sons David (an assistant coach at USC) and Christopher, and 2 step-daughters, Karilyn and Elizabeth. His wife, Linda, who owned her own modeling agency for 10 years, now spends her time watercoloring and designing greeting cards, besides being at her husband's side at every USC event possible.

QUOTEBOOK

"John Robinson is so thoroughly identified with USC football that you would think he arrived with Traveler...Robinson has restored expectations at USC...As in the old days, the Trojans seem poised to dominate their conference, and Robinson, whose enthusiasm makes him the perfect front man for USC (and a pretty good recruiter, too), is more than ready to resume his position as caretaker of one of the great traditions in college football."

--Richard Hoffer, Sports Illustrated

"Robinson...has been there and done that for nearly every coaching achievement that matters, college or pro...Coaching is what he enjoys doing...(And) he enjoys recruiting and being around college kids."

--Herb Gould, Chicago Sun-Times

"The message of USC in the (1996) Rose Bowl is that it is possible again. That Robinson was right. That somewhere out there may be another Trojan dynasty."

--Tim Brown, Los Angeles Daily News

"I don't think I would have come here if not for Robinson. He treats players like men. He gives you your space."

--Delon Washington, USC running back

"Our goal at USC is to go undefeated and win the national championship."

--John Robinson

ASSISTANT COACHES

MIKE RILEY

Assistant Head Coach
Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

Innovative, enthusiastic and successful, Mike Riley is in his fourth year as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He joined the Trojan staff in February of 1993. He was given the additional duty of assistant head coach prior to the 1995 season.

USC topped the Pac-10 in total offense and was second in passing offense in 1995. The Trojans' alternating quarterbacks of Kyle Wachholtz and Brad Otton were the league's No. 2 and 3 rated passers, respectively, while wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson was a unanimous All-American.

In 1994, Riley tutored quarterback Rob Johnson--owner of 20 NCAA, Pac-10 and USC records--as he became Troy's career passing leader. Johnson was a first round NFL draft choice.

Riley was named the Pac-10's top assistant in 1993 by the Mesa Tribune for taking "the Trojan passing game to a level never before reached at USC. He made the Johnson-to-(Johnnie) Morton combination week in and week out the most effective offensive weapon in the Pac-10." Indeed, Johnson and Morton were All-Pac-10 first teamers. Johnson set 10 Pac-10 and USC records in 1993, while Morton--a first round NFL draft pick--earned All-American first team acclaim and became USC's career receiving leader.

Riley has been part of national championship squads as a college player and as a coach in the collegiate and pro ranks.

Riley, 43, came to USC after serving as head coach of the World League's San Antonio Riders for 2 years (1991-92), posting an 11-9 record (including 7-3 in 1992).

Before that, he was head coach of the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers for 4 seasons (1987-90), going 40-32 (plus 4-2 in the playoffs) and winning the Grey Cup in 1988 and 1990 (his quarterback in 1988 was ex-Trojan Sean Salisbury). He was named CFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1990. His 12-6 mark in 1987 was the best by a CFL rookie coach since Bud Grant went 13-3 with Winnipeg in 1957 (Grant later coached the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame).

Riley was Winnipeg's secondary coach for 3 years (1983-85) and then spent 1986 as defensive coordinator at Northern Colorado.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at California in 1975 and at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., in 1976, then was the secondary coach at Linfield College in McMinnville, Ore., for 6 years (1977-82). Linfield was 12-0 and won the NAIA national championship in 1982.

He played defensive back at Alabama under Bear Bryant for 4 years (1971-74), as the Crimson Tide won the 1973 national crown and 4 SEC titles. He earned a bachelor's degree in social science from Alabama in 1974.

Born July 6, 1953, Riley quarterbacked Corvallis (Ore.) High to the state title in 1970.

His father, Bud, was a head coach in the CFL (at Winnipeg, Hamilton and Calgary) and an assistant at Oregon State.

Riley and his wife, Dee, have a son, Matthew, 12, and a daughter, Kate, 8.

KEITH BURNS

Defensive Coordinator
Secondary

Keith Burns, a bright and energetic young coach, is in his fourth season on the Trojan staff after coming aboard in February of 1993. Prior to the 1995 Cotton Bowl, he was appointed as the defensive coordinator. He also continues to coach the secondary, primarily the safeties.

The 1995 Trojans topped the Pac-10 in scoring defense (11th in the U.S.).

Burns, 35, was an assistant at Rice for 4 years (1989-92), in charge of the defensive backs in 1992 and before that handling the special teams, strong safeties and outside linebackers.

He was an assistant at Pacific for 4 seasons (1985-88), working with the defensive backs, running backs and special teams during his tenure (he was also the offensive coordinator in 1988). He worked there under coach Bob Cope, a former USC assistant.

Burns began his coaching career at his collegiate alma mater, Arkansas, as a graduate assistant for 2 years (1983-84). Former Trojan defensive coordinator Don Lindsey, who Burns succeeded at USC, was the defensive coordinator at Arkansas during Burns' first season there as a coach.

He was a 4-year (1979-82) letterman defensive back at Arkansas, starting for 3 seasons. Lindsey was the defensive coordinator there for Burns' last 2 seasons. Burns earned a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1983.

Born Sept. 26, 1960, he was an all-state footballer at L.D. Bell High in Hurst, Tex.

He and his wife, Yvonne, have 2 sons, K.C., 9, and Tanner, 7.

MIKE BARRY

Offensive Line

Known as an outstanding offensive line coach, Mike Barry is in his fourth season at USC. He came to Troy in January of 1993.

He is in charge of one of the traditionally preeminent units in college football (there have been 26 first team All-American offensive linemen at USC since 1964 and 19 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968).

In 1995, USC offensive tackle John Michels made the All-Pac-10 first team and was a first round NFL draft choice.

In 1994, Trojan offensive tackle Tony Boselli was a consensus All-American and a first round NFL draft choice (the No. 2 pick).

In 1993, Barry had the unique opportunity of being a coach on a team that included his son, Joe, who was an inside linebacker. This year, Joe is serving alongside Mike on USC's coaching staff as a defensive assistant (he was Troy's video coordinator in 1994).

Barry, 49, has 24 years of coaching experience. He came to USC after serving as the interior offensive line coach at Colorado for 6 seasons (1987-92). He tutored the entire line in 1991. Colorado won the national championship in 1990.

He began his coaching career as an assistant for 5 years (1972-76) at his prep alma mater, Fenwick High in Oak Park, Ill.

His first collegiate coaching experience was at his college alma mater, Southern Illinois, as the offensive line coach for 3 seasons (1977-79). He then was the offensive line coach at Arizona for 4 years (1980-83) under former USC coach Larry Smith.

Barry then worked in pro football for 2 years, first as the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator for the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers (1984), then as the line coach with the New Orleans/Portland Breakers (1985).

He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the offensive line coach at Iowa State.

Barry was a 2-year starting center at Southern Illinois (he spent his first 2 years of college at Nebraska). He earned 2 degrees from SIU: a bachelor's in physical education in 1969 and a master's in recreation and special education in 1972.

Born Oct. 18, 1946, he starred in 3 sports at Fenwick High.

Besides son Joe, 26, Mike has a daughter, Courtney, 20.

JEFF McINERNEY

Defensive Line

Jeff McInerney, who has been a coach with 3 national championship squads, was named USC's defensive line coach in February of 1996.

McInerney, 36, spent the past 2 seasons (1994-95) at Duke. He handled the defensive ends in 1994, then was the linebackers coach and defensive coordinator in 1995.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Slippery Rock, as a student coach in 1981 after injuring his knee playing football the previous year. He then was a graduate assistant coach in charge of linebackers there in 1982.

His first full-time position was with the appropriately-named Troy State Trojans, where he was an assistant for 5 seasons (1983-87) handling the linebackers. Troy State won the NCAA Division II national championship in 1984 and 1987.

After a season (1988) coaching the linebackers at Southern Illinois, he was the inside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas-El Paso in 1989.

He then was the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Georgia Southern for 2 years (1990-91). The Eagles won the NCAA Division I-AA national title in 1990. He then spent 2 seasons (1992-93) at Rice coaching the defensive ends before moving to Duke.

He earned his bachelor's degree in 1982 in physical education from Slippery Rock, where he was a 3-year (1978-80) letterman linebacker on the football team. He received a master's degree in secondary education from Troy State in 1984.

He starred in football and baseball at South Windsor (Ct.) High.

Born June 22, 1960, he and his wife, Leslie, have a son, Ryan, 10, and a daughter, Amy, 6.

DAVID ROBINSON

Linebackers

John Robinson knows a lot about his linebackers coach. That's because it's his oldest son, David, now in his fourth year at USC and a fine coach in his own right.

David, 33, who joined the Trojan staff in January of 1993, was Troy's tight ends coach his first 3 seasons (1993-95), then was put in charge of the linebackers in 1996.

He has coached with 6 other teams in his career: as the offensive line coach at College of the Desert in Palm Desert, Calif., in 1992, a volunteer assistant at California in 1991 (working with the defensive line), a graduate assistant at Michigan in 1990, the outside linebackers coach at UC Davis for 2 seasons (1988-89), a general assistant with the Los Angeles Rams in 1987 (when his father was the coach there), and an assistant coach at St. Anthony's High in Long Beach, Calif., in 1986.

Robinson was a 2-year starting tight end for Fullerton (Calif.) Junior College, which won the 1983 national JC title, and then played at Long Beach State (1984-85). He earned a bachelor's degree from Long Beach State in 1986.

He prepped at Sonora High in La Habra, Calif.

Born July 19, 1963, he is single.

MIKE SANFORD

Wide Receivers

Mike Sanford, USC's wide receivers coach, is no stranger to John Robinson.

Sanford, a player and graduate assistant coach at USC during Robinson's earlier head coaching stint at USC, was the only fulltime assistant retained from Larry Smith's staff when Robinson was hired in January of 1993.

Sanford, 41, has been in charge of USC's wide receivers the past 7 years (since 1989). He has coached 3 Trojan All-American first teamers (flanker Curtis Conway in 1992, who was a first round draft pick in the 1993 NFL draft, wide receiver Johnnie Morton in 1993, Troy's all-time receiving leader who set 12 Pac-10 and USC records and then was a 1994 first round NFL draft choice, and wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson in 1995, a unanimous All-American first teamer and the No. 1 pick in the 1996 NFL draft) and 5 USC All-Pac-10 first team receivers (split end John Jackson in 1989, flanker Gary Wellman in 1990, Conway in 1991 and 1992, Morton in 1993, and Johnson in 1994 and 1995). Jackson was USC's career receiving leader before Morton surpassed him. Wellman was USC's first 1,000-yard season receiver (he is sixth on USC's all-time pass catching list), Morton was the second to do so and Johnson became the third (he was the first to do it 2 times).

Sanford made 5 coaching stops prior to returning to Troy in the summer of 1989 after a 12-year absence.

He was the quarterbacks and receivers coach and game coordinator at Purdue for 2 years (1987-88).

Before that, he spent 4 seasons (1983-86) handling the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Long Beach State. He was also Long Beach State's offensive coordinator his final 2 years there (Long Beach State was in the Top 10 nationally in pass offense both years). His 49er quarterback, Doug Gaynor, set 4 NCAA career records, while Mark Templeton set the NCAA career pass catching mark.

Sanford was also at Virginia Military Institute for 2 years (1981-82), working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends, as well as serving as the pass offense coordinator.

And he spent 2 years (1979-80) at Army under Lou Saban, handling the wide receivers and tight ends.

In 1978, he was the defensive coordinator at San Diego City College.

Sanford began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for Robinson at USC in 1977.

He had spent the previous 4 years (1973-76) at USC as a reserve quarterback and safety. In 1975, John McKay's final year, Sanford began the season as Troy's No. 4 quarterback, but he was suddenly named the starter (for Vince Evans) for the Washington game late in the year. He was such an unknown that when McKay announced this to the media prior to the game, the coach called him "Stafford." Sanford gave a valiant effort, but USC lost, 8-7, on a safety following a bad snap to the punter.

He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from USC in 1978.

Sanford was an All-Northern California quarterback at Los Altos (Calif.) High in the Bay Area. His brother, Bill, played football and baseball at Washington State, while another brother, Steve, played football at Washington.

Sanford was born on April 20, 1955. He and his wife, Melinda (a USC graduate), have 2 children: a daughter, Lindsay, 17, and a son, Michael, 14.

DOUG SMITH

Offensive Line

Doug Smith knows a thing or two about the offensive line, as he spent his entire playing career as a talented offensive lineman.

He's now in his fourth year at USC, his second working with the offensive line. He spent his first 2 years on the other side of the ball, serving as Troy's defensive line coach. He coached Willie McGinest at USC in 1993 and McGinest was the fourth pick in the 1994 NFL draft.

Smith, 39, was reunited with his pro coach when John Robinson hired him at USC in January of 1993.

He was a volunteer coach with the Los Angeles Rams in 1992, working with the offensive line.

He spent his entire 14-year (1978-1991), 188-game NFL playing career with the Rams as a center (he also played some at guard and tackle early in his career). He was named to the Pro Bowl 6 times (1984-89). He played in Super Bowl XIV. He was named All-NFL in 1986 and All-NFC in 1989, both by Football News. From 1986 to 1991, he started 76 consecutive games. Signed as a free agent, he was active throughout his NFL career in charity and community functions as well as speaking for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He was a 4-year letterman at Bowling Green (1974-77), winning All-Mid-American Conference honors at guard as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Bowling Green in 1978 and a master's degree in exercise physiology from Cal State Fullerton in 1987.

Born Nov. 25, 1956, Smith was a 3-sport star at Northland High in Columbus, Ohio.

He and his wife, Debbie, have 2 daughters, Jessica, 11, and Jenna, 8.

DENNIS THURMAN

Secondary

Dennis Thurman, one of USC's and the NFL's great defensive backs, returned to his alma mater in January of 1993 to share his playing and coaching knowledge. He's in his fourth season handling the Trojan secondary, primarily the cornerbacks.

Thurman, 40, was a 2-time All-American (1976-77) safety and 4-year letterman (1974-77) at USC, playing for John McKay and then John Robinson. He was a member of the 1974 Trojan national champions and played on Trojan teams that won 4 bowl games. In his Trojan career, he had 13 interceptions (tied for sixth on Troy's all-time list) and returned 2 for TDs. He added 169 career tackles, 11 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries, plus 28 punt returns and 2 kickoff returns. He led the conference in interceptions in 1976 with 8. During his first 2 years at USC, he played both safety and flanker (overall, he started 5 games at flanker, catching 3 passes and running 7 reverses).

Thurman then spent 9 years as a cornerback and safety in the NFL, his first 8 seasons (1978-85) with the Dallas Cowboys (he was an 11th round draft pick) and then 1986 with the St. Louis Cardinals. He had 36 career NFL interceptions and played in the 1981 Pro Bowl. He never missed a game during his 137-game career.

After his playing career, Thurman became an assistant coach. He was the secondary coach for the Phoenix Cardinals under Gene Stallings for 2 years (1988-89), then was the defensive coordinator of the World League's Ohio Glory in 1992 (he was out of coaching in 1990 and 1991).

His brother, Junior, was a Trojan defensive back in 1985-86. Dennis earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from USC in 1978.

Born April 13, 1956, Thurman was a 3-sport star at Santa Monica (Calif.) High.

Thurman is the father of 2 daughters: Chelsea, 12, and Jade, 7.

CHARLES WHITE

Running Backs

"Somehow, I always feel better with Charlie White standing next to me," said USC coach John Robinson when he named White as USC's running backs coach in January of 1993. "He was the toughest, most intense running back I've ever coached."

The pair have a long association. White, 38 and in the fourth year of his first-ever coaching job (Trojan running back Delon Washington broke the 1,000-yard rushing barrier in 1995), was USC's 1979 Heisman Trophy winner at tailback and a 2-time unanimous All-American (1978-79). He finished his 4-year USC career (1976-79, all under Robinson) as the school's all-time rushing leader with 6,245 yards (second best in NCAA history) and 49 TDs. As a senior, he led the nation in rushing with 2,050 yards and set or equalled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He was the nation's leading all-purpose runner in 1978 and 1979. USC captured the national championship in 1978 (it finished second in 1976 and 1979) and won 4 bowl games during his career. The 1979 and 1980 Rose Bowl Player of the Game, White was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1990. In 1995, he was inducted into USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

A first round 1980 draft pick of the Cleveland Browns, he played in the NFL for 9 years. He was with the Browns from 1980 through 1984, then was with Robinson's Los Angeles Rams from 1985 until retiring after the 1988 season. He led the NFL in rushing in 1987 with 1,374 yards and was named to the Pro Bowl.

He spent 3 years (1990-92) as a special assistant to former USC athletic director Mike McGee, involved in the Former Athlete Degree Achievement Program (for ex-Trojans who return to USC to finish their degree requirements), as well as in the athletic department's summer sports camp for local youths, community relations and facilities management. White himself was a participant in the FADAP program and received his bachelor's degree in communications from USC in 1993.

White has 3 times been a winner on a special football players segment of the "American Gladiators" television show.

Born Jan. 22, 1958, he was a football and track star at San Fernando (Calif.) High.

He and his wife, Judi, have 5 children: daughters Nicole, 15, Tara, 10, and Sophia, 9, and sons Julian, 14, and Ashton, 11.

DelVAUGHN ALEXANDER

Wide Receivers, Tight Ends

Alexander, who was on USC's football and track teams as an undergraduate, joined the Trojan coaching staff in 1996 as an assistant offensive coach (he works with the wide receivers and tight ends).

He spent the 1995 season as an assistant video coordinator with the USC football program.

Alexander, 25, lettered as a reserve wide receiver and special teams player for Troy in 1993 and 1994 (he saw action in 14 games). He caught just 1 pass in his career, but he made it count: a 13-yard TD grab against Oregon State in 1993.

He was a triple jumper and high jumper on the Trojan track team in 1993 and 1994. He competed in 3 meets as a 1994 senior, winning the high jump at the USC 4-Way meet at 6-6 3/4 and finishing third in the triple jump at 46-10 1/4, both season bests. As a 1993 junior, he competed in 7 meets. He posted a season-best 47-11 to finish fourth in the triple jump at the Cal State Northridge triangular meet. He won the high jump with a leap of 6-8 at the USC quadrangular meet. He had a season-best 6-9 3/4 high jump at the UCLA tri-meet to finish second. He qualified for the Pac-10 Championships in the high jump, but did not record a height. He also high jumped over 6-6 in 2 other meets and triple jumped over 45-8 in 3 other meets.

He transferred to USC from West Los Angeles (Calif.) College in the spring of 1993. In his only season (1992) of football at West Los Angeles, Alexander earned All-Western State Conference first team honors as he caught 22 passes for 430 yards (a league-leading 19.5 avg.) and 3 TDs. He competed in 1 season (1991) of track at West Los Angeles, finishing third in the Southern California J.C. meet in the high jump and sixth at the state meet. He recorded a career-best 48-7 in the triple jump and a personal-best 6-11 in the high jump at the 1991 Mt. SAC Relays. He was the Western State Conference champ in the triple jump and high jump. Also a fine student, he made the Dean's Honor List both years there.

At University High in Los Angeles, Alexander competed in football (earning All-L.A. City honors) and basketball, but was best known as a trackster. He won the 1989 L.A. City title in the triple jump and high jump. He also won league titles in those events, as well as in the 110-meter high hurdles. He was named Coastal Conference Athlete of the Year in 1989.

He received his bachelor's degree in history from USC in 1995. He is working currently on his master's degree in education at USC.

Born July 16, 1971, Alexander is single.

JOE BARRY

Defensive Line

After being a member of the USC football team for 3 years, Joe Barry is in his third year with the Trojan football staff. He was Troy's video coordinator in 1994 and since 1995 has been an assistant defensive coach (he works with the defensive line).

Joe also has the unique opportunity to work with his father, Mike, who is USC's offensive line coach.

Barry, 26, started 7 games at inside linebacker for the Trojans in 1993. He recorded 33 tackles overall (1 for a loss), 3 deflections and 1 interception (late in the Washington game to preserve Troy's victory). He had a team-best 7 tackles at Oregon before suffering a sprained left knee in the game, which sidelined him for the Oregon State contest and limited him to special teams duty against Notre Dame and California.

As a 1992 junior, Barry served as the often-employed No. 2 weakside inside linebacker, as well as playing on special teams. Three of his 4 tackles in 1992 were for losses (of 10 yards), including 1 sack. Barry sat out 1991 after transferring to USC from Michigan.

Barry did not play as a 1990 redshirt freshman at Michigan while recovering from a 1989 late-season knee injury. He redshirted in 1989 as a first-year freshman inside linebacker for the Wolverines.

He received his bachelor's degree in communications from USC in 1994. He is working currently on his master's degree in education at USC.

Barry was a 2-time (1987-88) All-Colorado pick at Fairview High in Boulder. Barry was an All-Iowa second team selection as a 1986 sophomore at Ames (Ia.) High. He also starred in basketball and track as a prepster.

Born July 5, 1970, Barry is married and his wife's name is Christine (she's the daughter of former USC defensive line coach Rod Marinelli).

JAMES STROM

Strength and Conditioning Coach

James Strom is in his fourth season as USC's strength and conditioning coach after being named to the position in February of 1993.

Strom, 33, served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach of the Los Angeles Rams for 3 seasons (1987-89) while John Robinson was the coach.

He then worked in the Santa Ana (Calif.) and Whittier (Calif.) school districts as an adapted physical education specialist.

He also has operated F.I.T. Beach Athletics since 1990, an outdoor weight facility in Long Beach, Calif., and for 6 seasons (1985-90) served as a personal trainer for major league pitcher Jeff Dedmon.

Strom received bachelor's degrees in physical education from Long Beach State in 1987 (fitness) and 1991 (adapted physical education) and an associate arts degree in athletic training from Santa Ana College in 1984.

While in college, he served as a physical therapy aide at the Physical Therapy Institute in Huntington Beach, Calif., and as a student trainer with the Rams.

Born Aug. 30, 1963, he is an avid runner and has completed 7 marathons. He serves as a consultant for Met-Rx, a sports nutritional drink.

He and his wife, Jogie, have a daughter, Sydney, 2.

Strom is assisted by Jamie Yanchar and Brad Simpkins.

MARK PRETO

Video Coordinator

Mark Preto came to USC in June of 1995 as the video coordinator after handling similar duties at Oregon for 4 years (1991-94).

He was the Ducks' head video coordinator for 2 seasons (1993-94) after serving as a graduate assistant in 1991 and an assistant in 1992. In the summer of 1992, he also worked in the video department of the Cleveland Browns.

Preto, 29, was an assistant video and recruiting coordinator for 2 years (1989-90) at his alma mater, Akron.

He played outside linebacker for 3 seasons (1986-88) at Akron. In 1986, he was named the team's top scholar-athlete. He received his bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from Akron in 1990.

He starred in football and wrestling at Benedictine High in Cleveland (Ohio).

Born Feb. 26, 1967, Preto is single.

ADAM ABRAMS

Placekicker
So.*/Jr.

1996: The accurate Abrams, whose high-pressure field goal was the decisive points in USC's 1996 Rose Bowl win, returns as the likely placekicker in 1996 as a sophomore after performing well when healthy in 1995. He could be in line for All-Pac-10 honors.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Abrams can become a great kicker. He gets the ball up very fast and has good leg strength. I said when we first signed him that he'd make some of the bigger kicks in USC history and he already has. In the Rose Bowl, he was faced with a kick that can make or break a career and he nailed it. He might be the best kicker in the Pac-10."

1995: Abrams inherited the placekicking job vacated by Cole Ford as a redshirt freshman in 1995. But a strained right thigh suffered prior to the Houston game limited him to just 6 contests (San Jose State, Arizona, Arizona State, Oregon State, UCLA and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl). Overall in 1995, he hit 5-of-6 field goals: a long of 46 yards in the fourth quarter against Northwestern which proved to be USC's decisive points (it was the longest field goal by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl) to go along with a 30-yarder earlier in the game, plus a 41-yarder at Arizona, a 39-yarder versus Arizona State, and a 33-yarder against San Jose State on his first-ever 3-point attempt as a collegian. He also made 21-of-22 PATs. He handled some early-season kickoffs until getting hurt.

1994: Abrams redshirted as a placekicker in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Abrams was on the 1993 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American and Football News All-American first teams, plus USA Today All-USA second team, Tom Lemming's Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team (the first placekicker selected in the 18 years of the poll), Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, National Football Foundation/San Diego Chapter Offensive Player of the Year and All-CIF San Diego Section first team at The Bishop's School in La Jolla (Calif.). He hit 9-of-13 field goals (including 52- and 50-yarders) and 30-of-30 PATs as a 1993 senior.

He made the San Diego Union-Tribune All-San Diego County second team in 1992 as a junior while hitting 8-of-11 field goals and 30-of-30 PATs. He was 13-of-17 on PATs in 1991 as a sophomore. In his career, 116 of his 126 kickoffs went for touchbacks, including one that he kicked from the 20-yard line following a safety. He raised more than $7,000 for the Make-A-Wish Foundation by raising pledges for each point he scored as a junior and senior, an effort that was acknowledged by California governor Pete Wilson, who nominated Adam for a Young American Medal for Service.

He also was All-League in soccer and baseball as a prep. He won an Advanced Placement Scholar Award at Bishop's.

PERSONAL: Adam is a business major at USC with a B+ average (3.34 GPA). His brother, Eric, was a placekicker at Stanford (1992-95). They kicked against each other in high school, as Eric went to Country Day School in La Jolla. Adam played keyboards in a band when he was younger. He says the funniest thing that happened to him in a game was when "I once downed my own punt when I was kicking into an extremely strong wind which took the ball backwards behind the line of scrimmage." His sports hero is ex-USC All-American linebacker Junior Seau.

ADAM ABRAMS ON: Redshirting as a freshman: "That was fine with me, because I was able to get settled in with the whole program. I started to get the routine down with football and managing my time. And I learned a lot from Cole Ford, watching him in the games and in practice...I think I was a lot more prepared for 1995."

Adjustments from high school to college kicking: "I'm working on my elevation, because when I watched Cole kick, compared to me, he got so much elevation. I've got to work on my hip strength...(Kicking without a tee,) I've lost a little bit of distance and elevation, but I've gotten a lot better at it than when I started. The redshirt year helped with that...The Coliseum is sort of a tough place to kick, because the grass is real soft and the ball sinks in. You've got to really work on getting the ball up."

JOHN ALLRED

Tight End
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: The experienced Allred, who has everything you look for in an outstanding tight end, will take over the spot vacated by Johnny McWilliams as a senior in 1996. He's a candidate for All-Pac-10 honors. He also could be the long snapper.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Allred will be an all-star tight end this year. He's one of the most physical tight ends we've had, a dominant blocker and a solid pass receiver. He's a fierce competitor and a team leader. He can become one of USC's best-ever tight ends."

1995: Allred appeared in all 12 games as a junior tight end in 1995. Although he didn't start, he was used often in multiple tight end situations as both an H-back (tight-end-in-motion) and the traditional down tight end. Overall in 1995, he caught 6 passes for 70 yards (11.7 avg.) with 2 TDs (an 18-yarder against Arizona State, his first collegiate touchdown, and a 19-yarder at California). He also notched 2 tackles (1 each versus San Jose State and Houston) on special teams.

1994: As a 1994 sophomore, Allred started USC's first 3 games at tight end, but then broke his left leg in practice prior to the Oregon game and was sidelined until the Notre Dame contest. He played briefly in goal line situations against the Irish and then caught a 12-yard pass against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. Overall, he had 11 catches for 143 yards (13.0 avg.). He had a career-high 3 catches (for 26 yards) in the Washington season opener, then upped his personal best with 4 grabs (for 61 yards) at Penn State. He also had 3 catches (for 44 yards) versus Baylor.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Allred saw action in USC's first 11 games of 1993 as the backup tight end behind Banta and on special teams. He sat out the UCLA and Utah games with a broken bone in his left lower leg. He caught 10 passes for 93 yards (9.3 avg.) in 1993, including 2 each at Penn State, Notre Dame and California. He also recorded 5 tackles on special teams.

1992: Allred redshirted as a tight end in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-way star and 3-year starter at Torrey Pines High in Encinitas (Calif.), Allred made Super Prep All-Far West, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Diego County first team, Oceanside Blade-Tribune All-Area first team (offense and defense), and All-Palomar League first team (tight end and linebacker) as a senior in 1991. He was named Palomar League Defensive Player of the Year as well after recording 93 tackles and a pair of interceptions. He had 23 catches for 347 yards (15.1 avg.) as a tight end for the Falcons, who finished 8-3 in 1991 and in second place in the Palomar League. He was named a scholar-athlete by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame and won San Diego Union Academic Athlete Award. He was a 3-year varsity letterman in basketball.

PERSONAL: John's sister, Linda, was a key member of the USC women's tennis team from 1989 to 1992. He bench presses 340 pounds. He's a history major at USC.

JOHN ALLRED ON: Blocking: "I love it. I don't mind doing it at all. It's nice to see us running the ball against like USC is used to...But I like the quarterbacks and coaches to know that if they need me to get open, I will."

Missing most of the 1994 season with a broken leg: "It was so disappointing. It was probably the worst year of my life. I felt invisible. You get hurt and you don't feel like you're part of the team."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC quarterback Kyle Wachholtz: "John doesn't get a lot of publicity or attention, but he's a team leader. He does a lot of the things that people don't notice--blocking, getting open on third down when we need a first down, stuff like that."

BOB AUBREY

Linebacker
So.*/Jr.

1996: Aubrey will compete for the starting job at middle linebacker (in the spot vacated by co-starters Errick Herrin and Brian Haas) as a sophomore in 1996. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while covering from 1995 post-season arthroscopic surgery to remove bone spurs in his left ankle.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Aubrey is a young, improving player who had a good spring and put himself into position to compete for playing time in our linebacking corps."

1995: As a redshirt freshman reserve linebacker, Aubrey saw his only action of 1995 on special teams against San Jose State. He did not make a tackle.

1994: Aubrey redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Aubrey was named 1993 Blue Chip All-Western Region, Pasadena Star-News All-Area first team, Glendale News Press All-Area second team, All-Mission League first team, and team MVP as a senior at St. Francis High in La Canada (Calif.). He led his team in tackles in 1993 with 118 (7 for losses), plus 5 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 2 interceptions and 2 blocked kicks. He played outside linebacker, safety, tight end and halfback in 1993.

As a 1992 junior, he was All-Area second team and All-Mission League first team while posting 78 tackles, 7 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions. He made the 1991 All-San Fernando League second team as a sophomore and scored a 65-yard TD the first time he ever touched the ball. He also was on the track team at St. Francis. Fellow Trojan Rome Douglas attended St. Francis before moving to another high school.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He bench presses 390 pounds. His parents (his father, Truman, lettered on the 1961 Trojan national championship baseball team) and older brother also attended USC.

MIKE BASTIANELLI

Safety
So./So.

1996: One of USC's top athletes, Bastianelli was moved to safety in 1996 spring drills. Besides serving as a backup there to Brian Kelly as a sophomore in 1996, he'll be a key special teamer and likely will handle the kickoff duties. He's also the emergency punter and placekicker.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Bastianelli came through for us last year as a multipurpose player. We need him on defense this year. He's a good athlete and a winner who will find his way onto the field in 1996."

1995: As a first-year freshman, Bastianelli played a variety of roles for USC in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games. As a reserve wide receiver, he made 1 catch for 15 yards (a key reception on third-and-12 to keep a USC scoring drive alive). He also played on numerous special teams, where he recorded 7 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 9 yards (he tackled the Stanford punter before he could get the ball off), and even scored a touchdown when he fell on the ball in the end zone when USC's Larry Parker fumbled at the end of a 63-yard punt return versus Washington State. Bastianelli also handled the kickoff duties admirably the last 10 games when placekickers Adam Abrams and Adam Rendon were slowed with leg injuries.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1994 honors included Blue Chip All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-Western, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro MVP as an option quarterback, wide receiver, strong safety, placekicker and punter for De La Salle High in Concord (Calif.). He completed 54% of his passes for 876 yards and 13 TDs in 1994 as a senior, plus ran for 938 yards (9.6 avg.) with 20 TDs. He averaged 40 yards per punt. He set a state record with 162 career PAT kicks. De La Salle went 13-0 in 1994, was the state champ and was picked by ESPN as the nation's No. 1 team.

As a 1993 junior, he passed for 1,135 yards and 14 TDs, ran for 861 yards and 17 scores, and even kicked a 48-yard field goal. He was named to the 1993 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first teams. De La Salle never lost (39-0) in his 3-year career, winning 3 North Coast Section 3A titles. He also played soccer as a prep.

MIKE BASTIANELLI ON: Playing different positions: "Whatever Coach (John) Robinson wants me to do, I'll do. If he wants me to play defensive back, I'll play defensive back. If he wants me to play receiver, I'll play receiver. If he wants me to kick, I'll kick...I didn't plan on kicking at all. But the more I can do, the more I help the team out. Not a lot of freshmen get this opportunity and I'm lucky I did."

GRANT BOELTER

Offensive Tackle
6-6, 310
Jr./Jr.

1996: Boelter transferred to USC in the spring of 1996 from City College of San Francisco and is listed as the No. 2 right offensive tackle behind Ken Bowen as a junior going into 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Boelter has the size, talent and credentials to be a factor on our offensive line. He is a well-schooled run blocker."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Boelter made the 1995 Super Prep JUCO 100 and All-Coast Conference as a sophomore offensive tackle at City College of San Francisco (Calif.), which was 9-2 and ranked 13th in the U.S. (seventh in California). He also won All-Coast Conference honors as a freshman in 1994 as his team went 11-0 and was named national champion.

HIGH SCHOOL: Boelter prepped at Judson High in Converse (Tex.), earning All-State, All-District, All-Area and All-City honors as a 1993 senior. He was an All-District, All-Area and All-City pick as a 1992 junior. Judson won the state 5A Division I title in 1992 and 1993. He was coached at Judson by his father, Melvin, who played linebacker at Texas A&I. He also threw the shot put (with a best of 54-0) for Judson's track team.

PERSONAL: In the summers, he mans a roadside stand in his hometown of Seguin, Tex., that sells peaches from his family's 25,000-tree peach farm.

KEN BOWEN

Offensive Tackle
6-8, 320
So.*/Jr.

1996: Bowen, one of USC's biggest players, figures to start at the right offensive tackle spot vacated by Norberto Garrido as a sophomore in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Bowen has a good future. He has the size, commitment and intelligence needed to develop into an outstanding player. He's very efficient and knows what he's doing. He just needs to get more physical. He's a giant of a man. He's very bright and nice, and we're trying to make him a bit meaner."

1995: As a 1995 redshirt freshman, Bowen was the backup right offensive tackle behind Garrido and also played on special teams. He appeared in all 12 games in 1995, including 6 (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona, Arizona State, Oregon State, and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl) briefly on the line.

1994: Bowen redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Bowen earned 1993 Super Prep All-Florida, All-Central Florida and All-Metro notice as a senior at Dr. Phillips High in Orlando (Fla.). He made All-Metro third team as a 1992 junior. He also was on the wrestling and track teams, throwing the javelin, discus (166-7 best) and shot put (50-3 best).

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He was born in San Antonio, Tex. He bench presses 430 pounds.

KEN BOWEN ON: His demeanor: "I've become more aggressive, which is what everyone has been looking for. People are always telling me not to be such a nice guy, that it's okay to run guys over on the field. I'm starting to realize that I can do that...I'm going to try to step up the aggressiveness. They keep telling me to be nasty, be nasty. It's what I have to do so I'm going to do it."

His ability: "I've improved in my quickness, my pass blocking, my concentration, and knowing myself. My confidence is a lot better. I'm not thinking so much with what I should be doing."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Paul Goldberg, USC Report: "There's a gentle giant on USC's offensive line, but he's learning to be mean...It's fitting that Bown is the heir apparent to Norberto Garrido. Both can block out the sun with the best of 'em and both have had to be prodded in their careers to be aggressive."

CHRIS BRYMER

Offensive Guard
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: Brymer, a starting offensive guard in 1994 who was ineligible in 1995, returns to action in 1996 as a junior and is inked into the lineup once again at left guard (at the spot vacated by Kyle Ramsay).

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "It's good to get Brymer back. He's a tough, tested player who will be the backbone of our line. He's going to be very good, maybe an all-star in time."

1995: Brymer, who was in line to start at left offensive guard as a sophomore in 1995, sat out the season while academically ineligible.

1993: Brymer redshirted as an offensive guard in 1993, his first year at USC. A right ankle sprain sidelined him during the final 3 weeks of the regular season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, All-San Bernardino County, All-Citrus Belt League first team and team MVP at Apple Valley (Calif.) High.

In 1991, he was All-San Bernardino County and All-San Andreas League first team (both offense and defense). He made All-San Andreas League in 1990.

Chris was also was a shot putter (57-9 best) who placed fourth in the 1991 CIF meet and discus thrower (161-1 best).

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He bench presses 430 pounds. He likes to play pool.

CHRIS BRYMER ON: Playing offensive line: "I don't take anything from other people on the field. I beat up people as much as I can. I'm a mean guy on the field. When I get a chance to do something, no mercy. You get hit, you want to go get them back. I flip the switch and I'm ready to go get people. You've got to be mean to play. You can't be going out here hugging people. It's like a fight. A legal fight."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC 2-time All-American offensive tackle and 1995 NFL first round pick Tony Boselli: "Chris is so strong, he gets away with a lot of things other guys wouldn't. He goes after guys and he's tough. I like playing with guys like that."

RASHARD COOK

Safety
6-0, 190
So./So.

1996: Cook, a hard-hitting sophomore with experience, enters 1996 listed as a co-starter at strong safety with Grant Pearsall.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Cook can really play. He did well as a true freshman in 1995 and will be counted on even more in 1996. He's going to be very good."

1995: Cook served as a reserve free safety and key special teams player as a first-year freshman in 1995. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 8 tackles (including 3 at Oregon State while seeing extensive action as a fifth defensive back when regular nickel back Jesse Davis got hurt). Cook also returned 4 kickoffs for 48 yards (12.0 avg.) as an up man on the kickoff return team, including 2 for 26 yards at Notre Dame and a 22-yarder against Houston.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1994 Blue Chip All-American, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, Student Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF San Diego Section second team and All-Eastern League pick as a senior safety and quarterback at Morse High in San Diego (Calif.). He made 86 tackles, 5 interceptions, 8 defelctions, 3 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery in 1994. In the option offense, he ran for 823 yards and 8 TDs and passed for 874 yards with 9 TDs in 1994.

As a 1993 junior, he ran for 809 yards with 5 TDs and passed for 726 yards with 7 TDs on offense, while on defense he had 107 tackles, 5 interceptions, 11 deflections, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries (he also returned a punt for a TD). His junior season honors included 1993 All-CIF San Diego Section and All-Eastern League. He added 45 tackles, 6 picks, 10 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery as a 1992 sophomore while earning 1992 All-CIF San Diego Section second team and All-Eastern League honors on a 14-0 Morse team. He was a 3-year starter at safety and had 16 interceptions. Morse won the CIF San Diego Section Division I title in 1992 and 1994.

Also a fine student, he was a 1994 National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame San Diego Scholar-Athlete and was on the 1993 and 1994 San Diego Union-Tribune All-Academic team. He also was on Morse's basketball (he averaged 10 points) and track (with bests of 10.9 in the 100 meters, 23 feet in the long jump, 48 feet in the triple jump and 6-4 in the high jump) teams.

PERSONAL: His sports hero is Jackie Robinson.

RASHARD COOK ON: Hitting: "I just want to hit a person before he hits me. Whoever is coming with the most force is less likely to get hurt. And I like to make sure that they're down."

MARK CUSANO

Linebacker
6-2, 225
So./So.

1996: Cusano, a precocious sophomore, figures to start at the strongside linebacker spot in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Cusano opened our eyes in 1995 by showing us what he can do. He's a quick, instinctive linebacker with a fine future. One day, he'll be an all-star."

1995: Cusano played often as a backup at linebacker to Errick Herrin (he came in often during passing situations) and on special teams as a first-year freshman in 1995. He even started against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl in the 4-4-3 defense that USC employed. Overall in 1995, he had 50 tackles (tied for fourth on USC), including 1 for a loss of 2 yards, plus 4 deflections. He notched at least 2 tackles in every game, including 7 at Oregon State, 6 against Washington State (with 2 deflections), and 5 versus California, UCLA and Northwestern.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1994 honors included Blue Chip All-American, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, Blue Chip All-Southwest, All-State Class 5A first team, Dallas Morning News All-State, and Dallas Morning News All-Area as a linebacker at The Colony (Tex.) High. As a 1994 senior, he made 140 tackles, 6 sacks, 8 fumble recoveries and an interception for a TD.

He added 126 tackles (16 for losses, with 3 sacks) and 4 fumble recoveries as a 1993 junior. In his career as a 3-year starter, he had 9 sacks, blocked 2 punts and scored 3 TDs.

PERSONAL: He was born in San Clemente, Calif. He bench presses 350 pounds. His sports hero is Walter Payton.

JEFF DILTZ

Tight End
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: Diltz, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship, will be a backup (with Junior Rickman) to John Allred at tight end, as well as a key special teams player as a senior in 1996. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while recovering from 1995 post-season surgery on a dislocating left shoulder.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Diltz is a solid player who provides experienced depth at tight end. He keeps improving each year."

1995: Diltz was a junior reserve tight end and special teams performer in 1995. He appeared in all 12 games, including 5 as a tight end (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona, Arizona State, and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl). But he did not catch a pass in 1995, but made 1 tackle (against Northwestern).

1994: As a sophomore, Diltz appeared in 10 games in 1994 as a reserve tight end and on special teams. He caught just 3 passes in 1994, but he made 2 of them count: 11-yard TD grabs against California and in the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech. He missed the Washington and Penn State games while recovering from arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his right knee, which occurred in pre-season practice.

1993: Diltz played in 12 games as a redshirt freshman tight end, mainly on special teams. He did not catch a pass or make a tackle. He earned a scholarship prior to the start of the 1993 season.

1992: Diltz redshirted as a tight end in his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Diltz prepped at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). He and current Trojan Jonathan Himebauch were teammates at Damien.

PERSONAL: He's a business accounting major at USC with a B- average (2.70). He bench presses 340 pounds.

ROME DOUGLAS

Offensive Tackle
So.*/Jr.

1996: Douglas, an athletic sophomore (he also played basketball at USC), benefitted from a 1995 late-season position switch from tight end to offensive tackle. He won the starting job in 1996 at the left tackle spot vacated by NFL first rounder John Michels.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Douglas has taken well to the move to offensive tackle. He has added weight and it's just a matter of time before he becomes a dominant blocker. He's very athletic and has good speed. Although he doesn't have much experience, he's on his way to becoming really special."

1995: Douglas began his 1995 redshirt freshman season as a reserve tight end (he played against San Jose State and Houston in 1995, but did not catch a pass), but was moved to a reserve offensive tackle late in the season (he played briefly against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl).

1994: Douglas redshirted as a tight end in 1994, his first year at USC.

BASKETBALL: Douglas did double duty as a freshman, as he was a reserve forward on the USC men's basketball team in 1995. He appeared briefly in 5 games, scoring 1 point (0.2 avg.). On days when the basketball and football teams practiced, he attended both workouts.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western Region and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 honors as a senior at Claremont (Calif.) High. He had 7 catches for 188 yards (16.9 avg.) in 1993, along with 69 tackles and 11 deflections.

He was an All-League pick as a 1992 junior at St. Francis High in La Canada, where he caught 18 passes for 313 yards (17.4 avg.) and 5 TDs. That was his first year of playing football. Fellow Trojan Bob Aubrey also prepped at St. Francis.

He also played basketball (averaging 20.0 points, once getting 36 points and 22 rebounds in a game, and making the 1993 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Grid-Hoop second team), baseball and track.

PERSONAL: His father, James Douglas, played basketball at Memphis State in 1968-71 and professionally. He was named Rome because his parents were married in the Italian capital. He bench presses 405 pounds. He's a history major at USC.

ROME DOUGLAS ON: His move to offensive tackle: "It was natural. When I first started talking to Coach Robinson about moving to tackle, I was kind of scared. But he knew better than I did and, after the first week, everything I did came so naturally. In about 3 weeks, I was pulling and pass blocking and run blocking like I played tackle all my life...He was probably going to ask me to play because I was getting so big, but I asked him to play first."

His style of play: "I love contact. I just want to take it to you. You may be faster than me or whatever, but when it comes down to it, defense wins games. You've got to be a fighter."

Deciding to play football in high school: "Tight end. I liked the way that sounded when I first heard it. I didn't know anything about football and I still don't know much about it. I'm still trying to learn the game. I didn't even know all the positions. All I knew was quarterback and defensive end. But when our high school coach came to me and asked me to play tight end, I kind of liked that."

Basketball: "Basketball was my first love and it still is. I was always a basketball player. I've always wanted to be like my dad. He's my idol. I watch clips of him and read about him all the time."

MARK FARLIN

Linebacker
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: Farlin, a senior, was moved to linebacker from running back prior to 1996 spring drills. He will compete for the starting job at middle linebacker (in the spot vacated by co-starters Errick Herrin and Brian Haas) in 1996, as well as appear on special teams.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Farlin is a physical player who should benefit from the switch to linebacker. He also could help us on special teams."

1995: Farlin was a reserve running back as a 1995 junior, but he didn't see any action.

1994: Farlin, who was switched to fullback in 1994 spring practice after previously playing inside linebacker, was a reserve blocking fullback who saw action in all 12 games on special teams as a 1994 sophomore. He fielded a short kickoff and returned it 15 yards and he also made 1 tackle.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Farlin appeared in 5 games (Washington State, Oregon State, Notre Dame, UCLA, Utah) as a reserve inside linebacker and on special teams. He made 3 tackles overall.

1992: Farlin redshirted as an inside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Topeka Capital-Journal All-State and All-I-70 pick at Manhattan (Kan.) High, Farlin led the Indians to a 22-7 record and a trio of league championships during his last 3 years there. He made 130 tackles in 1991, including season highs of 20 against Shawnee Mission and 19 against Washburn Rural. He was selected to the Kansas All-Star game after leading Manhattan to a 6-2 record and the district co-championship.

He earned Topeka Capital-Journal All-State Class 6A honorable mention and All-Central Kansas notice in 1990. As a 1989 sophomore, he started at fullback in the state championship game for the 9-3 Indians. Mark also played baseball (2-year starter) and basketball at Manhattan.

PERSONAL: In the fall of 1995, Farlin completed his undergraduate work as a business administration major at USC (in just 3-and-a-half years) and he is now pursuing graduate level courses in communications and business. He has a B- average (2.91 GPA). He was married in January of 1995 and his wife's name is Stephanie.

JOHN FOX

Quarterback
6-3, 205
Fr.*/So.

1996: Fox, a redshirt freshman with impressive skills, enters the 1996 season listed with Quincy Woods as the No. 3 quarterback, behind starter Brad Otton and backup Matt Koffler.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "I like Fox's future. He has a lot of gifts for the quarterback position. He's young and untested, but will compete for the No. 3 spot."

1995: Fox redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 1995, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was selected to the 1994 Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State first team, Student Sports All-State second team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County first team and All-CIF Division IV first team as a senior at Centennial High in Corona (Calif.) He hit 128-of-220 passes (58.2%) for 1,754 yards, 17 TDs and just 3 interceptions in 1994 (he also ran 60 times for 305 yards, a 5.1 avg., and 3 scores).

As a 1993 junior, he threw for 1,425 yards with 5 TDs and ran for 312 yards and 7 scores. A 3-year starter, he threw for 3,446 yards and 24 TDs in his career.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He enjoys water and snow skiing. His sports hero is Joe Montana.

JASON GRAIN

Offensive Guard-Center
Fr.*/So.

1996: Grain, just a redshirt freshman, was moved from center to offensive guard in 1996 spring practice. He will serve as a backup to Chris Brymer at left guard in 1996 and is also available to play center.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Grain is a young, developing player who, as he matures, has a chance to be a factor for us."

1995: Grain redshirted as a freshman center in 1995, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 1994 Super Prep All-Farwest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Division VII first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-Orange County second team and All-Freeway League first team as a senior at Sonora High in La Habra (Calif.). He allowed just 1 sack in 10 games on offense in 1994 and posted 55 tackles (6 for losses) on defense. As a 1993 junior, he made All-Freeway League. In track, he was the Freeway League shot put champion in 1994.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His uncle, Jimmy Dubose, was a running back for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1976-78.

JASON GRAIN ON: Size: "It's not about bulk, it's about talent and quickness."

TRAVIS HALL

Tight End
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: Now eligible after sitting out 1995 because of the transfer rule, Hall will be used primarily as an H-back (tight end-in-motion) as a senior in 1996. He missed most of 1996 spring practice after breaking his left upper arm.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Hall is the prototype tight-end-in-motion. We plan to take advantage of his skills from that position. He's a really good player and he'll get the ball a lot this year."

1995: Hall redshirted his 1995 senior season as a tight end after transferring to USC from Cal State Northridge.

CAL STATE NORTHRIDGE: Hall played 3 seasons (1992-94) at Cal State Northridge, starting at tight end the last 2 seasons. He had 47 catches for 536 yards (11.4 avg.) and 3 TDs as a 1994 junior and he also made 4 tackles and recovered a fumble on special teams. He was an All-League choice in 1994. As a 1993 sophomore, he had 5 receptions for 104 yards (20.8 avg.) with 1 TD, plus 12 tackles and 1 blocked punt on special teams. He played on offense (fullback), defense (defensive back) and on special teams as a 1992 freshman, as he rushed for 12 yards on 4 carries (3.0 avg.), caught 1 pass for 18 yards, and made 3 tackles.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hall played quarterback, running back, linebacker and safety during his 2-year career (1990-91) at Chaminade Prep in Chatsworth (Calif.). He earned All-Mission League and team MVP honors as a 1991 senior. He also played volleyball (he was an All-League selection), basketball and track at Chaminade.

PERSONAL: He's an exercise science major at USC. He likes to hunt, fish and play golf. His sports hero is Bo Jackson. He earned state honors as a lifeguard during high school. His father, Fredrick, played football at New Mexico.

QUINCY HARRISON

Cornerback
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: Harrison, a fast and experienced senior, figures to start in 1996 at a cornerback spot, where he was a co-starter in 1995. He missed part of 1996 spring practice after having neck surgery.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Harrison did well in his first year as a starter in 1995. He's one of those guys who can really cover you. He might be slowed early in the season while recovering from his neck surgery."

1995: Harrison started USC's first 9 games at cornerback as a 1995 junior, then served as Daylon McCutcheon's backup in the last 3 games. Overall in 1995, Harrison had 43 tackles (including 1 sack), 2 interceptions (at Notre Dame, which he returned 25 yards to set up a USC field goal, and versus UCLA) and 5 deflections. He had 6 tackles against San Jose State, Washington State and Notre Dame, and 5 at Washington. He had 3 deflections versus Arizona State. He missed 1995 spring practice while recovering from post-season surgery to repair scar tissue in his lower back.

1994: To bolster the speed of the secondary, Harrison was moved from wide receiver to cornerback in 1994 spring practice. He spent most of his 1994 sophomore season as the backup to Brian Kelly, but he started the Baylor game. He also was a key special teams player. Overall, he made 16 tackles (1 for a loss), deflected 2 passes and recovered a fumble (at Oregon State, late in the game at the USC 7-yard line). But his biggest moment came at Penn State, when he returned his only interception of 1994 for a 68-yard TD (the longest interception return by a Trojan since Cleveland Colter went 94 yards for a TD at California in 1987). He had 5 tackles at Oregon State. He played in 8 games in 1994 (he pulled his hamstring at Stanford and missed the California contest, and then re-aggravated it and didn't play against UCLA, Notre Dame and Texas Tech).

1992: Harrison redshirted as a flanker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Super Prep All-American, Harrison led Eldorado High in Las Vegas (Nev.) to an 11-1 record and the class AAA state championship as a senior. In 12 games, he caught 51 passes for 1,162 yards (22.8 avg.) and 16 TDs. He had 5 receptions that covered more than 60 yards, including an 82-yarder. He was also named Max Emfinger All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, USA Today Nevada Player of the Year, Gatorade Circle of Champions Nevada Player of the Year, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Sunrise Conference Player of the Year, and team MVP in 1991.

As a junior in 1990, he caught 28 passes for 599 yards (21.4 avg.) and 5 TDs for the 8-3 Sundevils and won All-Nevada and All-Sunrise League recognition. During his 25-game career at Eldorado, Quincy caught 81 passes for 1,793 yards (22.1 avg.) and 21 TDs.

He lettered in track and was a member of Eldorado's track program that won 3 consecutive state titles. He won the individual state title in the long jump as a sophomore and finished as the state runner-up his senior year with a school record jump 23-5. He also went 6-0 in the high jump and 21.7 in the 200 meters. He ran legs on Eldorado's 400-meter and 800-meter relays that both won the state crown 3 years in a row.

PERSONAL: He was born in Phoenix, Ariz. He's a public policy and management major at USC.

QUINCY HARRISON ON: Switching to defense: "I felt I had a chance to get a lot more playing time if I switched...Cornerback is the hardest position to play. There's so much to learn and do. It's so different from playing receiver. You've got to be able to stop the run. You've got to be able to guard guys one-on-one. You've got to play zones properly. I'm doing a better job in reading my keys and learning how to play the position, but I'm always finding out new things. It's a real challenge...It's funny. Jerry Rice was my idol growing up, but the way I feel now, I wouldn't go back to wide receiver. It didn't take me long to figure out it's more fun to hit than to get hit."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC secondary coach Dennis Thurman: "For a defensive player, Quincy does some things very naturally. For one thing, he's a natural tackler. He wraps a guy up immediately. He has improved his backpedal and shuffle. He's a quick learner."

KEN HASLIP

Cornerback
So.*/Jr.

1996: Haslip, a speedy sophomore, enters 1996 listed as the No. 2 cornerback behind Quincy Harrison, but he could play often. He might also return kickoffs. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while recovering from 1995 post-season surgery on a dislocating left shoulder.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Haslip has a good chance to contribute in the secondary and on special teams in 1996. He has great speed and is a good cover man."

1995: Haslip served as the backup to Brian Kelly at cornerback and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 1995. Overall in 1995 while appearing in USC's first 11 games, he had 8 tackles and 1 deflection. He missed 1995 spring practice while recovering from a 1994 knee injury. He nearly wasn't allowed to continue at USC prior to the 1995 season because of questions regarding his NCAA eligibility, but he had that situation resolved. He was originally cleared by the NCAA Clearinghouse to compete for USC out of high school, but his qualifying SAT score then was challenged in the fall of 1994 by the Educational Testing Service. He took his case to arbitration in the summer of 1995 and the arbitration board ruled in his favor.

1994: After tearing ligaments in his right knee in pre-season drills and having surgery, Haslip redshirted as a wide receiver in 1994, his first year at USC, while recuperating.

TRACK: He sprinted for the USC track team in the spring of 1996. Mainly a member of USC's relay teams, he did post a 22.13 in the 200 meters at the LSU Invitational in his only solo outing.

HIGH SCHOOL: Haslip made 1993 USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley second team and Pasadena Star-News All-Area second team as a senior at Muir High in Pasadena (Calif.). In 1993, he had 20 receptions for 344 yards (17.2 avg.) with 6 TDs as a wide receiver, plus 4 interceptions at cornerback. He also had a 98-yard kickoff return for a TD.

As a 1992 junior, he was All-San Gabriel Valley while getting 9 interceptions.

He also ran track at Muir, where he had the nation's second-best prep time in 1994 in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles (36.65) and the nation's third best prep time in the 110-meter high hurdles (13.94) in his first year running that event. He was named to the 1994 USA Today All-USA track team. In 1994, he was the state champ in the intermediates (he was third in the highs at the state meet; Muir won the team title), the CIF Southern Section champion in the intermediates, and the CIF Division I champ in the highs and intermediates (in 36.87, a Division I record). He was the Athlete of the Meet at the 1994 Arcadia Invitational, Pasadena Games and Oakland Relays. He won the state 300-meter intermediate hurdles as a junior and was ranked No. 1 in the U.S. in that event in 1993 with a best of 37.09. As a sophomore, he was second at the CIF 4-A meet and third at the state meet in the intermediates. He has run a 47.9 400 leg on the 1600-meter relay. Current Trojan Jonathan Mosley also prepped at Muir.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC.

KEN HASLIP ON: Dealing with the situation regarding his eligibility: "I just went into a hole. At first, I didn't go anywhere. I knew a lot of people would be asking me about it, even though people in the community had confidence in me and knew I didn't cheat. I don't think just anyone should be able to call up and question people's test scores. I hadn't done anything to anybody. It wasn't fair to single me out after I was already in school."

PRENTICE HILL

Cornerback
5-8, 170
So.*/Jr.

1996: The quick Hill is listed as the No. 2 cornerback behind Daylon McCutcheon as a sophomore in 1996. He also could be a key special teams performer.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Hill has great quickness and lots of potential. He'll battle for playing time."

1995: As a redshirt freshman reserve cornerback, Hill saw all of his action in 1995 in 5 games on special teams (versus Houston, Arizona, California, Washington State, Washington). He did not make a tackle. He sprained his left ankle at Washington and missed the rest of the regular season (he suited up for the Rose Bowl against Northwestern, but didn't play).

1994: Hill redshirted at cornerback in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hill made 1993 Blue Chip All-American first team and Super Prep All-Texas as a senior at Carter High in Dallas (Tex.) and had 3 interceptions. As a junior in 1992, he was All-District second team while making 61 tackles and 3 interceptions. He also ran track at Carter, clocking 10.7 for 100 meters, 14.06 in the 110-meter high hurdles and 39.41 in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles. Current Trojan Eric Denmon also prepped at Carter.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC.

JONATHAN HIMEBAUCH

Center
6-3, 290
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: USC's most experienced returning center, Himebauch should start as a junior in 1996 in the spot vacated by Jeremy Hogue.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Himebauch had a great spring and came through for us really well. He has the potential to develop into a fine center if he keeps improving. He has physically matured and just needs the experience."

1995: Himebauch, a reserve center as a sophomore in 1995, saw action in all 12 games on special teams (his only appearances at center came briefly against San Jose State, Arizona State and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl). At Notre Dame, he returned a short kickoff 14 yards as an up man on the kickoff return team.

1994: As a redshirt freshman reserve who was available to play any offensive line position, Himebauch saw action in 8 games in 1994. He appeared briefly at left offensive guard against California and Texas Tech and at right offensive tackle versus Arizona, and played on special teams in the Oregon, Stanford, Washington State, UCLA and Notre Dame contests. He was moved to center from nose tackle midway through 1994 spring drills.

1993: Himebauch redshirted as a nose tackle in 1993, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team (as an offensive lineman), All-Inland Valley, All-Baseline League first team (offense and defense) and team MVP at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). In 1992, he played inside linebacker (posting 63 unassisted tackles and 3 sacks), offensive guard and long snapper.

In 1991, he made All-Inland Valley (as an offensive guard) and All-Baseline League. He also played basketball and track. He prepped at the same high school as current Trojan Jeff Diltz.

PERSONAL: His nickname is "Butterbean," after the heavyweight boxer who he resembles when he cuts his hair short. He's an English and creative writing major at USC, with an interest in short stories and poetry. He was born in Greenwich, Conn. He bench presses 435 pounds. His father, Jack, was USC's recruiting coordinator from 1987 to 1994 (he now works in USC's Financial Services department). Jonathan's brother, Curt, was a walk-on defensive back at USC, while another brother, Chris, captained North Carolina's swim team for 2 years (1988-89) and received a master's degree in business administration at USC.

JONATHAN HIMEBAUCH ON: Finally getting a chance to start: "Being a third-team center before, it was kind of hard to get some time and get comfortable with a position while worrying about only getting a few plays in. Now with this leeway of running the show, it's really a good feeling to have. Everybody kept saying, 'Wait until your turn. Your spot will come.' It couldn't come fast enough for me. After all of this, it was definitely worth the wait and the time spent."

Switching from defense to offense in the spring of 1994: "I was open-minded, but reluctant. It was a letdown, but it was good to know they were thinking about me and wanted me to move to a position where I would play. It took me that whole spring and probably the whole next fall before I was comfortable to be in the middle, making the calls and knowing what I was doing. That spring was just a blur. I had to clue what I was doing. But the next fall I was more comfortable."

Majoring in English and creative writing: "You get a lot of double takes when you walk in the class. Most of the guys in there spend most of their hours indoors. It's really fun, though. I enjoy it. You can get away from football. And I'd rather sit there and type than highlight (books while studying)."

His father's influence on selecting USC: "I did kind of have an inside look at USC, but in the beginning I just saw it as college football. When I got to that age, dad left me alone about it. One thing he did was help me make connections with other schools. If I decided USC wasn't the best thing for me, he said he would be fine with it. He always treated me like any recruit. He tried not to give me any special treatment...He opened my eyes to see what recruiting is all about. I think a lot of kids coming out of high school don't know what to look for in a school. And being around recruiting, I knew what to look for, positives and negatives. I wouldn't be impressed with the little things, but knew what would be important...He said, 'Hey, it's your decision.' I decided USC was the best place for me and it just so happened that he worked here, too."

RAMSEY JAY JR.

Wide Receiver
Fr.*/So.

1996: Jay came to USC on a track scholarship as a sprinter/hurdler and didn't play football in 1995, but he now is on a football scholarship. He will be a redshirt freshman reserve wide receiver in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Jay is a fast, fast player with a good football background. We think he can help our receiving corps despite the year's layoff."

1995: Jay did not play football as a first-year freshman at USC in 1995.

TRACK: As a member of USC's track team in the spring of 1996, he posted bests of 54.10 in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles, 48.63 in the 400 meters and 21.88 in the 200 meters. He twice placed second in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles (at the USC Five-Way meet and the Long Beach dual meet). He twice also ran the second leg on USC's 1600-meter relay team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Jay earned 1994 Bluechip All-American, Bluechip All-Western and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 honors as a senior at Ventura (Calif.) High. He had 24 receptions for 363 yards (15.1 avg.) and 2 TDs in 1994. In his career, he caught 52 passes for 788 yards (15.2 avg.) and 6 TDs.

In track, he earned 1994 and 1995 All-Ventura County honors and was a state finalist as a junior and senior. He posted best times of 10.63 in the 100 meters, 21.63 in the 200 meters and 47.49 in the 400 meters.

PERSONAL: He was born in Ames, Ia.

CEDRIC JEFFERSON

Defensive Tackle
6-2, 265
Jr./Jr.

1996: Jefferson, an experienced junior, is listed as a backup defensive tackle behind Darrell Russell in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "If he can stay healthy, Jefferson will be an important part of our defensive line in 1996. He is an excellent run defender and an improving pass rusher."

1995: Jefferson backed up Matt Keneley at defensive tackle as a sophomore in 1995 and appeared in 7 games. He missed the San Jose State and Houston games with a neck sprain and the Washington State game with a sprained left ankle (although he suited up for the Notre Dame and Washington contests, he didn't appear in those contests). Overall in 1995, he made 4 tackles.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Jefferson saw frequent action in 10 contests in 1994 as the backup nose tackle behind Keneley and recorded 12 tackles (including 1 sack). He made 5 tackles at Oregon State. He missed the Washington and Penn State games while recovering from a sprained right knee suffered in pre-season practice. Torn right knee cartilage against Notre Dame slowed him against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl (he had arthroscopic surgery to remove the cartilage after the season).

HIGH SCHOOL: Jefferson was a 1993 Blue Chip All-American first team, Tom Lemming's Top 100, Super Prep All-Texas, All-State honorable mention, All-Tarrant County and All-District pick as a 2-way senior lineman at Western Hills High in Fort Worth (Tex.). He had 31 tackles, 9 sacks, 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble and 1 deflection in 1993. In 1992 as a junior, he made All-State and All-District in his second year playing football. He also played basketball (earning All-District honors) and baseball at Western Hills.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. He was born in Atlanta, Ga. He bench presses 410 pounds. He likes to write poetry in his spare time. His sports hero is Michael Jordan.

BRIAN KELLY

Safety-Cornerback
Jr./Jr.

1996: Kelly, the veteran of USC's secondary, started the past 2 years at cornerback, but was moved to free safety (at the spot vacated by Micah Phillips) in 1996 spring practice and will start there as a junior in 1996. Now an All-Pac-10 candidate, he's also available to play cornerback.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We want to get our best athletes on the field and we can do that by moving Kelly to free safety. He has great cover skills and, when he's at safety, that gives us 3 outstanding man-to-man players in the secondary. He's a key player for us and should emerge into a star player."

1995: Kelly started at cornerback for his second season as just a sophomore in 1995. Although he missed 3 games (Arizona, Arizona State and California) because of a sprained left ankle, he recorded 35 tackles, 11 deflections and 3 interceptions, which he returned for 19 yards (6.3 avg.), overall in 1995. His thefts came against San Jose State, Houston and Washington State (which he returned 23 yards). He had a game-high 11 tackles against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl, 7 at Notre Dame and 5 against both Houston and Stanford. He was a 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Kelly started--and played well in--USC's last 8 games of 1994 at cornerback after spending the first 4 contests as Jerald Henry's backup. Overall in 1994, Kelly made 34 tackles (3 for losses), deflected 5 passes, intercepted another (at Washington State, which he returned 22 yards), and forced 2 fumbles (both against Baylor). He had 6 tackles versus Arizona.

HIGH SCHOOL: Kelly earned 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Big 8 Region honorable mention, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Denver Post Colorado Defensive MVP, Colorado 6A Player of the Year and All-Centennial League notice as a senior at Overland High in Aurora (Colo.). In 13 games in 1993, he made 78 tackles, 4 sacks, 6 interceptions (4 for TDs), 17 deflections, and 3 fumble recoveries (1 for a TD) and also scored 4 TDs on offense (he rushed for 44 yards) and kick returns. Overland went 10-3 and won the state Class 6A championship in 1993.

He was All-6A Conference and All-Centennial League as a 1992 junior, getting 96 tackles, 2 sacks, 2 interceptions (both were returned for 80-yard scores), and 6 fumble recoveries (3 for TDs). He had 3 picks in a game once and 22 tackles in another. He also ran track at Overland, finishing second in the state 800 meters and running on the state champion 800-meter relay team as a junior. He posted a best of 21.36 in the 200 meters and 48.25 in the 400 meters.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He was born in Las Vegas, Nev., and lived in Germany for 3 years. He bench presses 315 pounds. He likes to play the drums. His sports hero is Deion Sanders.

BRIAN KELLY ON: His ability: "It doesn't matter how much physical talent you have, you have to be mentally smart to play at this level...I'm pretty hard on myself. I want to do better."

High expectations placed on him: "It doesn't intimidate me, because I expect a lot of myself. I say, 'Fine, that matches my own expectations.' It's nice to hear those things from people who know, because it reflects the level I want to be at."

Wearing No. 42, the jersey number of former USC All-American and NFL All-Pro safety Ronnie Lott: "I'm very much aware of what that number means. I started hearing comparisons as soon as I got here. I'm honored to wear that number. I know Lott's a guy who always got it on on the field...It's nice to be mentioned with someone like Lott. The game's changed a lot now, but he did a lot of great things and probably still is the greatest secondary man. But I don't compare my style to his. We're 2 different types of players. Lott's a hitter; I'm more finesse and emotion."

His idol, Deion Sanders: "He plays a mental game and uses his physical skills, which is the type of player I'd like to be. The game now is more of a speed thing. But Deion still carries an intimidating factor, and in that I like to compare myself to him. Maybe I wouldn't like to be as flashy as he is, but I like a lot of the things he does."

His philosophy of playing cornerback: "Corner is a very demanding position. You have to take the field in the mindset that you're physically and mentally stronger than any receiver...At cornerback, you have to have a short memory, I guess you could say. You've got to come back on the next play, because they're going to come back at you."

Why he chose USC: "Without question, the Pac-10's style is what attracted me to USC. I had a chance to go to schools in other conferences, but I didn't want to be in a situation where I'd be coming up to cover the run on every play."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Brian has the ability to close on the ball and make the big hit. He can strike and make a lot of things happen."

USC secondary coach Dennis Thurman: "I look at Brian and I see the explosive hitting of Ronnie Lott. Then I see the excitement and maybe even the showboating of Deion Sanders. And the ability to cover people all over the field like Darrell Green. That's a lot of things, but Brian is extremely special."

Former USC All-American wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson: "Brian is so hard to get open on. He's the best I've played against in college football."

MATT KENELEY

Defensive Tackle
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: Keneley, who stars on the field and in the classroom, will start for his fourth season in 1996. The senior defensive tackle will aim to repeat as an Academic All-American first teamer and he's also a candidate for All-Pac-10 honors.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Keneley is really a good player. He can dominate up front. He's an experienced, proven veteran and is a leader. He's in line for honors both on the field and in the classroom."

1995: Keneley, who started for his third year in 1995, was a key component of USC's defensive line as a junior defensive tackle. Overall in 1995, he made 62 tackles (third on USC), including 12 for losses of 51 yards (with 4 sacks for minus 26 yards), plus deflected 1 pass. The tackles for losses and sacks were second most on USC. He had a game-high 10 tackles (with 2 sacks) against Houston, earning Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week honors. He also had 9 stops at Washington and 7 at Oregon State. Three times (versus Houston, Arizona State and Washington), he had 3 tackles for losses. He was a 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection, as well as a Football News All-Pac-10 first team choice. He also starred in the classroom, as he was a 1995 GTE-CoSIDA Academic All-American first teamer.

1994: As just a sophomore, Keneley started for the second year on the defensive line, this time at nose tackle in 1994. Overall, he had 48 tackles, including 4 for losses (with 1 sack), and deflected a pass. He made 9 stops at Penn State, 7 at Oregon State and 6 against Notre Dame.

1993: Despite being only a redshirt freshman, Keneley started 9 games on the defensive line in 1993: USC's first 5 (North Carolina, Houston, Penn State, Washington State, Arizona) at defensive tackle and the last 4 of the regular season (California, Stanford, Washington, UCLA) at nose tackle. Overall in 1993, he made 41 tackles, including 7 for losses of 29 yards (2 were sacks for minus 10 yards) while appearing in all 13 contests. He also blocked a field goal at Washington. He had 6 stops against North Carolina and Notre Dame, and 5 at Penn State. For all this, he was named to the 1993 Football News Freshman All-American third team.

1992: Keneley redshirted as a defensive tackle in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: The Orange County Register's top-ranked recruit, Keneley was named Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF Division II first team, Register All-Orange County first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County, and South Coast League Player of the Year in 1991 at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. He switched from linebacker to defensive tackle prior to his senior season and recorded 92 tackles with 9 sacks, a forced fumble and a blocked field goal. He was a member of a 7-4 team in 1991.

He also played tight end during his 1990 junior season when the Diablos posted an 11-2 record and won the South Coast League championship. He lettered his junior year in basketball at Mission Viejo. A fine student, Keneley maintained a 3.5 GPA in high school and was named Rams/GTE Academic All-Orange County in 1991.

PERSONAL: He's a public administration major at USC with an A- average (3.74 GPA, tops on the team). He made the 1995 GTE-CoSIDA Academic All-American first team, 1995 GTE-CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII first team, 1994 and 1995 Pac-10 All-Academic first teams, and 1993 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention squads. He bench presses 400 pounds.

MATT KENELEY ON: Academics: "I take special pride in my academic side as well as my athletic side. That's something I did all through high school and have continued in college. I just want to make the most of my opportunity to go to school here. I try to study hard and get the best grades that I can. Usually, I've been able to write good papers. I've always had a talent for writing and that helps a lot...Because they know I'm a football player, instructors or other students will sometimes downgrade my abilities as a student. I feel confident of my academic abilities and so I'm always trying to prove them wrong. I try to write better papers and do better on my tests than anyone else in the classroom. I want to show them that a football player can be a good student as well as a good athlete."

His goal: "I want to be the premier defensive lineman in the Pac-10."

His attitude: "I believe I've been given some physical talents and I want to make the most of them. I don't want to waste a thing. I aways try to be an overachiever. I work hard at anything I do and I refuse to quit. I want to accomplish my goals...I believe more or less in self-motivation. If you have a love for the game and care about football, you're going to perform your best. I really don't need to motivate people, and if I do, then they shouldn't be out there on the field...Whenever I go on the field before games and practice, I always repeat a saying that my high school coach taught me: 'What you give today, you have forever. What you didn't give today is lost forever.' I've taken that to heart. It reminds me to give my best...I've always been a competitor and I always want to win at anything I do. When I was little, I would look around school and pick out a different kid each day and say, 'Hey, you want to race? I can beat you.' And then we'd line up and run to the end of the field."

His quickness: "That is probably one of the skills I think that has gotten me as far as I've gone. It's always a little deceiving when they see a guy with my size who can move."

Playing alongside fellow defensive tackle Darrell Russell: "Darrell and I complement each other well because we're both big and fast and like to rush the passer. If one of us gets double-teamed, the other can make a play."

The difference from his freshman year: "I'm built much better now. I lost a lot of baby fat and I've built up my upper body in the weight room. I never considered myself a wide body. I've always been a good athlete who could run and jump."

His improvement in 1994: "I took a real serious attitude about the season. I worked hard over the summer. I wanted to take my game to another level...I worked hard on my speed and in the weight room, increasing my upper body strength. I came into the season really confident about myself physically. I came in feeling that I was at the top of my game and that just carried out onto the field."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC quarterback Rob Johnson: "I call him 'God,' because no one can block him."

USC running back Shawn Walters: "He's quick. I look at the films and wonder where he came from."

USC offensive line coach Doug Smith, former the defensive line coach: "What helps Matt succeed is that he really studies the game of football and he hustles all the time. When he walks onto the field, he becomes a Pete Rose-type of player."

SAMMY KNIGHT

Linebacker-Safety
Sr./Sr.

1996: Knight, whose brother started at USC in the 1980s, is a hard-hitting senior who is always around the ball. The All-Pac-10 candidate will be starting for his third season in 1996, this time as a linebacker (in the role of a rover at the spot vacated by Scott Fields) after moving in 1996 spring practice from strong safety (where he has played his first 3 years).

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Knight is a complete football player and a team leader. He's experienced, competitive, tough and aggressive. He's a deserving all-star candidate, a big-time player. We moved him to linebacker to get him in the middle of the action. I call him Ronnie Lott II. He's got the same attitude and approach to the game. He wants to be first on the pile; Ronnie Lott was that way and so was Dennis Smith."

1995: Knight was the leader of USC's secondary as a 1995 junior while starting for his second year at strong safety. He was a 1995 All-Pac-10 second team pick. He topped USC in tackles with 89, including 9 for losses of 22 yards (with 1 sack for minus 5 yards). He also deflected 7 passes, forced 4 fumbles (against Houston, California, Washington and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl, which Daylon McCutcheon recovered and ran back 53 yards for a TD) and blocked a punt (against San Jose State, which led to a USC TD). He had at least 4 tackles in every game. He had a game-high 14 stops versus Stanford (the most by a Trojan in 1995), 11 at Washington, USC bests of 10 versus UCLA and 9 against Arizona State, plus 8 at Arizona. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award (top junior athlete/student/leader) and the Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award (biggest hit).

1994: Knight started all of his 1994 sophomore season at strong safety. He had 65 tackles (third on the team), a team-high 2 fumble recoveries (against California, which set up at USC TD, and Washington), and 3 pass deflections. He also combined with Jerald Henry to block a field goal against California which Henry returned 60 yards for a TD. Knight had 11 tackles at Stanford, a game-best 9 at Washington State, 8 against UCLA and Notre Dame, 6 against Penn State and Texas Tech, and 5 versus Washington. He made the 1994 All-Pac-10 honorable mention team.

1993: One of just 2 first-year freshmen to see action at USC in 1993, Knight played a key role for the Trojans as a reserve safety and key special teams player. He even started the Oregon State game at free safety (he made 5 tackles in the contest), becoming the first USC true freshman to start at safety in the post-World War II era. Overall in 1993, he had 15 tackles, 1 deflection, 1 fumble recovery (at Oregon) and 1 forced fumble (at Penn State) while appearing in all 13 games. He did all this despite playing part of the season with a broken rib.

HIGH SCHOOL: Knight's 1992 honors included Parade All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American Dream Team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise Riverside County MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire Back of the Year, and Ivy League Defensive MVP at Rubidoux (Calif.) High. He played free safety, wide receiver and quarterback in 1992, posting 153 tackles, 11 interceptions (4 in one game), 5 blocked kicks, 4 fumble recoveries, 5 forced fumbles, 483 yards and 12 TDs on 53 rushes (9.1 avg.), 13 catches for 189 yards (14.5 avg.), and 3-of-7 passing for 59 yards. He had 30 tackles in a game once. His team was 11-1 in 1992.

In his career as a 3-year starter, he had 21 interceptions and 15 blocked kicks. He also played basketball (he averaged 14.3 points, 9.3 rebounds and 7.0 assists in 1993 and made the 1992 All-Ivy League first team) and track.

In 1991, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire, and All-League first team, while making 172 tackles (82 solo), 6 interceptions and 2 blocked kicks.

He had 150 tackles, a school-record 6 blocked kicks and 4 interceptions as a sophomore in 1990 while making Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County honorable mention and All-League first team.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. His sports hero is ex-USC and current NFL star Ronnie Lott. Sammy bench presses 385 pounds. His brother, Ryan, was a record-setting prep All-American running back at Rubidoux (2,620 yards as a 1983 senior, including 501 in one game) who then lettered 4 years (1984-87) at tailback at USC and led the Trojans in rushing in 1985 and 1986 (he's 13th on USC's career rushing list with 1,875 yards). Another brother, Greg, played defensive line at Colorado. His father, Sam Sr., played on a California state championship basketball team at Riverside (Calif.) Community College in the early 1960s that was coached by Jerry Tarkanian.

SAMMY KNIGHT ON: Why he watches videotapes of former USC safety greats: "I just sit back and watch them and how they played. That gives me a sense of how football should be played. In Ronnie Lott, you're talking about the greatest safety to ever play football...That's how you learn. You learn from the best and from watching the best. That's the only way you'll ever get better...One thing I learned from Ronnie Lott was to play hard and relentless every play as if it's your last play on the field."

Playing hard: "That's something anybody can do. You may not be as talented as everybody else on the field, but the one thing you can do is play as hard as you can play."

Taming his aggressiveness: "Before, I always wanted every hit to be a highlight-type hit. I didn't want to just tackle someone, I wanted to kill 'em. I was out there firing the cannon, trying to drop guys, on every play...I had a reputation and I enjoyed it...I'd be a hero on Saturday night (sports shows), but Sunday I'd feel awful when we sat down to watch the film. You could see all the mistakes I had made...Now, I still like to deliver a solid hit, but I like winning more...I go 100 miles per hour instead of 110."

His style of leadership: "Some gus talk. Some guys play. I'd just as soon try to play."

Losing: "I don't think about losing. Losing never enters my mind. The thought of losing makes me throw up."

Dealing with tough times: "I knew what my brother (Ryan) had been through. I knew it wasn't always easy. So when my brother told me, 'Keep your head up, it will get better,' it made me realize that you can't give up when things get tough. You keep fighting."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "I've always been a Sammy Knight fan. He is one of the first players in the building; if he had a key, he would open and close this building every day. He's that kind of kid. He has improved every day. He can be an All-American if he continues to do what he has done already. His leadership ability, work ethic and enthusiasm are as good as I've ever been around."

Lyle Spencer, Riverside Press-Enterprise: "With a series of big hits, Knight has evoked memories of great USC safeties of the past--Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith, Tim McDonald, Dennis Thurman."

MATT KOFFLER

Quarterback

1996: The veteran Koffler enters 1996 as the No. 2 quarterback behind Brad Otton as a senior.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Koffler had a great spring and clearly won the backup job. Although he hasn't had many opportunities, he's the kind of player who could go in a game and compete effectively. He's a smart player. He's a great team member and a leader on our squad. He's one of our most popular players."

1995: Koffler was the No. 3 quarterback as a 1995 junior behind Otton and Kyle Wachholtz. He appeared briefly in only 3 games (late against San Jose State, Arizona and Arizona State) and threw the ball in just the San Jose State contest (he was 2-of-4, 50.0%, for 13 yards with 1 interception).

1994: As a sophomore reserve quarterback, Koffler played in only 2 games in 1994. He made the most of his first 1994 contest: after USC got a big lead early in the third quarter against California, he finished out the game and hit 7-of-13 passes (53.9%) for 61 yards and 2 TDs (11 yards to Jeff Diltz and 4 yards to Leonard Green). He also played briefly against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl, but did not throw a pass. After 1994 spring drills, he had arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left knee.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Koffler served as the No. 3 quarterback in 1993 and saw brief action late in 2 games (Houston and Washington State). He completed his only pass attempt of 1993 in the Houston contest and, although it went for no yards, it was caught by wide receiver Johnnie Morton, giving Morton a USC record-setting 15 catches in the game. He had post-season arthrosopic surgery for torn cartilage in his left knee.

1992: Koffler redshirted as a quarterback in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1991 Max Emfinger All-American, Koffler passed for over 4,500 yards his final 2 seasons at Rosemead (Calif.) High, including 1,945 yards during his 1991 senior season. He completed 129-of-220 (58.6%) passes, including 15 that went for TDs (he also ran for 8 TDs). He was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools, and All-CIF Division V first team. Against Duarte High, he threw for 289 yards (16-of-22) and 5 TDs and rushed 72 yards for another TD.

As a 1990 junior, Matt made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Division V first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-San Gabriel Valley first team, and Mission Valley League Back of the Year while throwing for 2,489 yards and 25 TDs. He led Rosemead to an 11-3 record and the Mission Valley championship. He enjoyed the best game of his career against Apple Valley High in the 1990 CIF playoffs, passing for 324 yards (17-of-25) and 3 TDs.

He won All-Mission Valley League first team recognition as a defensive end during his 1989 sophomore season.

He lettered 3 years in basketball at Rosemead, averaging 16.8 points and a league-best 13.2 rebounds during his senior season. He was a 2-time All-San Gabriel Valley and All-Mission Valley League pick in basketball.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 325 pounds. He's a public administration major at USC. He spent the summer of 1995 working in the community relations department for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

MATT KOFFLER ON: His role as a backup: "I'm used to it. I know where I am on the team and I try to have fun with it...I'm capable of being a good backup. I know a lot of people are skeptical of what Matt Koffler can do. But, hey, I go out there every single day just like everyone else. I know the system just like everyone else, just like a regular quarterback. Except I'm not playing...I pretty much know the system. I know where to put the ball. I've been here for so long, when Coach (Mike) Riley (USC's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach) calls a play, I know it. I know where it's supposed to go and where to put the ball. If someone's not open, I know where to dump it. The more reps you get, the better you are. That's the way it goes. Plus, this is my fifth year here. I should know something. I've been to every meeting and football game since I've been here...Practice is my game...Everyone on the team knows I can get the job done...If Brad (Otton) is to go down for a couple of plays, I want to be in position where I can go in right away, toss a couple of balls and have Brad come back in...For now, I'm just doing what it takes to help the team."

His USC career: "I get frustrated sometimes. No one here knows what I can do yet. I don't even know. But just to get a scholarship to USC was a thrill. Even if I don't play, I'm still a part of one of the best programs in the country...I didn't want to transfer. If I wanted to, I would have had to go to a lesser college and maybe not have had the fun times that I've had. So I just stuck it out and decided I'll have fun, do whatever it takes, get my classes done, graduate on time and, if I play, I play. If not, thanks, I appreciate it. I've made a lot of friends and had the best years of my life. Not everyone is going to be the Keyshawn Johnsons, the Brad Ottons, the Rob Johnsons."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Rosemead coach Jim Hall: "He's totally a team player. You'd think a kid in his position would complain, but he's never mentioned to be that he felt he wasn't getting a fair shot. He's a positive role model for high school athletes because they see the role he plays and that he accepts not being a starter with a positive attitude for the good of the team."

DONG KOO

Offensive Guard

1996: Koo, a solid senior, will serve as a backup to Chris Brymer at left offensive guard in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Koo is more physical and has improved to the point where he could be a contributor to our offensive front."

1995: Koo was the backup right offensive guard behind Phalen Pounds as a junior in 1995. He appeared briefly there in 5 games (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona, Arizona State, California). He missed the Rose Bowl against Northwestern because of a sprained ankle suffered in practice.

1994: As a sophomore reserve offensive guard, Koo played briefly against California and Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl for his only action in 1994.

1993: As a redshirt freshman reserve offensive guard, Koo had an appendectomy in the pre-season and that sidelined him for USC's first 5 games. His only action of 1993 was a brief appearance against Oregon State. He was moved in 1993 spring practice from offensive tackle to left offensive guard.

1992: Koo redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Koo was named 1991 Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team third team, and All-San Gabriel Valley League first team while at Warren High in Downey (Calif.). He had a 90% blocking grade in 1991.

PERSONAL: Dong came to the United States with his family from South Korea in 1985. He never saw a football game until viewing the 1989 USC-Michigan Rose Bowl on television (USC lost). He holds a second-degree black belt in taekwondo. He turned down an offer to become a sumo wrestler in South Korea. Koo wants to become a priest. After his Friday night prep games, he would head to church and pray from 11 p.m. to 3 a.m. In the summer of 1995, Koo completed his undergraduate course work as a religious studies major at USC (in just 3 years) and he is now pursuing graduate level courses in educational counseling (marriage and family counseling). After he gets his master's degree in 1997, he plans to go to a seminary for 4 years to become a Catholic priest. He has a B+ average (3.31 GPA). He bench presses 360 pounds.

DONG KOO ON: Wanting to become a priest: "I prayed to God and told Him if He made me a USC football player, I'd become a priest. And if I ever become a pro football player, I'll serve Him forever...I was 8 years old when I went into a church and it just happened. On that day, I realized I wanted to be a priest."

His spare time: "Whenever I get the time off, I go to church...I would rather study than go to a party."

Taking a heavy course-load at USC: "A lot of people see it as, 'You're stupid, you're crazy, why are you doing that to yourself?' But I really like going to school. I have a fun time."

How he learned English: "I basically watched TV and I had a lot of American friends. I didn't have any Korean friends. So I just hung around with American friends and learned it quick."

His taekwondo skills: "When I was little, I was really small and skinny, so I could do jump kicks and everything, but now as I get older and kind of heavier, it's getting harder...When I was young, kids would make fun of me, but I'd never get into fights. All I did was turn around and walk away. Yeah, if I wanted to, I could have handled them. But my mother would have killed me if I got suspended."

LAWRENCE LARRY

Linebacker
6-3, 240
So./So.

1996: Larry, an experienced sophomore, was moved from defensive end to linebacker in 1996 spring practice. He is listed as the backup to Mark Cusano at the strongside linebacker spot in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Larry gained valuable experience last season and showed his abilities. Although he's still young, he could play a key role for us this year. Moving to linebacker has been beneficial for him; he belongs there."

1995: Larry appeared in 10 games (all but the Stanford and Northwestern contests) as a first-year freshman reserve defensive end and special teams performer in 1995. He made 4 tackles, including 1 sack for minus 1 yard, overall in 1995.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 1994 Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Division II first team, and Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team as a senior at Littlerock (Calif.) High. In 1994, he notched 86 tackles (22 for losses, with 9 sacks), 10 deflections, 5 fumble recoveries and 3 fumbles caused. He was the first student from Littlerock to earn a college football scholarship.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He bench presses 350 pounds. His sports hero is Lawrence Taylor.

LAWRENCE LARRY ON: His name: "My last name is Larry and my parents named me after one of my dad's best friends. It just happened that way. They didn't purposely do it."

The transition from high school to college football: "The biggest thing I had to adapt to was the strength. They're so strong here. In high school, I didn't have to use strength. My speed got me around people. Speed hasn't been that hard to adapt to, but the strength has been tougher. Like when tight ends come off the ball and grab you."

WILLIE LOWERY

Defensive End
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: Lowery, an underrated but effective veteran, returns for his third year as a starting defensive end as a senior in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Lowery is a proven veteran. He's solid and keeps getting better. He knows how to play and how to get it done. He's an effective outside pass rusher and could be a star player."

1995: Lowery started 9 (all but the Houston and Northwestern contests) of the 11 games he appeared in at defensive end as a 1995 junior. He missed the UCLA contest because of a sprained right ankle suffered at Oregon State. Overall in 1995, he made 22 tackles, including 4 for losses of 22 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 17 yards), plus had 1 deflection. He had 6 tackles against Arizona State and all 3 of his tackles versus San Jose State were for losses.

1994: As a sophomore, Lowery started 11 games (all but the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech) in 1994 at defensive end. He made 31 tackles, including 4 for losses of 25 yards (with 2 sacks), 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery (on the same play against Baylor), and 1 deflection. He had 8 stops against Oregon.

1993: As just a redshirt freshman, Lowery played impressively in limited stints in 1993 as the No. 2 defensive end (first behind Willie McGinest and then Shannon Jones) and on special teams. While appearing in 12 games in 1993 (he missed the Notre Dame contest with a pulled left hamstring suffered against Oregon State), he notched 12 tackles (including 1 for a loss of 1 yard) and 3 deflections. He was moved in 1993 spring practice to defensive end from outside linebacker.

1992: Lowery redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 3-year starter at Valley View High in Moreno Valley (Calif.), Lowery made Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire, All-CIF Division VIII first team, and Sunkist League Defensive Player of the Year in 1991. He notched 92 tackles with 12 sacks and 4 blocked punts in 1991 after averaging 10 tackles a game in 1990. He led the Eagles to a 10-2 record and the semifinals of the CIF Division VIII playoffs. He was a 3-time All-Sunkist League honoree.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 415 pounds. He's a public policy and management major at USC.

WILLIE LOWERY ON: His relative anonymity: "Since I've been here, I've just been sitting in the shadows, playing my game. I've never questioned it. I've just never been one for the spotlight. I'm not flamboyant like some other players might be. I don't try to do any dances or put on a big show after I make a big play. I'm just a guy who is going to get the job done. I don't need the media to make me play better. I'm going to do my job regardless. If my face is on the TV or in the newspaper all the time, that's good, too. I like that, but if not, I'm still going to be out there doing the same job. It doesn't bother me. This is where I am. I just play my game and do my job. Ever since I've been playing football, I've never really been in the spotlight. I always had good numbers and played well, but I would always seem to go--I wouldn't say unnoticed--but it wasn't like a big issue."

Football: "Playing football is my tension reliever. You get to go out there and do your thing. You get to legally do things to people that you couldn't do to people on the streets. You get to come out and take out your frustrations on somebody. That's just part of the job. To play defensive end, you've got to be a real physical person. It's not like basketball or tennis...If I had a highlight on TV, I would rather be punishing somebody with a killer hit more than scoring a touchdown because this is a contact sport and that shows physical dominance."

MARK MANSKAR

Center
Fr.*/So.

1996: Manskar, a redshirt freshman, was moved to center prior to 1996 spring practice (from offensive tackle) and is listed as the backup to Jonathan Himebauch in 1996. He was slowed in 1995 spring practice while recovering from a lacerated left knee.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Manskar is a big, young player with lots of potential. He just needs to gain some weight. I think the move to center will be beneficial for his career. He really took to the position in the spring."

1995: Manskar redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 1995, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1994 Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, College Sports All-American, National Prep Poll All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team as a senior offensive lineman at Canyon High in Canyon Country (Calif.). He did not allow a sack during the 1994 season.

As a 1993 junior, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team. He was a 3-year starter at Canyon. Current Trojan David Pratchard also prepped at Canyon.

MARC MATOCK

Defensive Tackle
6-5, 280
So.*/Jr.

1996: Matock is a young, maturing sophomore who is listed as a backup defensive tackle (with Anthony Sanford) to Matt Keneley in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Matock could start coming into his own in 1996. As he continues to improve, he'll become a very solid player for us."

1995: Matock was a redshirt freshman reserve defensive tackle in 1995, but he did not see any action.

1994: Matock redshirted as a defensive end in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Matock's honors in 1993 included Blue Chip All-American first team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-Valley and All-League as a senior 2-way lineman at Palma High in Salinas (Calif.). He had 3 interceptions (1 for a TD). Palma was 11-1 in 1993.

He made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first team, All-Valley and All-League as a 1992 junior. In 1991 as a sophomore, he was All-League second team. He was a 3-year starter in football. He also played basketball and track at Palma.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. He bench presses 440 pounds, making him the strongest Trojan. His sports hero is Howie Long.

BRENT McCAFFREY

Offensive Tackle
6-5, 265
Fr./Fr.

1996: McCaffrey, whose father played at USC in the early 1970s, is listed as the backup to Rome Douglas at left offensive tackle as a freshman in 1996. He enrolled at USC in the spring of 1996 after sitting out the sport in 1995 following a fine prep career.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "McCaffrey is a developing player with fine bloodlines. He benefitted from being able to go through spring practice."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: McCaffrey attended Fresno (Calif.) City College as a part-time student in the fall of 1995, but did not play football.

HIGH SCHOOL: McCaffrey earned 1994 All-Fresno and All-Northwest Yosemite League honors as a senior 2-way lineman at Bullard High in Fresno. He also played in the Fresno City/County All-Star Game. He also played volleyball at Bullard.

As a 1993 junior, he played offensive and defensive line at San Joaquin Memorial High in Fresno, where he also played basketball.

PERSONAL: His father, Bob, starred at center for USC in 1972 through 1974 and was honored as USC's Lineman of the Year in 1974 and junior varsity MVP in 1971 (Troy played in 3 Rose Bowls during his career and won the national championship in 1972 and 1974). Bob played in the 1975 College All-Star Game and then spent 1975 with the Green Bay Packers. Brent's uncle, Mike McCaffrey, was a 3-year (1966-68) letterman defensive end at California who co-captained the 1968 Bear team and was a 2-time (1967-68) All-Pac-8 selection (he played with the Buffalo Bills in 1970).

DAYLON McCUTCHEON

Cornerback-Running Back
So./So.

1996: Although he's only a sophomore, McCutcheon has All-American written all over him. He was named a 1996 preseason All-American first teamer by Lindy's. Whenever he's on the field, good things happen for USC. He'll be in the lineup again in 1996 as a cornerback, where he was a co-starter in 1995, and he also might see some action as a running back and returning kickoffs.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "McCutcheon is a special player. He can develop into one of the great USC football players ever. He's a veteran now and plays like one. He has all the skills of an outstanding cornerback: speed, instinct, toughness and great cover ability. Because we want him on the field as much as possible, we might even experiment with him running the ball on offense and returning kicks. He's like Deion Sanders."

1995: As just a first-year freshman in 1995, McCutcheon came to USC with high expectations from coaches and fans...and he did not disappoint, earning 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice while making a number of big plays. He started 6 games at cornerback--filling in for an injured Brian Kelly against Arizona, Arizona State and California and then beating out Quincy Harrison for the last 3 contests (Oregon State, UCLA and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl)--and played often as the backup in the other 6 games. He also played on special teams. Overall in 1995, he made 50 tackles (tied for fourth on USC) and deflected 10 passes. He intercepted 2 passes which he returned 91 yards (45.5 avg.): a 35-yarder which he returned for a touchdown against San Jose State in his first game as a Trojan (it was the first scoring pick by a true freshman at USC since Jason Oliver did it twice in 1990) and a 56-yarder against UCLA which led to a USC TD. He also recovered a fumble against Northwestern and returned it 53 yards for a TD. He had 8 tackles against Washington State, 7 versus UCLA and 6 at Arizona in his first-ever start. He broke up 3 passes against Arizona State.

HIGH SCHOOL: McCutcheon's 1994 honors included USA Today All-USA (and California MVP), Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American National MVP, Blue Chip All-American (and Elite 22), College Sports All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, National Prep Poll All-American, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State MVP, Coaches Poll All-State MVP, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I MVP, and Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team as a senior running back and safety at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.). In 1994, he ran for a school-record 2,456 yards on 269 carries (9.1 avg.) with 33 TDs (including 10 scores of 50-plus yards). He ran for 100 yards in all 14 games in 1994, including 4 of 200-plus yards. He also caught 21 passes, returned a punt for a TD and was a kickoff returner. On defense, he made 8 interceptions, returning 2 for scores, and recorded 56 tackles. Bishop Amat went 13-1 in 1994 and was the CIF Division I runnerup.

As a 1993 junior, he played wide receiver and safety. He was named to the 1993 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division I, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley and All-Del Rey League first teams. He caught 35 passes for 780 yards (22.3 avg.) and 11 TDs in 1993, plus had 88 yards on 10 carries (8.8 avg.), returned 6 punts for 161 yards (26.8 avg.) and 1 TD, and had 60 tackles and 5 picks (2 for TDs).

A starting wide receiver and safety as a sophomore on a 15-0 Bishop Amat team which won the CIF Division I crown, he was named to the 1992 All-CIF Division I first team as he caught 29 passes for 690 yards (23.8 avg.) with 5 TDs and intercepted 2 aerials. In his 3 years as a starter (Bishop Amat went 49-2), he had a school-record 15 interceptions (6 of which he ran back for TDs).

He also was a sprinter on Bishop Amat's track team. Current Trojans Scott Fields, Jess Holguin and Rodney Sermons also prepped at Bishop Amat.

PERSONAL: His father, Lawrence, was an All-Pro running back with the Los Angeles Rams (1972-79), Denver Broncos (1980) and Buffalo Bills (1981) who set the since-broken Rams career rushing record (6,186 yards), led the Rams in rushing 5 times and played in Super Bowl XIV (he has been a scout with the Rams since 1982). His sports hero is Deion Sanders.

DAYLON McCUTCHEON ON: Playing defense versus offense: "I feel real comfortable on both sides of the ball. I just want to win football games and I'm going to do whatever is asked of me...I see myself in the future playing defense...But if they ask me to play offense, I'll go over there and play...I know I need to get stronger, but I know I'll never be as big as my dad. So cornerback was a more logical position for me than running back. People think I chose defense to avoid having to be compared to my father, but that's not so."

Starting as a freshman: "I didn't expect a starting spot. I thought I'd get some limited playing time. But there were some injuries, and I got in the games early in the season and things just worked out. I just had to work real hard to prove that I could play...(Getting that interception for a touchdown against San Jose State) was real exciting for me to start out my career like that. It gave me a lot of confidence, it made me feel really good about myself and also my teammates. The veterans made me feel real comfortable so I could just go out there, play ball and not worry about making mistakes...I felt real comfortable and the main reason I did was that I knew the other players believed in me."

Confidence: "I'm a very confident person. When I lined up in high school, I knew there wasn't a receiver out there who could beat me. That's the same kind of attitude I came out with when I lined up at USC."

His father, Lawrence, who left when Daylon was 2 years old and didn't see Daylon again until he was 10: "I didn't feel like I was missing out on anything (not having his father around), so I didn't ask about it. Everything I needed, I got from my mom (Deborah Sterling). I just didn't worry about it...For most of the time I was growing up, she was my male and my female role model...One day in 1987 when I was 10, my mom took me to a Rams practice. I ran into this man and asked him to sign my pennant. He signed it and I just took it around, getting more autographs. My mom asked me, 'Do you know whose autograph you've got?' I told her it was my dad. Then my mom and he talked. He pretty much said, 'Hi," and that was about it...But when he was signing it, he looked at me. He took a good look. I think he knew...Then, when I was 15 and a junior in high school, he called and said he wanted us to talk...I think he was scared I was going to reject him. Besides, I'm real stubborn and he's real stubborn...Now, we're trying to make something of the time that we missed. He's become a great friend and someone I can talk to about anything. He's always there for me and we're trying to move on and to make it a father-son relationship...He's helped me with my choice of schools and with my choice of position...We talk more often now. I love my dad and we're getting closer...I don't have any hard feelings...I don't see very many similarities between us on the field. He was more of a straight-up, power runner, where I'd rather put a move on you and try to outrun you. But he's accomplished something (playing in the NFL) that I hope to accomplish one day."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: His mother, Deborah Sterling: "I discussed his father openly with Daylon. Anything he wanted to know, I would tell him. It was no big secret or anything...We both went on with our lives and he provided for Daylon financially...It was never like there was any bad blood between us. We just went our separate ways. I never painted his dad out to be a villain or anything...When they met at that Rams practice when Daylon was 10, I think both of them handled it well. I'm sure it was awkward for the both of them...Daylon kind of looked up to him as he signed the autograph, then walked over to me, and I asked him if he knew who he was. He said, 'Yeah, kinda.' Lawrence stood there and just kind of watched the whole thing. I asked Daylon if he wanted to go over and talk to him. He did. Daylon handled the whole thing pretty well. He's a scrappy, confident kid...When they got back together for lunch when Daylon was in high school, I think it was hard for them, at first, to see what they expected out of it. It's not like you can make up all of those years. I don't think it was Lawrence's intention, and Daylon was a wise enough young man that he realized that you couldn't do that over such a short period of time. They were both open and willing to work on the relationship they have now. What I think is more important is that there's nothing we can do about the past...Daylon and Lawrence are very much alike, the way they walk, their movement, their sense of humor, their temperament, they way they laugh, everything. Genes are definitely remarkable things. They're so much alike, it's scary...My son and I worry about each other an awful lot. We're very close."

His father, Lawrence: "It was strange (seeing him at that Rams practice in 1987), because he looked so much like me. It was like I was looking at myself as a young kid...(The next time they met 5 years later), I just decided it was time. I didn't know what would come of it, but I called him up...I think the relationship was kind of guarded at first, but I think he feels he can confide in me. We talk about football, his team, his studies, just normal talk. Our relationship has really grown in the last year or so. I'm concerned a lot more with that than what happened in the past...My main concern is building a strong relationship with Daylon, getting to know him better. There's no time frame on it...He has great leg strength and has good jumping ability, which equalizes the height advantage a receiver has. He has great ability to play the ball in the air."

USC secondary coach Dennis Thurman: "Daylon has something we refer to around here as 'stuff'...He makes a lot of plays that you can't coach. And he makes a lot of great little plays...Not only does he have great athletic gifts, but he also has great instincts for how to play and he has an understanding of the game...His athletic ability is very important because he's in position to do the job on almost every play. He knows the game and plays the game that way. And he listens. He's coachable."

MATT McSHANE

Offensive Guard
6-5, 285
Fr.*/So.

1996: McShane, a redshirt freshman, enters 1996 listed as the backup to David Pratchard at right offensive guard in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "McShane showed improvement during his first year at USC last season and should continue to develop in 1996."

1995: McShane redshirted in 1995 as a freshman offensive guard. He enrolled at USC in the spring of 1995 after sitting out the sport in 1994 following a fine prep career.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: McShane attended Merritt Community College in Oakland (Calif.) as a part-time student in the fall of 1994, but did not play football.

HIGH SCHOOL: McShane was named to the 1993 Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first team as a senior at St. Mary's High in Berkeley (Calif.).

As a 1992 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-Metro and All-League. He also played basketball and track at St. Mary's. He was the school's student body president.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC with a B average (3.02 GPA). He likes to play the saxophone.

BILLY MILLER

Wide Receiver
So./So.

1996: Miller, just a sophomore with outstanding size, speed and hands, will start in 1996 at the wide receiver position vacated by All-American and top NFL draft selection Keyshawn Johnson. He is on the verge of becoming an impact wide receiver in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Miller is a big, physical player with great hands. He can develop into a great receiver. He could be the biggest surprise on our team in 1996. He was one of our most improved freshmen last season and had a great freshman year, even though most of his outstanding performances were on the practice field because he was playing behind Keyshawn Johnson."

1995: As a first-year freshman, Miller served as the backup to unanimous All-American and NFL No. 1 pick Johnson at wide receiver. Miller also performed on special teams. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 3 catches for 27 yards (9.0 avg.), including 2 for 18 yards against San Jose State in his first game as a Trojan, plus notched 1 tackle and forced a fumble (against Stanford).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1994 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, College Sports All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III first team Co-MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura first team MVP, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Marmonte League MVP as a senior at Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.). He caught 69 passes for 1,087 yards (15.8 avg.) and 14 TDs. Westlake went 10-2.

As a 1993 junior, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura, Los Angeles Daily News All-Valley and All-Marmonte League (where he was Offensive MVP) first teams. He had 85 receptions for 1,465 yards (17.2 avg.) with 13 TDs in 1993.

As a 1992 sophomore, he made the All-Marmonte League first team with 33 catches for 465 yards (14.1 avg.) with 7 TDs. He also played cornerback. In his career, he had 187 catches for 3,017 yards (16.1 avg.) with 34 TDs (the yardage and TDs rank third on the CIF career charts).

He also was a 3-year starter for Westlake's basketball team (he averaged 15 points in 1995), earning 1995 Los Angeles Times All-Ventura and All-Marmonte League first team and 1994 Student Sports All-Grid-Hoop third team honors.

PERSONAL: His sports hero is Jerry Rice.

BILLY MILLER ON: Playing behind All-American Keyshawn Johnson in 1995: "I'd get maybe 20 to 30 balls thrown to me on Tuesday practices (when Johnson was given the day off to rest). When Keyshawn would come back, it dropped to 2 to 5. But that was my learning year and I took advantage of it. I learned a lot just listening to (USC wide receivers) Coach (Mike) Sanford and Keyshawn talking."

Improving: "I've been working on everything--my speed, catching the ball, running patterns, and using my body to my advantage to get in front of the defensive back."

USC's recent tradition of producing wide receivers who were high NFL draft picks: "It gives me incentive to work hard. I see them making all that money after working hard in college. It makes me want to work hard, as hard as they did or even harder, to be the best receiver at USC."

The transition from high school to college football: "Nothing can really get you ready. There's just so much volume when you come in. I was in shape physically, but I don't think I was in shape mentally. You can't prepare for it all. Everything is a lot faster...Plus, the competition is so great. Here, everyone is a superstar and everyone knows what they're doing and it's at full speed...And we're meeting all the time."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC wide receivers coach Mike Sanford: "The thing that's exciting to me is he's just scratching the surface of his ability. He can improve his speed and his physical strength...He has very similar speed to (ex-USC All-American and first round NFL draft pick) Johnnie Morton when he came to USC."

CHRIS MILLER

Wide Receiver
Sr./Sr.

1996: Miller, the cousin of ex-Trojan unanimous All-American wide receiver and NFL No. 1 draft pick Keyshawn Johnson, is known for his speed and moves. Look for him to make an even greater impact in 1996 as a senior wide receiver (he and Larry Parker are listed as co-starters). He might also return kickoffs again.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Miller is one of the most competitive and intelligent players on our team. He is a dangerous deep threat, but he can also make the clutch catches and the tough catches in a crowd. He has outstanding speed, with a great burst at the end of his run to catch the ball."

1995: Miller transferred to USC in the spring of 1995 from West Los Angeles Community College and played a key role for Troy. Miller played often as a 1995 junior as the backup to Parker at wide receiver (although he did start against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl) and as a kickoff returner. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, he caught 21 passes for 215 yards (10.2 avg.) with 1 TD (a 4-yarder against Houston), he returned 12 kickoffs (tied for the USC lead) for a team-high 286 yards (a USC-best 23.8 avg.), and he even ran 1 reverse for 9 yards. He also caught a 2-point conversion pass against Stanford. He had 3 receptions in 4 games: against Arizona (for 32 yards), Notre Dame (for 28 yards), UCLA (for 22 yards) and Northwestern (50 yards). He also had a non-scoring kickoff return of 61 yards versus Washington State.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Miller made the 1994 Super Prep JUCO 100 and All-Western State Conference first team in his only season at West Los Angeles (Calif.) Community College. He had 41 receptions for 762 yards (18.6 avg.) and 7 TDs in 1994, plus 11 carries for 86 yards and 3 scores, and 19 kickoff returns for 364 yards (19.2 avg.).

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Dorsey High in Los Angeles and, as a 1991 senior, Dorsey went 12-1-1 and won the L.A. City 4-A title.

PERSONAL: After leaving Dorsey, he spent nearly 2 years traveling to San Francisco, Detroit and Portland on a religious mission spreading the word of his Muslim faith. He enjoys talking to community and youth groups. He's a history major at USC. He has a son, Jolani, who was born in February of 1996.

CHRIS MILLER ON: His Muslim faith: "I've followed the faith since I was in ninth grade. I remember my brother, David, talking about it a lot. I used to go watch the Muslim father speak. I saw how he was so powerful and everybody would listen to him. I figured maybe I should look into it more. I thought it might fit my model of life and help me do better with my life. I really didn't get more into it until after I was in high school. That's when I started going to the mosque and praying more regularly. Every week or so, I took a step further into it and I started learning more things about it...There was a certain energy inside me and I knew this was what I wanted to be...Everybody here wants to know about it. It's not just a racial thing in my religion. I love everybody...If I didn't go this route, I wouldn't be here right now. I wouldn't even be playing on the team. I don't know where I'd be. It was just something I had to do to find out more about myself."

Going on a mission: "Even though I was a good football player in high school, nobody came around with scholarships because I was small. I felt my life just wasn't right. I could have stayed on the streets and run with some of the same gangs I ran with before. But I knew I needed to try to reach other people with my faith...On the mission, I told kids to live a better life, to listen to God...I was talking to this one kid in Detroit. I helped him turn his life around. It brought a tear to my eye. If he hadn't listened to me, I knew he could have ended up how I might have ended up. I felt like I was passing along something special that someone had done for me...Then when I came back, I was just happy to be a Muslim. My whole outlook on life was different. I appreciated life more."

Fasting: "It's not that difficult. It's a mind thing. If you can take a hit on the field, you can take fasting for a month. Anything my God asks me, I'll do it."

On his involvement with gangs as a youth: "That time was just a stepping stone. Everybody makes mistakes when they're young...Nobody is perfect. for me, it was just a stepping stone to get to the next level, and I'm just happy that I'm not still there and I'm here at USC."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Ex-USC All-American wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, Miller's cousin: "I always thought he should be playing somewhere. It's amazing to me that people didn't think he could be a big-time player...The two of us will be playing against each other in the NFL some day."

CHAD MORTON

Running Back
Fr.*/So.

1996: Morton, whose older brother was one of USC's all-time great receivers, was moved to running back (from cornerback) prior to 1996 spring practice and adds an element of speed to the position as a reserve redshirt freshman in 1996. He might also return kicks and punts. He was slowed in 1996 spring drills because of a sprained knee.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Morton is one of the fastest players I've been around and he plays fast. He could be a valuable addition to our offensive backfield and return teams."

1995: Morton redshirted as a freshman cornerback in 1995, his first year at USC.

TRACK: He sprinted for the USC track team in the spring of 1996, winning the 100-meter dash in 11.06 in a heat of USC's Five-Way meet (he also ran the third leg on USC's victorious 400-meter relay squad in that meet), before a knee sprain ended his season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He played football for 3 years at South Torrance (Calif.) High, although he missed all but the first quarter of the season opener as a 1994 senior running back after breaking his collarbone. He started at wide receiver as a 1993 junior and was a part-time starting running back as a sophomore in 1992.

He also sprinted for 3 years for South Torrance's track team, with career bests of 10.48 in the 100 meters (he finished seventh in the 1995 state 100) and 21.3 in the 200.

PERSONAL: He has a B+ average (3.32 GPA). He is the younger brother of ex-USC All-American and current Detroit Lion wide receiver Johnnie Morton (an NFL first rounder). Another older brother, Eric, is a senior wide receiver at Dartmouth.

BRAD OTTON

Quarterback
Sr.*/Sr.

CAREER: Otton is eighth on USC's career passing chart (214-of-348, 61.5%, 2,710 yards, 20 TDs, 4 interceptions) and is 10-1-1 as a Trojan starter. His 216 consecutive passes attempted without an interception at the start of his USC career (over the 1994 and 1995 seasons) is a Pac-10 and USC record (he also owns the NCAA mark of 202, which doesn't include bowl games). He is 22nd on USC's career total offense list with 2,660 yards.

1996: The cool, tested and talented Otton--at 6-6, the tallest quarterback in USC history--returns to guide the Trojans in 1996 as a senior and should be in line for post-season honors. He is known for his intelligent and poised play, an accurate arm and good scrambling ability. He's also available as a backup holder on all placekicks.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Otton could wind up as one of the top quarterbacks in the country. He displays great poise and leadership, and he has proven to be a very intelligent and accurate passer. He has all the tools you look for in a quarterback. He is very intuitive about the game and has great instincts on the field. He's very elusive and can stay alive in the pocket while keeping his eyes downfield better than anyone I've seen. He has a cool demeanor, too. Physically, he's gotten much stronger and his arm is stronger."

1995: Otton shared time with Kyle Wachholtz at quarterback as a junior in 1995. Otton played the first and third quarters of games (except for the last 5 games, when Otton played the entire second half at Washington, while Wachholtz quarterbacked the last 3 quarters versus Stanford and the entire game at Oregon State, then Otton played the final 3 quarters versus UCLA and all of the Rose Bowl against Northwestern).

Otton, who was third in the Pac-10 (23rd in U.S.) in passing efficiency (136.9 regular season, 141.7 overall), was 159-of-256 (62.1%) for 1,923 yards and 14 TDs with just 4 interceptions in 1995 (that's 10th on USC's single season passing list). He also had minus 17 yards rushing on 22 carries (-1.5 avg.) with 1 TD. His 1,906 yards of total offense ranked 16th on USC's season list.

Against San Jose State, Otton was 14-of-20 for 182 yards with 1 TD and added an 8-yard TD scamper. Versus Houston, he was 14-of-21 for career highs of 4 TDs and 223 yards (he was the first Trojan to throw 4 TDs in a game since Rob Johnson did so in 1993 against Houston). At Arizona, he was 12-of-17 for 95 yards, then against Arizona State, he was 15-of-26 for 192 yards and 2 TDs. At California, he was 14-of-21 for 160 yards. He was 14-of-24 for 130 yards and 1 TD versus Washington State (his third quarter interception ended his Pac-10 and USC record streak of consecutive passes without a pick at 216, dating back to 1994). At Notre Dame, he went 8-of-17 for 110 yards and an interception. In the tie at Washington, he played the fourth quarter instead of Wachholtz and led USC back from a 21-point final period deficit; Otton was 21-of-36 for 251 yards (all career highs) and 2 TDs overall in 3 quarters (including 13-of-22 for 137 yards and 2 TDs in the final quarter). He suffered a mild concussion early in the Stanford contest (he was just 1-of-7 for 38 yards and an interception) and was sidelined the final 3 quarters. He was held out of the entire contest at Oregon Stat while still feeling the effects of the concussion. After Wachholtz started against UCLA, Otton played the last 3 quarters and completed 17-of-23 passes (for a career-best 73.9%) for 151 yards and 2 TDs. Against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl, Otton played the entire game for the first time in 1995 and was outstanding: he hit 29-of-44 passes for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs and no interceptions (the yardage was 1 yard shy of Rob Johnson's USC record and was the third most in Rose Bowl history).

1994: Otton was a pleasant--and somewhat unexpected--addition to USC in 1994. He transferred to USC in the spring of 1994 after a record-setting season at Division I-AA Weber State and proved to be a super sub as a sophomore backup quarterback to Johnson. Because of ankle sprains to Johnson, Otton filled in admirably for him in 5 games in 1994 (he was 2-0 as a starter). Overall in 7 games in 1994, Otton was 47-of-78 (60.3%) for 641 yards, 4 TDs and no interceptions. He was immediately eligible to play at USC because of a new NCAA rule on Division I-AA transfers (the rule has since been rescinded).

Otton came on in the third quarter at Oregon (completing 7-of-15 passes for 79 yards with no interceptions and just 2 sacks). He played the entire game at Oregon State (going 13-of-21 for 208 yards and 2 TDs, without a pick and only 1 sack). He jumped in during the second quarter at Stanford (going 10-of-20 for 114 yards, no picks and 1 sack). He started again versus California (completing 75.0% of his passes, 15-of-20, for 196 yards, 2 TDs, no picks and 1 sack, including 14-of-19 for 188 yards in the first half; he left the game after USC's first series of the second half with Troy up, 42-0, as backups came in). He then played the last 7 minutes against Arizona (leading USC to a TD and field goal while hitting both of his passes for 44 yards, including a 43-yard bomb on his first snap). He also played most of the second half in USC's rout of Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl, going 8-of-14 for 146 yards and 2 TDs (including an 86-yarder to Keyshawn Johnson, 1 yard shy of the USC and Cotton Bowl record), with no interceptions or sacks. He also played briefly against Baylor, but didn't throw a pass.

WEBER STATE: Otton was Weber State's starting quarterback in 1993. He set NCAA Division I-AA freshman single game records when he threw for 540 yards and had 536 yards of total offense against Northern Arizona. He earned 1993 All-Big Sky honorable mention notice while completing 183-of-314 passes (58.3%) for 2,307 yards and 15 TDs. He was 13th in Division I-AA in total offense (249.1 yards per game). He started 7 times for Weber State, which was 7-4 in 1993 and ranked 11th among Division I-AA teams in passing offense (279.5) and 12th in total offense (444.7). Otton also made the 1993 Big Sky All-Academic team.

He redshirted in 1990 in his first year at Weber State, then went on a Mormon mission for 2 years to Italy, followed by 2 months in Brooklyn, N.Y.

HIGH SCHOOL: Otton prepped at Tumwater (Wash.) High in 1989 and led his 13-0 team to the state championship. He completed 92-of-159 passes (57.9%) for 1,576 yards, 29 TDs (third most ever in the state) and just 4 interceptions as a senior while coached by his father, Sid. He also ran for 3 scores. He was All-State first team and Black Hills League MVP in 1989. He was the backup quarterback during his sophomore and junior seasons, hitting 10-of-14 passes (71.4%) for 128 yards and 2 TDs. Tumwater also won the state title in his 1987 sophomore season. He also played basketball (16.0 scoring average) and tennis at Tumwater.

PERSONAL: His father, Sid, was a 1965 All-American back at Weber State (as a prepster at Lewiston High in Idaho, he was coached by Bud Riley, father of USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley), while his older brother, Tim, was a defensive end at Weber State. His sister, Tana, is on the women's basketball team at Western Washington. Otton is a business major at USC. He was married in May of 1996 and his wife's name is Deanna.

BRAD OTTON ON: His composure: "I don't really think about the pressure that's on me. I guess what pressure there is, I kind of enjoy it and roll with whatever happens...I'm not going to go out there nervous for the only time I'm really enjoying it. There's a personality behind every player, and I guess that's my personality."

His passing accuracy: "I'm not out there thinking that I can't throw an interception because I have some streak going...I throw plenty of interceptions in practice!...I was taught by my coach at Weber State, Dave Arslanian, that you should test the limits of what you can get away with in practice. You've got to find things out whether you can sneak things in the hole, whether you can look this guy off and throw behind him...That usually means throwing a lot of interceptions in practice, but that's when you need to find things out so you don't make the same mistakes in a game."

Sharing time with Kyle Wachholtz in 1995: "I think Coach Robinson did it because he had 2 good quarterbacks and he couldn't justify telling one to sit on the bench. While I wish it didn't have to be that way, I definitely understand...I don't make the decisions. The coaches make the decisions. They went with what they thought would be best for the team. The main concern was how I was going to deal with it. I'm for doing what's best for the team. I learned a lot about football and a lot about life through it...It was tough, not only to come in cold and having to get into a rhythm, but also to not be the guy in the fourth quarter...You're just a little more tense, a little more conscious that you have to make something happen or people are going to start talking and wondering whether you should be in there. It's more of a pressure situation than playing 4 quarters and being able to relax and enjoy yourself...Kyle and I had a lot of respect for each other...I'm happy Kyle got a chance to show what he could do. I think the best thing was we were able to get along. We supported each other."

His first year at USC: "I was prepared not to play. I just wanted to establish myself and perhaps get a leg up in the competition for the starting spot in 1995...Trying to stay involved in practice, when you've gone from being the guy to a spot where you've just got to kind of look on all the time, was a lot harder than I thought it would be. I tried to stay involved in practice and pay attention. But you start thinking of other places you could be, of other things you could be doing. I even told my mom I shouldn't have left Weber State. She told me to wait, that things would turn around...It's kind of weird how things worked out...I just kept going out there and doing my best."

The difference between USC and Weber State football: "I haven't really noticed a big difference. The players have more speed and maybe they're more intense than I thought. But if there's a big difference, I haven't noticed it yet...I went to Weber State because at the time I didn't have any false delusions that I could play Pac-10 football. I needed a couple years to grow into my body...I grew so fast, that I was so skinny and so awkward."

Why he selected USC: "When I visited the other schools, I could feel the pressure the minute I got there. They were kind of looking for someone to save the team. Here, I got a chance to come in and adjust to things...I don't watch much football on T.V., so I didn't know a lot about USC. I remembered that they had a redheaded quarterback (Todd Marinovich) who couldn't eat Big Macs! Other than that, I didn't know much. I didn't even know USC and UCLA were rivals...I knew about the Apple Cup (the trophy for the winner of the annual Washington-Washington State game), but I didn't know if USC versus UCLA was as big as the Apple Cup...I knew USC was in Los Angeles, but I didn't know UCLA was in L.A.!...When I first got here, I didn't know why the players did the peace sign when the band played. The victory sign. I thought I had joined a cult or something. I didn't know what was going on...But I decided to come to USC because I want to win a national championship...I didn't want to not play for a year. Then I bought a magazine and read an article about how Coach (John) Robinson wanted to win a national championship in 3 years or so. Maybe I wouldn't mind waiting for a year if I was going to get a chance in the next 2 years to play for the national championship."

Leaving Weber State: "I know I hurt a lot of people there by leaving, but it was something I felt I had to do. I felt if I was going to transfer, that was the time to do it...They were in a tough situation (with the precarious financial status of the football program). If I had been a senior, I never would've left. When I thought about my friends there, I kind of felt like I dumped on them. But when I thought about myself, I got excited about my new situation...When they win a game, I feel like I'm off the hook for a week. It's on my conscience a little bit. That school meant a lot to me, it meant a lot to my family. The only reason I buy the Sunday morning newspaper is to check the Big Sky scores."

Originally committing to Washington State before USC: "The day after I told Coach (Mike) Price I'd come to Washington State, he called me. They already had 6 quarterbacks in school and when they heard I was coming, they were all in his office the next day, he said...I didn't want to go there with all those people hating me right away. So it became sort of a mutual decision...We agreed it wouldn't be a good situation, so I called Coach (Mike) Riley and told him I'd come to USC."

His Mormon mission to Italy and Brooklyn: "There are only about 7,000 Mormons in the whole country (of Italy). I don't know if I converted anyone, but everyone I talked to was polite and seemed interested...There wasn't a ton of interest, so I did a lot of community service and tried to break down the stereotypes people have of Mormons, that we have a million wives and wear black hats. I'd play a lot of soccer. Sometimes I'd get out a football and teach people how to throw it...At the end, they let me decide where I wanted to finish up. I had liked Italy, so I wanted to go to a place where they had a lot of Italian people. I remembered 'Welcome Back Kotter.' That was alll had heard about Brooklyn."

The toughest player he's faced: "My brother, Tim, is 4 years older than me and a lot bigger. He always made sure to give me an extra elbow or something. He didn't want me to turn out to be a wimpy quarterback."

Comparisons to Todd Marinovich: "My dad was a coach, too, but I grew up on Fruity Pebbles and Quarter Pounders with Cheese."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "Brad is very, very poised. He just kind of plays the game easily...He doesn't feel pressure. He's very mature. He may not be in awe of things in the Pac-10, but he's certainly no country bumpkin."

USC running back Shawn Walters: "He's cool. He makes everyone at ease...That's the way Brad is. When he comes into the game, he tries to calm everyone down. He doesn't feel right unless he gets one smile in the huddle."

Former USC running back Terry Barnum: "He's just super smooth. When the pass blocking breaks down, he doesn't get that 'Oh-my-goodness' look, that 'Please-help-me' look...He'll stick his head in the huddle and say, 'Hey guys, long time no see!'...When a play is signalled in, sometimes he says, 'Hey, I think we're going to score on this one'...The series is like a long dialogue, a story. The 'happily ever after' is the touchdown."

Former USC All-American wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson: "Otton is cool. When you look at him, you see the leadership in his eyes."

Sid Otton, his father and high school coach: "On the football field, Brad's always had a special charisma about him that's made him a good field general. He's always had poise and he's showed that in the games...Brad might come across as real cool and hardly ever stressed, but he's a tremendous competitor."

TASO PAPADAKIS

Linebacker
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: Papadakis, a physical junior, returns to action in 1996 after missing 1995 with a knee injury and will contend for the starting middle linebacker job (in the spot vacated by co-starters Errick Herrin and Brian Haas). Although he already redshirted in 1993 because of another injury, he was eligible also to redshirt the 1995 season (because of the second injury) and, therefore, if he chooses, could become a rare sixth-year college player. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while recovering from 1995 right knee ligament surgery.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "It's great to get Papadakis back. He's a solid player who thrives in the physical, tough style of play."

1995: As a sophomore, Papadakis was expected to be an often-used backup linebacker and a key special teams player in 1995, but he tore ligaments in his right knee in pre-season practice, had surgery, and missed the entire season. Because this was his second early-season injury as a collegian, he was eligible to again redshirt the season.

1994: As a redshirt freshman reserve inside linebacker, Papadakis appeared in all 12 USC games in 1994, mainly on special teams. He made 4 tackles. Early in the season, he also was available as a blocking fullback in short yardage situations, but never played there. He missed 1994 spring practice while recuperating from post-season surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right shoulder.

1993: One of just 2 first-year freshmen to play for USC in 1993, Papadakis played on special teams in the North Carolina and Houston games. But he dislocated his left wrist against Houston and missed the rest of the season. Because of the early-season injury, 1993 served as his redshirt year.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1992 Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, and All-Bay League Defensive MVP (all as a linebacker) at Peninsula High in Rolling Hills (Calif.). He had 277 yards on 42 carries (6.6 avg.) with 2 TDs as a fullback in 1992, plus 3 fumble recoveries and 2 interceptions as a linebacker. His team went 9-3 and was Bay League co-champions in 1992.

He was hampered by a pulled hamstring in 1991, but still posted 77 tackles and 2 interceptions while winning All-League second team honors. Peninsula was 8-3 in 1991. As a 1990 sophomore, he had 97 tackles and an interception to get All-League second team mention. He also was a shot putter on the track team.

PERSONAL: His real first name is Anastasios. He has played the piano most of his life. He has worked many years at his family's renowned Greek restaurant in San Pedro, Papadakis Taverna. His father, John, lettered 2 years (1970-71) as a linebacker at USC (he was Troy's most inspirational player in 1971). Taso is a third generation Trojan. He can bench press 390 pounds. He's a religious studies major at USC. His brother, Petros, is a redshirt freshman running back with the Trojans.

TASO PAPADAKIS ON: Hitting: "I love to hit. I love to put my head in there. I'm not afraid of anybody."

Playing on special teams: "You really have to focus your energy because it's all for 1 play. It's definitely the hardest thing I've done on the football field."

His father: "He coached me on weekends. We were always in the living room on weekends, going through the plays and knocking furniture out of the way. He taught me how to read plays...I'm just going to do my best at USC and, if it's better than my dad, then so be it."

Why he chose USC: "I grew up with USC. I was always on the sidelines and playing here was more or less my childhood dream. It's exciting to be here."

Entertaining customers in traditional Greek fashion as his family's restaurant: "We break plates. We jump off tables. We kiss old ladies. It has taught me how to interact and relate to people."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Mike Ventre, Los Angeles Daily News: "He's an amiable young man with a neon smile. If there is such a thing as a Greek beach movie, he'd be the lifeguard. He's too friendly, too outgoing, too good to go around using his forehead as a calling card. Yet the manners and the personality somehow run for cover when Taso senses movement by the enemy...Papadakis has the build (let's just say he makes Michelangelo's David look like a couch potato) and the attitude."

LARRY PARKER

Wide Receiver
Jr./Jr.

CAREER: Parker is 19th on USC's career punt return chart, with 30 returns for 272 yards (9.1 avg.).

1996: Parker, a sure-handed junior, returns for his second season as a starting wide receiver in 1996 (he's listed as a co-starter with Chris Miller). He might also again return punts. He missed part of 1996 spring practice because of a sprained right ankle. After 1996 spring drills, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage from his left knee.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "With improvement in the detail areas of the position, we expect great things from Parker this year. He has the toughness and athletic ability to step up. He has a chance to be a featured performer."

1995: As just a sophomore, Parker started USC's first 11 games of 1995 at wide receiver and he also returned punts. Overall in 1995, he had 25 catches (third on USC) for 270 yards (10.8 avg.), plus had a team-topping 29 punt returns for 266 yards (9.2 avg. to rank second in the Pac-10) and 1 kickoff return for 6 yards. He had a catch in all but 1 game (Houston), including a career-high 6 grabs for 41 yards versus Washington State and 3 for 68 yards against Stanford. He returned a Washington State punt 63 yards before fumbling inside the Cougar 5-yard line (but USC's Mike Bastianelli recovered it in the end zone for a TD) and won Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors for that performance. A 59-yard scoring punt return at Notre Dame was called back because of a penalty.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Parker appeared in 11 games in 1994 (all but the Washington opener) as a backup wide receiver behind Keyshawn Johnson. He made 14 catches for 137 yards (9.8 avg.). He had 5 catches for 40 yards at Penn State. Parker also returned kickoffs, running back 4 for 83 yards (20.8 avg.), and punts, returning 1 for 6 yards, in 1994.

HIGH SCHOOL: Parker was on the 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-South Yosemite League as a senior at Bakersfield (Calif.) High. He had 12 receptions and 5 TDs on offense, made 75 tackles with 1 interception on defense, and returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD in 1993. Bakersfield was 13-1 in 1993.

As a 1992 junior, he made All-Area and All-League while catching 11 passes for 160 yards (14.5 avg.) and 4 TDs, getting 80 tackles and 7 interceptions, and averaging 30.0 yards on kickoff returns. He also was on the track team, competing in the high jump and high hurdles. He had among the state's best times in 1994 in both the 110-meter high hurdles (14.49; he also posted a 14.20 wind-aided mark) and 300-meter intermediate hurdles (38.26). He was the 1994 Central Section champion in both events and participated in the state meet. He was a national age group champion in the high hurdles.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. His sports hero is Jerry Rice.

LARRY PARKER ON: His ability: "I think it's instinct, getting the ball and wanting to run. I think that's one of my biggest assets, that I have good field vision so I can really run with the ball...My thinking is, 'If I get open, I'm going to score.' Every time, I'm thinking it's my ball and I'm going to score."

Sharing the same name with a noted local attorney whose advertisements are often on TV: "Everyday, somebody says it, 'Larry Parker got me $2.1 million.' I hate it. I've been hearing it since fourth grade. Every time I hear it now, I don't even listen."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "The thing he does well is get the ball and cut upfield real quick."

GRANT PEARSALL

Safety
6-1, 190
Jr./Jr.

1996: Pearsall, a much-improved junior, enters 1996 listed as a co-starter at strong safety with Rashard Cook.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Pearsall is a talented player. He was stuck playing behind Sammy Knight last year, but he could be one of our most improved players in 1996. He showed that in the spring."

1995: Pearsall served as the backup strong safety behind Sammy Knight as a sophomore in 1995 and also played on special teams. Overall while appearing in all 12 games in 1995, he made 12 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 3 yards, and forced 1 fumble (against Houston). He had 6 stops versus Houston. He was moved to the strong side from free safety in 1995 spring practice.

1994: As just a first-year freshman reserve safety, Pearsall appeared in all 12 games in 1994, mainly on special teams. He appeared briefly at free safety against Washington, California, Arizona and Texas Tech. He made 2 tackles in 1994.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pearsall's 1993 honors included Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-Orange County Co-MVP, and All-Century League MVP as a senior at Villa Park (Calif.) High. He rushed for 1,606 yards (6.2 avg.) with 17 TDs (he had 9 100-yard games, including a 248-yarder), plus caught 19 passes for 206 yards (10.8 avg.) with 7 TDs in 1993. He made 85 tackles, 4 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 4 interceptions (including a 52-yarder for a TD) on defense in 1993 and returned 14 kickoffs for 599 yards (42.8 avg.) and scored 5 times on kickoff and punt returns. Villa Park was 8-4 in 1993.

As a 1992 junior nagged by an injured ankle, he made All-Century League first team and had 1,100 rushing yards with 16 TDs, 75 tackles, and scoring kickoff returns of 99 and 98 yards. He was All-Century League first team as a 1991 sophomore. A 3-year starter, Villa Park was 21-12-1 during that span. He also was on the track (best of 10.9 in the 100 meters and 22.0 in the 200 meters) and basketball teams at Villa Park.

PERSONAL: He's an economics major at USC. He was born in Seattle, Wash. He bench presses 345 pounds. His father, Jim Pearsall, played with the Minnesota Vikings. His brother, Brian, is an offensive lineman at Cal Poly Pomona, while another brother, Chris, played at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. He enjoys camping and fly fishing. His sports hero is Chuck Cecil.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "I look for a lot of good things from Grant. He's young and doesn't have much experience, but he has the potential and is only going to get better with time."

GEORGE PERRY

Defensive End
Jr./Jr.

1996: Perry, a junior, was moved from defensive tackle to defensive end prior to 1996 spring drills and is listed as a starter in 1996 at the spot vacated by co-starters Israel Ifeanyi and Marcus Bonds.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Perry is big, strong and quick and he has shown improvement during his career. Going out to an end position gives him a chance to be a dominant player. That's his true position."

1995: As a sophomore in 1995, Perry started the first 4 games (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona and Arizona State) at the middle defensive tackle (nose tackle) spot, then served as the backup there behind Stuart Gage the rest of the season. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, Perry 13 tackles (including 2 sacks for minus 6 yards). He had 3 stops against both Houston and Oregon State.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Perry appeared in 9 games in 1994 (all but the Washington, Oregon State and Notre Dame contests) as a backup defensive end (first behind Willie Lowery and then behind Darrell Russell). He made 8 tackles, including 4 for losses of 10 yards (with a sack), and had a deflection.

HIGH SCHOOL: Perry made the 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 and All-League Defensive MVP as a senior at San Bernardino (Calif.) High. He played 6 positions, including defensive line, wide receiver, tailback and placekicker. As a 1992 junior, he had 20 sacks, 15 tackles for losses, 20 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries. He was a 4-year starter in football. He also played basketball and track at San Bernardino.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

PHALEN POUNDS

Offensive Guard
6-7, 310
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: Pounds, a junior offensive guard who started in 1995, will miss most (if not all) of the 1996 season after having surgery to repair torn ligaments in his right shoulder following 1996 spring practice.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Pounds likely will miss the 1996 season with an injury. He is a solid player and has the ability to develop into an outstanding lineman."

1995: Pounds started at right offensive guard for USC's first 11 games of 1995 as a sophomore and won 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention acclaim. He did not play against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl because of a violation of team policy.

1994: As just a redshirt freshman, Pounds--who was switched from offensive tackle to offensive guard in 1994 spring drills--started 2 early-season games (Penn State and Baylor) at right guard in 1994 (he played as Kris Pollack's backup in the Washington opener) before an injury sidelined him. He tore cartilage in his left knee prior to the Oregon game and had arthroscopic surgery which kept him out of the next 5 games (Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, California and Washington State). His only action after returning was as a backup in the Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech.

1993: Pounds redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1993, his first year at USC. He was sidelined with a left ankle sprain for the Oregon and Oregon State games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pounds made 1992 Super Prep All-Far West, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley second team, and All-Pacific League at Pasadena (Calif.) High. He graded out blocking at 80-90% in 1992 games. He had 61 tackles, 4 sacks and 3 caused fumbles on defense in 1992. He also played basketball and track.

PERSONAL: His uncle, Larry Pounds, lettered in basketball at Washington in 1974 and 1975. Phalen can bench press 385 pounds.

PHALEN POUNDS ON: His size advantage: "In high school, everybody was smaller than me. I just walked onto the field and the other guy would say, 'Wow, he's big,' and he wouldn't come after me...In college, the man you're facing is just as fast and just as strong as you are. You can't just rely on your size. And a lot of it is mental. It might be easy to dominate a guy if you get your hands inside, but it's easy to think about other things. I'm practicing staying focused."

His early eating habits: "I would eat after practice and then I'd be sitting around home later in the day and I'd find something else to eat. I had to cut out the junk food and start eating 3 solid meals...I'd buy a 5-pound tub of ice cream to make root beer floats and the ice cream might last almost a week or it might last a couple of days. I just loved to eat and root beer floats were my favorite...I'm in much better shape now (down from 365 pounds as a freshman) and I'm stronger. It's a combination of staying away from the refrigerator, eating a healthier diet, working out more and weight training."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive line coach Mike Barry: "Phalen is an athlete. For a big guy, he has very easy body movement. And he takes great pride in his work...If he can't play, we can always use him for shade."

USC running back Shawn Walters: "I'll run behind him anytime. He's like a big ol' eclipse. I just have to stand there and he opens it up. All he has to do is make somebody think he's coming and there's going to be a hole."

Former USC offensive tackle Norberto Garrido: "He's got good feet and he's fast. The coaches didn't think he was fast enough to pull, but he's doing great."

MARVIN POWELL III

Running Back
6-2, 200
So./So.

1996: Powell, whose father starred at USC and in the NFL, will be used primarily as a blocking fullback as a sophomore running back in 1996. He's listed as the starter at the spot vacated by Terry Barnum.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Powell is a very physical and athletic player. He loves to run into people. He can become a great blocker. He just needs to quicken his feet. He will be a vital component of our running attack in 1996. I expect him to see a lot of action in the traditional fullback role. In the spring, he made big-time improvement."

1995: Powell appeared in all 12 games in 1995 as a first-year freshman, mainly on special teams. He began the year as a safety, was moved early on to linebacker and then late in the season was switched to running back (fullback). Overall in 1995, he made 8 tackles (including 3 against Arizona State). He did not carry the ball from fullback, but did line up there several times. Against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl, he returned a short kickoff 7 yards as an up man on the kickoff return team.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1994 honors included Blue Chip All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State honorable mention, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-L.A. City 3-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team, All-West Valley League first team and team MVP as a senior linebacker and fullback at Birmingham High in Van Nuys (Calif.). Despite missing 4 games with a neck sprain (including the L.A. City 3-A final, which Birmingham lost), he made 124 tackles (82 solo) in 1994, including 8 sacks, and forced 4 fumbles, plus ran for 363 yards and caught 17 passes for 318 yards (18.7 avg.).

As a 1993 junior, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team, All-West Valley League first team and team MVP as he ran for 690 yards (9.4 avg.) with 8 TDs and caught 17 passes for 325 yards (19.1 avg.) and 3 TDs.

As a 1992 sophomore, he won All-Mid Valley League first team honors, grabbing 34 passes for 511 yards (15.0 avg.) and 4 TDs. He was a 1991 All-Mid Valley League second team pick as a freshman, leading Birmingham in sacks with 10.

He also was a hurdler on Birmingham's track team, winning the 1994 conference titles in the 110-meter high hurdles (14.6) and 330-meter intermediate hurdles (38.0). He was sixth in the L.A. City high hurdles in 1995. He has run the 100 meters in 10.9.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His father, Marvin, was a 2-time (1975-76) All-American first team and 3-time (1974-76) All-Pac-8 first team offensive tackle at USC who played on Troy's 1974 national champs, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame (in 1994), was the fourth pick of the 1977 NFL draft and was an All-Pro during his 11-year NFL career (1977-85 with the New York Jets and 1986-87 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers). His uncle, Charles Johnson, currently plays in the NFL.

MARVIN POWELL III ON: Moving to fullback: "I've always like challenges. And this is a big one...This is something I've dreamed about. I want to be lead blocking or catching passes or whatever I have to do...I know there are a lot of great players here. But when I put my mind to it, I don't think there will be a better fullback. That's how strongly I feel."

DAVID PRATCHARD

Offensive Guard
6-5, 290
So.*/Jr.

1996: Pratchard, an up-and-coming sophomore, will start in 1996 at the right offensive guard spot held last year by Phalen Pounds.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Pratchard is a tough, improved player who, with continued improvement, could have a fine career at USC. He's big, but he needs to become more physical."

1995: Pratchard served as the backup at left offensive guard behind Kyle Ramsay in 1995 as a redshirt freshman, but saw only brief action there late in the Rose Bowl against Northwestern. He missed USC's first 3 games because of an ankle sprain suffered in 1995 pre-season drills.

1994: Pratchard redshirted as an offensive guard in 1994, his first year at USC. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his right knee to remove torn cartilage.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pratchard's 1993 honors included Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Foothill League first team as a senior at Canyon High in Canyon Country (Calif.). As a 1992 junior, he made Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team, All-Santa Clarita first team and All-Golden League first team. He also played basketball and track (discus and shot put) at Canyon. Current Trojan Mark Manskar also prepped at Canyon.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC.

ADAM RENDON

Placekicker
So./So.

1996: Rendon, a sophomore placekicker, earned a scholarship in 1996 after he proved his ability as a replacement for Adam Abrams in 1995. He could push Abrams for the job again in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Rendon was a lifesaver for us in 1995 and came through in several clutch situations. He's a competitor and will work hard to drive Abrams to the limit."

1995: Rendon played an unexpectedly important role for USC as a first-year freshman walk-on placekicker in 1995. When regular kicker Abrams was sidelined with a leg injury for 6 contests, Rendon filled in and did well kicking field goals and PATs (he even handled a few kickoffs against San Jose State and Houston) despite being hampered himself all season with a pulled groin muscle. While appearing in 8 contests (all but the Arizona, Arizona State, UCLA and Northwestern games) in 1995, he made 19-of-20 PATs and 4-of-7 field goals. He was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week when he hit a 26-yard field goal and made good on all 6 PAT kicks against Houston while handling placement kicks for his first time as a Trojan. His pressure-packed PAT after USC scored with 33 seconds to play gave the Trojans a 21-21 tie at Washington (Troy trailed 21-0 in the fourth quarter). His other field goals were 36-yarders against both Washington State and Stanford and a 25-yarder at Notre Dame.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a 1994 senior placekicker at San Dieguito High in Encinitas (Calif.), he hit 7-of-8 field goals, including a 46-yarder, and 34-of-35 PATs. Most of his kickoffs sailed into the end zone. He also served as the backup punter. In practice, he kicked some 65-yard field goals.

He missed most of his 1993 junior campaign--his first time kicking a football--with a torn thigh muscle, but did connect on all 8 PATs when he returned late in the season.

He also played 1 year of soccer at San Dieguito. In 1992, he was a defender on the La Jolla Nomads club soccer team which was ranked No. 1 in the nation in the Under-16 division.

JUNIOR RICKMAN

Tight End
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: Rickman, a junior who has been oft-injured during his USC career, was moved to tight end from defensive end during 1996 spring practice and is listed as the backup (with Jeff Diltz) to John Allred in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "I think we've found a good spot at tight end for Rickman. He has a lot of talent and looked good there in the spring. If he can stay healthy, he has a chance to contribute. He has good quickness and strength."

1995: As a sophomore reserve defensive end in 1995, Rickman didn't see any action. He pulled his left hamstring prior to the Arizona State game and missed the rest of the season. He was slowed for most of 1995 spring practice while recovering from 1994 knee surgery (he also had his appendix removed).

1994: As a redshirt freshman outside linebacker, Rickman appeared in USC's first 6 games of 1994 before tearing ligaments in his left knee at Stanford and having season-ending surgery. He started at Penn State and spent the rest of the time backing up Brian Williams. Rickman played solely on special teams against Baylor, Oregon, Oregon State and Stanford. Overall, he had 2 tackles and 1 deflection in 1994. He was converted in 1994 spring practice from safety to outside linebacker, but missed most of those drills because of an ankle sprain.

1993: Rickman redshirted as a safety in 1993, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Rickman made the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, All-Arizona first team, Arizona Daily Star Class 5A All-Southern Arizona first team, Tucson Citizen All-Tucson first team, and All-City first team at Canyon Del Oro High in Tucson (Ariz.). He caught a school-record 47 passes for 667 yards (14.2 avg.) and 3 TDs (including a 90-yarder) as a wide receiver, plus made 35 tackles and 4 interceptions as a defensive back in 1992. He also kicked a school-record 7-of-10 field goals (3 in one game for a school record) in 1992, with a school-record 48-yarder, and was 30-of-39 on PAT kicks. He set the school record for receptions in a career (78). In all, he set 8 school marks.

In 1991, he was All-City 5A second team. He had 25 catches for 378 yards (15.1 avg.) and 2 TDs in 1991, plus 33 tackles. His team was 8-3 in 1991.

He averaged 13.3 yards on 6 catches in 1990. He also played basketball (he was an All-League first team pick) and baseball.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His real first name is Kim. He bench presses 350 pounds.

DARRELL RUSSELL

Defensive Tackle
Jr./Jr.

1996: Look for Russell, a big, quick and dominating junior, to be one of the premier defensive tackles in the nation in 1996. He'll be starting for his third season. He's in line for All-American honors (he was named a 1996 pre-season All-American first teamer by Playboy, The Sporting News, Athlon, Lindy's and Bob Griese's). He might also be used some at defensive end.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Russell might become the best defensive lineman I've ever coached at USC. He's so physically gifted. He was impressive when he came here as a freshman in 1994, but few players have improved as much as he has. He's headed for greatness. He had been a bit inconsistent earlier in his career, but he has matured now and has become more consistent."

1995: As just a sophomore, Russell started in 1995 for his second season as a defensive tackle. He was named to the 1995 All-Pac-10 first team (the only sophomore defensive or offensive player so honored). Overall in 1995, he made 41 tackles, including a team-high 14 for losses of 46 yards (with 4 sacks for minus 20 yards). He also recovered a fumble (at California) and deflected a pass. He had 7 tackles at Washington. Of his 6 tackles against Washington State, 5 were for losses, including 2 sacks.

1994: As a first-year freshman, Russell started USC's last 6 games of 1994 at defensive end and served as the often-used backup to Marcus Bonds and Elic Mahone before that. Overall in 1994, Russell made 26 tackles, including 3 for losses of 12 yards (with 2 sacks). He had 5 stops against Washington State and Notre Dame.

HIGH SCHOOL: Russell made the 1993 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA, Super Prep All-American and Blue Chip All-American first teams, as well as Tom Lemming's Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade Circle of Champions California MVP, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, and All-CIF San Diego Section Defensive MVP as a senior at St. Augustine High in San Diego (Calif.). He had 62 tackles, 15 sacks and 4 fumble recoveries in 1993. St. Augustine was 10-3 in 1994 and the San Diego Division III runnerup.

As a 1992 junior, he was All-CIF San Diego Section second team, San Diego Union-Tribune All-San Diego County second team, and All-Harbor League first team while posting 111 tackles (82 solo), including 18 for losses, plus 12 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 blocked PATs. He also made All-League in both basketball (averaging 19.4 points and 8.6 rebounds) and track.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. He can bench press 415 pounds. He was born in Pensacola, Fla. His sports hero is Reggie White.

DARRELL RUSSELL ON: Playing defensive tackle: "I'm a rush man. My job is to rush the quarterback, bring pressure and get a sack. I'll stop the run on the way to the quarterback. All in all, upfield pressure kills everything...Because of my position and my mentality and everything our defense stands for, getting a sack isn't something I'm surprised about. It's my job. If I don't get a sack, then I'm surprised."

His goal: "We are playing to win. We are not playing just to be here. We want to win a national championship. There's no coming on for the ride. Come on to contribute."

High school versus college football: "I can actually go full power now. Usually, with people being smaller in high school, I couldn't go my hardest. Now I can. It's good to be able to measure my skills, see what I can and can't do, and know what I have to work on."

His personality: "I do things with a smile on my face. I'm happy. I don't go on the field like I'm going to rip your face off, or remove your feet and put them on my key chain...I just get the job done. Same thing in school. I do my paper, I take care of business, but I have fun doing it."

Football versus basketball: "Basketball was my favorite sport. I played football just for recreation...I never thought I would play college football. I never thought I was good enough. I always figured that I would play basketball if anything...One reason I didn't think I'd play college football is because I thought those guys were so big. My friends would say, 'Darrell, look at you.' Sure enough, when I got on the field, those guys weren't so big...Basketball helped me a lot in my playing and my agility for football. For example, being able to dunk. I always thought anything my friends could do, I could do. It showed me if I put my mind to it, I could do whatever I wanted."

Why he chose USC: "I came because I watched UCLA run up the middle of USC in 1993 and I said, 'Hey, this team needs somebody to stop that.'...USC's coaches had goals. They didn't just say that they wanted to win. They said they were going to win. They said that they were going to the Rose Bowl and that they were going to win a national championship."

His size: "I was always tall, but I didn't become big until the end of elementary school. In the sixth grade, I wasn't getting big, I was becoming fat...When it came to sports, I always played a big man's position. My body formed around those positions and I built muscle. But it was an everyday struggle to replace fat with muscle. I've been successful at it, though."

His huge legs (he has 32-inch thighs and 22-inch calves): "Big legs run in the family...I need to buy a 48- or 50-inch waist (his waist is 40 to 42 inches) just to get pants with legs big enough. I look for pleated pants and shorts...Every now and then, I find some pants or shorts that were manufactured weird--basically mistakes--so I'll get those and try to make them last 3 or 4 years. When they wear out, I look for more...It's a good thing for me the baggy-pants look is in, because without them I don't know what I'd do. I'd have to wear shorts all the time."

His childhood: "I was the chubby little kid that nobody wanted to play with. I had to amuse myself. I'd sit at home and build the biggest Lego project you can imagine...It got depressing, but I got used to it. Being alone helped me to the point that I didn't need a lot of attention to be successful."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Darrell is probably the most athletic big man I've ever worked with. Whenever he's on the field, he makes an obvious impact."

USC offfensive line coach Doug Smith (formerly the defensive line coach): "He's a competitor. He's big, he's strong, and he doesn't get knocked off of his feet."

USC defensive tackle Anthony Sanford: "He's big, but he's so swift. An offensive person will think that Darrell would just want to run into him, but he'll run right around him. He's got finesse in his game. It's great to be around a player like that."

Mark Whicker, Orange County Register: "He is USC's Magic Mountain, smiling as he mounts the Coliseum peristyle with a hamburger in one hand and a quarterback in the other...Athletically, Russell is a next-dimension talent who relentlessly ran high school ballcarriers down. What were they going to do, run at him?"

Former USC running back Leonard Green: "He's a manchild. He's the best 300-pound athlete I've seen. The scary thing is he's still just a baby."

BRETT SAMPERI

Offensive Guard-Offensive Tackle
Fr.*/So.

1996: Samperi, a redshirt freshman, is a versatile offensive lineman available to play either guard or tackle. He's listed as a backup to Chris Brymer at left guard in 1996. He also could be a backup long snapper. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while recovering from 1995 left knee ligament surgery.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Samperi is a developing young lineman who can play a number of positions. He has a chance to be a solid player in the future."

1995: Samperi redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 1995, his first year at USC. He had mid-season surgery to repair a torn left knee ligament and was sidelined the rest of the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1994 Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State second team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team, and All-South Coast League first team as a senior left offensive tackle at San Clemente (Calif.) High.

He made 1993 All-South Coast League second team as a junior. He also was on San Clemente's track team (shot put and discus).

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. He enjoys fishing. His sports hero is Jack Youngblood.

ANTHONY SANFORD

Defensive Tackle
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: Sanford is listed as a backup defensive tackle (with Marc Matock) behind Matt Keneley as a senior in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Sanford is a big, physical player who can clog up the middle. We need for him to step up in 1996; if he does, he'll make a major contribution to our defensive front."

1995: Sanford was the backup to Darrell Russell at a defensive tackle spot in 1995 as a junior, but saw action in only 4 games (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona, Washington State). He recorded 1 tackle in 1995 (at Arizona).

1994: Sanford redshirted as a junior nose tackle in 1994, his first year at USC after transferring from Pasadena Community College.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Sanford was a 1993 J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV honorable mention and All-Mission Conference Northern Division pick as a senior at Pasadena (Calif.) Community College. He made All-Mission Conference as a 1991 freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Compton (Calif.) High, earning 1991 All-State and All-Moore League honors. He once had 7 sacks in a game.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He can bench press 435 pounds. His sports hero is Reggie White.

ANTHONY SANFORD ON: Redshirting in 1994: "All I could do was practice as hard as I could practice so the coaches would notice me and see that I'll never be in that situation anymore for the rest of my career."

RODNEY SERMONS

Running Back
6-0, 200
Jr./Jr.

1996: A versatile running back, Sermons is equally adept at running, catching and blocking. He should be on the field often as a junior in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Sermons is one of the most versatile running backs we have. He has excellent speed and outstanding competitiveness. He's an acceleration runner. He can see a hole and, zoom, go through it. He improved throughout last year as a receiver, blocker and runner. We need for him to play 'starter-type' minutes this season."

1995: Sermons served as the backup to both Delon Washington at tailback and Terry Barnum at fullback, and saw lots of action as a 1995 sophomore. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, he ran for 244 yards (second on USC) and 3 TDs on 60 carries (4.1 avg.), plus had 12 receptions for 86 yards (7.2 avg.) with 1 TD (an 8-yard score at Arizona). Sermons began 1995 as a fullback, but played mainly at tailback against Washington State (14 yards on 4 carries), Notre Dame (28 yards on 4 carries), Washington (a team-high 29 yards, including a 1-yard TD, on 9 tries), Stanford (63 yards with 2 shorts TDs on 13 carries), Oregon State (24 yards on 10 carries), and UCLA (35 yards on 9 tries). He returned to a fullback role for the Rose Bowl against Northwestern, but played briefly in that contest because of a hamstring pull (he didn't touch the ball). He also had 26 yards on 4 rushes against San Jose State, 6 yards on 2 carries versus Houston, 18 yards on 4 tries versus Arizona State and 1 yard on 1 carry at California. He had 3 catches at both Notre Dame (18 yards) and Washington (21 yards). He missed part of 1995 spring practice because of a strained right hamstring and because he had the chicken pox.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Sermons served as a backup tailback behind Shawn Walters and was USC's third-leading rusher in 1994 with 259 yards and 3 TDs on 78 carries (3.2 avg.). He also caught 2 passes for 39 yards (19.5 avg.) with 1 TD. He appeared in 8 games (all but the Washington, Oregon, UCLA and Notre Dame contests). Sermons led USC in rushing at Oregon State with 74 yards (and a 1-yard TD) on 23 carries, along with a 31-yard TD reception. He also had 39 yards on 12 tries at Washington State, 34 yards on 11 carries against Arizona, and 32 yards on 12 carries against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. His other rushing TDs came against California (2 yards) and Arizona (1 yard).

HIGH SCHOOL: Sermons' 1993 honors included Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Area first team, and All-Del Rey League Co-Offensive MVP as a senior at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.). In 9 games in 1993, he rushed for 1,050 yards and 19 TDs on 145 carries (7.2 avg.), caught 21 passes for 272 yards (13.0 avg.) and 2 TDs, returned 2 kickoffs for 55 yards (27.5 avg.). Besides playing running back, he started 5 games on defense and had 26 tackles, 2 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery. He was slowed late in the year with a shoulder injury. Bishop Amat went 11-1 in 1993 and at one point was ranked No. 1 in California (and No. 6 in the nation).

As a junior in 1992, Sermons made USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports State Junior MVP, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Area first team, and All-Del Rey League Offensive MVP. His 1992 stats were 226 carries for 1,475 yards (6.5 avg.) and 24 TDs, plus 25 receptions for 400 yards (16.0 avg.) and 4 scores. Bishop Amat was 15-0 in 1992 and won the CIF Division I title. He was All-Angelus League second team as a 1991 sophomore and had 435 yards on 71 carries (6.4 avg.) along with 29 catches for 447 yards (15.4 avg.) and 5 TDs. Bishop Amat went 9-2 in 1991. He also was on the track (with bests of 10.61 in the 100 meters and 21.70 in the 200 meters) and basketball teams at Bishop Amat. Current Trojan Daylon McCutcheon also prepped at Bishop Amat.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. He bench presses 315 pounds.

RODNEY SERMONS ON: The Bishop Amat connection to USC (14 players from his alma mater have played at USC): "We talked about it a lot in high school. There is a tradition to it. To athletes at Bishop Amat, USC seems like home."

GREG TELLAM

Defensive End
Sr.*/Sr.

1996: Tellam, a senior, is listed as the backup to George Perry at a defensive end spot in 1996. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while recovering from 1995 post-season surgery on a dislocating right shoulder.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tellam is a good, veteran player who'll give us depth in the defensive line corps and could see action on special teams."

1995: Tellam was a reserve defensive end as a junior in 1995, but he did not see any action. Prior to the UCLA game, he had surgery for a dislocating right shoulder and was sidelined.

1994: As a sophomore in 1994, Tellam was a reserve outside linebacker. He didn't get any action at that position in 1994, but appeared in 11 games (all but the Stanford contest) on special teams. He had 1 tackle in 1994. He made a key "heads-up" play on a surprise pooched kickoff by Arizona late in the second quarter with the Wildcats leading 14-7, as he called a fair catch and the Trojans took over on the USC 47, leading to a TD 7 plays later.

1993: Tellam was a redshirt freshman reserve outside linebacker who did not see any action in 1993.

1992: Tellam redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1992, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a senior middle linebacker in 1991 at Sabino High in Tucson (Ariz.), Tellam had 155 tackles, including 71 unassisted tackles and 4 sacks. As a result, he won Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-State first team, All-Sonoran League first team, and team MVP honors. He led the Sabercats to a 7-3 record in 1991.

Greg made 162 tackles as an outside linebacker during his 1990 junior season while leading Sabino to the state 4A title with a 14-0 record and a No. 17 ranking in the final USA Today poll. He collected 19 tackles in the state championship game against Peoria (Ariz.) High. He also had 19 tackles and an interception in the state semifinal game against Glendale (Ariz.) Cactus High. He also lettered in Sabino's track program (shot put). He was involved in the Arizona D.A.R.E. program and spoke at numerous grade schools throughout the Tucson area.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC.

DENNIS TOLBERT

Defensive End-
Defensive Tackle
6-2, 260
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: Tolbert, who earned a scholarship in 1996, is a junior reserve defensive lineman available to play end or tackle. He also is on USC's track team.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tolbert is a physical, improving player who will add depth to our defensive front."

1995: Tolbert was a walk-on sophomore defensive tackle in 1995, but he did not see any action.

1994: Tolbert was a walk-on freshman defensive tackle in 1994, but he did not see any action.

TRACK: Tolbert has thrown the discus and shot for the USC track team in 1995 and 1996. In 1996, he was in 4 meets, posting bests of 158-5 in the discus throw and 37-6 in the shot put. He competed in 2 meets in 1995, with a best of 167-10 to finish third at the Pomona-Pitzer meet, but a broken left foot sidelined him.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He spent the 1993 season at Victor Valley (Calif.) College. As a 1993 freshman, he started at defensive tackle and made 33 tackles with 4 sacks.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a senior at Rancho High in North Las Vegas (Nev.) in 1992, he made the All-Sunrise Conference first team while starting at defensive tackle (making 45 tackles) and tight end (catching 11 passes, including 1 TD). He also started as a 1991 junior.

He lettered in track for 4 years as a discus thrower, with a best of 168-0 for third place in the state meet as a senior.

PERSONAL: He was born in Bridgeton, N.J. He's majoring in religious studies and communication at USC.

RYAN TYISKA

Linebacker
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: Tyiska, a promising junior, is listed as the backup to Sammy Knight at a linebacker (rover) spot in 1996. He'll also be a key special teams performer.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Tyiska is a fast, explosive, instinctive player. He had a good spring and will help out our linebacking corps."

1995: As a 1995 sophomore, Tyiska--who was switched from safety to linebacker in 1995 spring drills--served as the backup to Scott Fields. He also played on special teams. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 13 tackles (including 4 versus San Jose State and 3 against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl) and blocked a punt (against Washington State).

1994: As a redshirt freshman reserve safety and key special teams player, Tyiska appeared in 11 games (all but the Notre Dame contest). All of his action, except against California, came on special teams. He made 2 tackles.

1993: Tyiska redshirted as a safety in 1993, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Tyiska made 1992 USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Fresno Bee Player of the Year, and North Yosemite League Defensive MVP at Clovis West High in Fresno (Calif.). In 1992, he had 8 interceptions, 11 deflections, 4 fumble recoveries and 4 forced fumbles on defense and rushed for 668 yards with 10 TDs out of the Wing T. His team went 13-0 in 1992 and won the CIF Central Section title.

He had 700 yards and 6 TDs rushing (including a 78-yarder) in 1991, plus 3 interceptions. He also played basketball, soccer and track.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. He bench presses 320 pounds. His sports hero is ex-USC and NFL star Ronnie Lott.

ANTHONY VOLSAN

Cornerback
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: Volsan, a speedy junior who also sprints for Troy's track team, was switched to cornerback (from wide receiver) prior to 1996 spring practice and will add depth to USC's secondary in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We moved Volsan to the secondary to take advantage of his great speed. He took well to the position."

1995: Volsan, who was a reserve wide receiver as a 1995 sophomore, made his biggest contribution as a return specialist. He returned 12 kickoffs (tied for the team lead) for 224 yards (18.7 avg.), with a long of 39 yards versus Houston, and 2 punts for 0 yards while appearing in all 12 games in 1995. He also caught 1 pass for 11 yards (against Arizona State) and made 1 tackle (versus San Jose State) in 1995. He dislocated a finger on his left hand in 1995 fall drills. He spent most of 1995 spring practice sprinting for the USC track team.

1994: As a redshirt freshman, Volsan was a reserve wide receiver in 1994. He caught 3 passes for 26 yards (8.7 avg.) in 1994. He also was a backup returner on kickoffs and punts, as he ran back 3 kickoffs for 48 yards (16.0 avg.) and 2 punts for 16 yards (8.0 avg.). He appeared in 6 games (Baylor, California, Washington State, Arizona, UCLA and Texas Tech) in 1994.

1993: Volsan redshirted as a wide receiver in 1993, his first year at USC.

TRACK: Volsan sprinted for the USC track team in the springs of 1994, 1995 and 1996. In 1996, he competed in 6 meets and posted bests of 10.64 in the 100 meters (while placing sixth in the Pac-10 meet) and 22.20 in the 200 meters. He finished second in the 100 meters in the USC Five-Way meet (10.96). He also ran on USC's 400-meter relay squad (usually the third leg) which never finished lower than third place until placing sixth in a heat at the NCAA meet. The quartet recorded a season best of 39.69 at the USC-UCLA dual and placed second at the Pac-10 meet in 39.80.

In 1995, he had USC's best time in the 100 meters (10.56 while finishing fourth at the Pac-10 meet). He also ran a wind-aided 10.48 while winning a heat in the USC-UCLA dual. He placed in the top 4 of all 8 of his 100 meter races in 1995 (including a first in the UNLV Invitational and a second at the Mt. SAC Relays in 10.60). He also ran the 200 meters 3 times in 1995 (finishing in the top 4 each time), including winning a heat in the USC-UCLA dual in his season-best of 21.53. Volsan also ran on USC's 400-meter relay team (primarily as the leadoff runner). The quartet won 6 of 9 races, including at the Pac-10 meet in 39.23 and the USC-UCLA dual in 39.55, and placed fourth at the NCAA meet in a season-best 39.10.

In 1994, he posted season bests of 10.54 in the 100 meters and 21.27 in the 200 meters. He was second in the Pac-10 100 meters final in 10.70 (he ran his season-best 10.54 in the Pac-10 100 heats). He finished in the top 3 in 8 of his 10 100 meter races and 2 of his 3 200s. He ran under 10.70 7 times in the 100 and was under 21.60 in all 3 200 races. He also ran on USC's 400-meter relay team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Volsan was named to the 1992 Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, All-District, Central California Conference Player of the Year, and team MVP at Merced (Calif.) High. He had 1,506 yards on 167 carries (9.0 avg.) with 18 TDs rushing in 1992, plus 25 catches for 442 yards (17.7 avg.) and 2 TDs receiving. He also returned 2 punts for TDs. He had 2,630 total yards in 1992. On defense, he had an interception. In 2 games in 1992 against archrival Atwater High, he scored on Merced's first play from scrimmage (on a 57-yard pass and a 76-yard run). Against Vallejo High, he had 212 yards and 3 TDs, then added 199 yards and 2 scores against Lincoln High. Set school career records with 3,370 rushing yards and 42 rushing TDs.

In 1991, he was All-District and All-Central California Conference first team. He was the Sac-Joaquin Section Sophomore of the Year in 1990. His team was 30-11 in his 3 years (winning the league title each season), including 14-0 in 1990 (winning the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Division I title and being ranked No. 1 in the state) and 10-4 in 1992 (advancing to the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Division I championship game).

He also was a highly-regarded sprinter on the track team, with a best of 10.42 in the 100 meters and 20.8 in the 200 meters. He was named to the 1993 USA Today All-USA Boys Track and Field Team. He was third in the California state 100 and 200 in both 1992 (10.5, 21.16) and 1993 (10.52, 21.55). Merced's track team was the state co-champ in 1993.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

SHAWN WALTERS

Running Back
Sr.*/Sr.

CAREER: With 1,855 career rushing yards on 374 carries (5.0 avg) with 21 TDs, Walters ranks 14th on USC's all-time rushing list (he needs 171 yards to move into the Trojan Top 10). He was the first Trojan since Ryan Knight in 1984 and 1985 to lead USC in rushing 2 years in a row. He has a trio of 100-yard rushing games in his career, including a pair of 200-yarders.

1996: The bruising, fast Walters will regain his eligibility beginning with USC's fourth game of 1996 and the senior running back is looking to re-establish himself at tailback. He's an effective inside runner with a proven track record at USC.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Walters wants nothing more than the opportunity to re-establish himself as a great team member. He has to prove that to me and the team. In the spring, he worked hard and ran hard and started working his way back into the team's good graces. He's bigger and stronger than he's ever been. He can be a devastating power runner, but he's also an excellent breakaway back. He can attack, break tackles and make the consistent gain as well as any back."

1995: Walters appeared as a backup junior running back (tailback) in USC's first 3 games (San Jose State, Houston and Arizona) before being withheld from competition for receiving payments from an agent. In November, the NCAA stripped him of his remaining collegiate eligibility, but that sanction was reduced by the NCAA Eligibility Committee to a 1-season suspension following a December appeal. Overall in 1995 while playing in just those 3 games, he rushed for 168 yards (third on USC) on 25 carries (6.7 avg.) with 3 TDs, plus caught 2 passes for 4 yards (2.0 avg.). He had game-highs against Arizona (66 yards on 9 carries) and Houston (76 yards with an 8-yard TD on 8 carries), and had 26 rushing yards and a pair of short TDs against San Jose State.

1994: Walters looked like an old-time Trojan tailback at times in 1994 as he led USC in rushing for the second year in a row. As a sophomore, he started for his second season in 1994 and ran for 976 yards on 193 carries (5.1 avg.) with a team-best 11 TDs. That put him 22nd on USC's single season rushing chart and was the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Mazio Royster had 1,168 in 1990. His 11 rushing TDs were the most by a Trojan since Marcus Allen had 22 in 1981 in his Heisman Trophy season. He also caught 8 passes for 40 yards (5.0 avg.) in 1994, including 4 versus Oregon. Walters--a 1994 All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection--was fourth in the Pac-10 in rushing (88.7) and fifth in scoring (6.2).

At Stanford, Walters rushed for a career-high 234 yards and 2 TDs (4 and 61 yards) on 31 carries, the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Allen had 243 in 1981 against California and the most any runner had against Stanford since UCLA's Freeman McNeil had 248 in 1980. It was Walters' second 200-yard performance of 1994, the first time a Trojan did that since Allen had an NCAA-record 8 in his 1981 Heisman Trophy campaign. Shawn's 61-yard TD which proved to be the decisive score at Stanford was the longest run by a Trojan since Deon Strother went 92 yards at Cal in 1991. Against Baylor, he ran for 207 yards--tops in the nation that week--on 31 carries with 3 TDs of 39, 1 and 7 yards (he surpassed his career-high by halftime as he had 127 yards). That was the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Allen's 219 versus UCLA in 1981 and the most carries at USC since Royster had 32 against Michigan State in 1990. It was Walters' first 3-TD outing. For his performance, he was named Sports Illustrated national Offensive Player of the Week and Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Week. Walters also ran for 91 yards and a pair of second-half touchdowns (7 and 3 yards) on 26 carries against Washington in the opener, and then added 34 yards on 13 carries at Penn State. He had 78 yards on 17 carries against Oregon, plus 4 catches for 29 yards. The following week at Oregon State, despite playing with a stomach virus, he ran for 68 yards on 16 tries. Walters had a game-best 76 yards with 2 scores (9 and 2 yards) on 15 rushes against California while playing just over 2 quarters before the reserves came in. Against the nation's top rushing defense at Washington State, he had a game-best 62 yards on 18 rushes. He did not play against Arizona because of a sprained and cracked right thumb suffered in that Washington State contest and the next week he only carried the ball 3 times (for 2 yards) at UCLA. Although he didn't start against Notre Dame, he had 42 rushing yards (with a 1-yard TD) on 9 carries. He had a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl in his Dallas hometown and scored the game's first TD on an 11-yard run.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Walters was an often-used backup tailback the first half of 1993, but emerged as the starter by midseason and started the last 7 contests (Oregon State, Notre Dame, California, Stanford, Washington, UCLA, Utah). He was USC's leading rusher with 711 yards on 156 carries (4.6 avg.) and 7 TDs. He also caught 15 passes for 107 yards (7.1 avg.) with 1 TD. He was the only Trojan to rush for 100 yards in a game in 1993, getting 116 yards on 25 carries at Washington (with a 7-yard TD run). His 54-yard TD burst against Houston was the longest run by a Trojan in 1993 (he also had a 3-yard scoring run against the Cougars). He topped the Trojans in rushing in 11 games (besides the Washington game, he had 82 versus Houston, 53 against Washington State, 52 at Arizona, 67 at Oregon, 84 versus Oregon State, 58 at Notre Dame, 40 at California with scoring runs of 1 and 2 yards, 60 versus Stanford with a 2-yard TD run, 29 versus UCLA with a 1-yard TD run and 70 against Utah). He caught 5 passes for 47 yards at California and grabbed a 2-yard scoring pass at Washington.

1992: Walters redshirted as a tailback in 1992, his first season at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: After leading Lamar High in Arlington (Tex.) to a 12-1 record and the regional semifinals in 1991, Walters was named Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American second team, Dallas Morning News All-Dallas first team, and All-Tarrant County Offensive Player of the Year. He rushed for 2,091 yards on 314 carries (6.7 avg.) and 30 TDs. He set school career marks with 4,285 yards and 59 TDs, and a school game mark of 293 rushing yards.

Shawn was the Texas state rushing leader as a 1990 junior with 2,264 yards (6.9 avg.) and 32 TDs as his team was the Class 5A runnerup. In 1990, he was USA Today All-USA honorable mention, All-State, All-District, and Dallas Morning News All-Dallas first team. Lamar was 26-2 in 2 years with Walters at running back.

PERSONAL: He was born in Pine Bluff, Ark. He's a public policy and management major at USC. He bench presses 315 pounds. He likes to write poetry in his spare time. He is nicknamed "Baby Earl" because of his resemblance to ex-Texas Heisman Trophy winner and NFL star Earl Campbell.

SHAWN WALTERS ON: Atoning for his 1995 problems: "You are going to see an improved player (in 1996) because I am going to be that much more hungry. I feel that I have to clear my name as an athlete, student and person, and try to take all this frustration that has built up and take it out on the field...I'll have to work that much harder. I'll have to sit out the first 3 games, but that will just add fuel to the fire. When I finally get that first carry, I'll do whatever it takes to get the job done."

His ability: "The coaches want me to have more confidence in myself. Sometimes I'm kind of skeptical about myself. I want to help the team as much as possible, and when I think about that, I get nervous. Coach (Charles) White is a very intense guy and he's helped me a lot. He always says to die hard. He wants me to square up and run right at people. But I also have to know when to elude people to get more yardage...My theme is 'Dying hard.' To me, that means I don't want just one guy to bring me down. Be a physical player out there. It's just something personal I felt I had to work on...My attitude is such that if I miss a block in practice, I feel terrible. I want to do everything right. I'm a perfectionist. Others might tell me that I made a great move and ran a play well, but I'll always see something I could have done better. I'm my own worst critic...I'm learning how to be a runner here. In high school, I could get through the line easier because I was bigger and stronger than a lot of the other guys. I was faster than most people, so I just ran past them. But it didn't work when I tried it here. Now I'm using everything out there. If I have to run over someone, I will. But if I can outrun them, I can still do that, too...I feel I have something to prove. Everybody has kind of written off the USC tailback."

The competition at running back: "We have a lot of good running backs around here, but that just makes me more determined than ever. I feel I should take responsibility for the position. These guys are like my brothers. If I'm the one in the game and something goes wrong, I feel like I let my family down."

Writing poetry: "The first time I ever wrote poetry was for a school assignment in the ninth grade. But I really got into it as a junior in high school when one of my English teachers told me that she thought I was talented. I write poetry for my friends and family. In high school, I would write poetry for my friends who were having trouble with their girlfriends. They would give them the poems and everything would be all right. The girls never knew I was the one who actually wrote the poetry...Whenever I feel like escaping from everything, I put my thoughts down into poetry. As I write, I'm not thinking about anything by what I'm writing. I clear everything else out of my mind and concentrate on each word. I ask myself, 'What do I want to say? How do I want to say it? What's the meaning behind it?' When I'm done writing, I can focus on school, football and everything else, and things seem to get better."

Why he chose USC: "Everyone in Texas dreams of playing for the (former) Southwest Conference schools. But I wanted to see something different. My mom and dad were behind me. They made it clear it was my decision. In choosing USC, I looked at the business school. And the tradition for running the ball."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC quarterback Rob Johnson: "When he gets going, he's pretty fast. He doesn't get caught from behind very much. And I don't see too many guys wanting to step in front of him."

USC running back Delon Washington: "The only thing he doesn't have is the cuts like a slashing tailback. He's an Earl Campbell-type of back. He's not scared to run you over...He's wonderdog."

Baylor head coach Chuck Reedy (Walters rushed for 207 yards versus Baylor in 1994): "I had no idea Walters was that caliber of a player."

DELON WASHINGTON

Running Back
5-11, 200
Jr./Jr.

CAREER: Washington has 1,279 career yards on 261 carries (4.9 avg) with 7 TDs to rank tied for 36th on USC's prestigious all-time rushing ladder. He has 6 100-yard rushing games in his career.

1996: Washington, a shifty junior, returns for his second season as the starting running back in 1996. Look for this All-Pac-10 candidate to improve upon his outstanding 1995 performance. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while recovering from 1995 post-season surgery on a dislocating left shoulder. After 1996 spring practice, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage from his right knee.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Washington established himself as an outstanding player in 1995. He now has a chance to develop into a great player in 1996. He has excellent vision and balance, among the best I've seen. He's just one of those natural backs who constantly does things on the field that you can't explain. He's very special, and that goes for the way he is off the field, too."

1995: Washington was USC's leading rusher as a sophomore in 1995 (1,109 yards and 6 TDs on 236 attempts, a 4.7 avg.) while averaging 92.4 yards per game (second in the Pac-10). He was USC's first 1,000-yard rusher in a season since Mazio Royster had 1,168 in 1990 (it was the 20th time a Trojan broke the 1,000-yard barrier). Washington's 1,109 yards in 1995 ranked tied for 19th on USC's single season rushing list. He also caught 7 passes for 99 yards (14.1 avg.) in 1995. He won 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice.

He had 5 100-yard games in 1995 (including 3 in a row, versus Stanford, Oregon State and UCLA). He started the last 8 regular-season games: against Arizona State (he collected 118 yards on 25 carries, then-career highs and USC season bests), at California (upping his numbers to 135 yards on 29 tries), versus Washington State (a game-best 81 yards on 25 rushes), at Notre Dame (69 yards on 19 tries), at Washington (19 yards on 9 carries, plus 2 catches for 34 yards), versus Stanford (a new career-best 144 yards with an 8-yard TD on 22 carries), at Oregon State on his 20th birthday (another career-best 158 yards with 2 scores on 28 carries), and versus UCLA (a game-best 152 yards on a career-high 30 carries with 1 TD to win USC's Player of the Game versus UCLA Award). Although he didn't start against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl because the Trojans opened up in a no-huddle offense, he played a lot and had a team-high 51 yards on 16 carries, with a 2-yard TD late in the game to seal USC's victory. In USC's first 3 games (as a non-starter), he had a game-high 55 rushing yards on 7 carries against San Jose State, then added 64 yards on 14 tries against Houston and 63 yards (with an 18-yard TD scamper) on 12 rushes at Arizona.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Washington had an impressive start to his Trojan career. In the Washington opener (his first game at USC), the elusive tailback had a team-best 109 yards on 10 carries, including runs of 34 and 33 yards. He became the first USC true freshman ever to run for 100-plus yards in a season opener and only the fourth Trojan true frosh to eclipse 100 rushing yards in a game (Ryan Knight did it twice in 1984, Michael Harper once in 1979 and Charles White 4 times in 1976). Washington also was USC's leading rusher at Penn State, getting 44 yards and a 5-yard TD on 9 carries. Prior to the Baylor game, USC decided to withhold him from competition while questions regarding his eligibility, which was certified by the NCAA Clearinghouse, were being resolved (they were cleared up prior to the Notre Dame game, but he didn't play against the Irish). He played against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl in his Dallas hometown, getting 6 carries for 17 yards and 3 receptions for no yards before spraining his elbow. Overall in 1994, Washington had 170 yards on 25 carries (a team-best 6.8 avg.) with 1 TD, plus those 3 catches for no yardage.

HIGH SCHOOL: Washington was a member of the 1993 USA Today All-USA, Super Prep All-American and Blue Chip All-American first teams, plus Super Prep All-Texas as a senior at Kimball High in Dallas (Tex.). In 11 games in 1993, he rushed for 1,579 yards and 15 TDs on 230 carries (6.9 avg.) and caught 11 passes for 278 yards (25.3 avg.) and 3 scores.

As a junior in 1992, he was All-State honorable mention, All-District and All-Metro while running for 1,876 yards (10.5 avg.) and 29 TDs. He had 1,886 rushing yards and 17 TDs as a 1991 sophomore. He also ran track at Kimball, with bests of 10.33 in the 100 meters and 21.82 in the 200 meters.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. He bench presses 350 pounds. Football stars Jessie Armstead (ex-Miami) and Mercury Hayes (ex-Michigan) are his cousins. Delon had promised his older brother, Benny, that he would go to USC and, in fact, verbally committed to Troy 15 minutes after learning of his brother's death in a drive-by shooting on Jan. 27, 1994 (Delon has tattooed "Benny" on his left bicep in his memory).

DELON WASHINGTON ON: His 1995 season: "It was like I was a freshman again. I had to work my way back up because of the season I missed out on...I started having some doubts. I'd ask myself every day, 'Have I lost my ability to see the field, to make cuts and stuff? Could I still get around the corner?'...I was too caught up with not getting the ball into the end zone. I had to tell myself to forget about it. What happened happened, go on to the next week. I was letting the mistakes get in the way...I lost the kind of back I was. I used to be an inside-outside runner. But when I got to college, I wasn't in shape for this. I wasn't used to getting pounded on. There's no question I've lost some speed, and now I don't know whether I'm an inside runner or an outside runner. I'm sort of an off-tackle guy--just run and find a hole...Everybody would come up to me during the games (in 1995) and say, 'There's a hole here, there's a hole there.' I lost my instinct. I wasn't just going out there, listening to Coach White and playing. I started having second thoughts. Sometimes I'd see a hole and hesitate, thinking maybe I should go inside or outside instead...In high school, I used to be able to run away from defenders. Here, I had to learn how to run inside more, how to follow my blocking. I started thinking about it too much...It took me a while to bounce back from taking a hit and getting the ball again."

His deceased brother, Benny: "Benny's death has been very hard, but it really committed me. He was my main motivator...When Benny died, it was like a piece of me died, too...I thought it was the end of the world. It felt like a dream. And I just had to sit there and accept the fact he was gone...I still haven't gotten over it. I'm still sobbing...I can't understand his death. I get real mad when I think about it. How could someone do that? I'll never understand how someone could do something like that...You couldn't ask for a better brother. He was like an angel down here on earth...I think about him each and every day. It was his dream for me to play football, so he's inside of me...It was like I was his image or something. He was only 5-5, so he didn't have the size to get a college scholarship. I have more size than he did and I think he saw himself in me at times...Everything I do in a game, I do for him. Each carry, I picture him in the crowd. I hear him talking to me all day...I'd hear him yelling, 'You have to be faster than that. Faster.' He told me that I could go to college and go to the NFL. But I had to give everything I had...Everything I do great or good or better, my brother's up there saying, 'He's doing it! He's doing it!'...I haven't forgotten anything he taught me. He's with me every day, every step I take. Every day I woke up, he was there for me. I don't have him now, but I picture him walking with me to school, walking with me to class. I can hear him in my heart and right now he's as happy as he can be...Benny had lots of dreams for me and made predictions that came true. He also said I'd win the Heisman, get a degree, play in the NFL. It's up to me to accomplish those things."

His setbacks in 1994: "My mom (Delores) has always told me, 'God puts obstacles in front of you to see if you can overcome them.' So that's what I kept telling myself. I knew I was strong. I could deal with whatever He gave me...I've been through a lot in my life. A lot of people might have given up in the same situation. But when I talke to my mother, she tells me to just hang in there...I feel stronger, but I feel tired."

His abbreviated 1994 football season: "The biggest question, perhaps, was, 'Why me?' I just had to let it go and keep on living. I know there are going to be better times...I felt like I let a lot of people down because I only played in those 3 games. I think I would have had a good season. I'm just thankful that it's over with...I've got a lot to make up for, for the season I missed."

Why he chose USC: "I know this was the school my brother wanted me to go to. He thought it would be the best place for me. He didn't push me. He wanted me to make my own choice. When he got shot, I guess I just knew what to do...Benny really liked John Robinson. And he liked all those Heismans they have here."

Being coached by Charles White: "He's been through it and knows firsthand what it takes to win a Heisman. I think it's a privilege to have someone like that coach you."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC running backs coach Charles White: "Delon has an ability to glide. When he runs, it looks as if everyone else is cautiously picking his way across ice and he's the only one on skates."

USC running back Shawn Walters: "He has the best feet of anyone in college football. Give him any kind of a hole and he's out the gate. He's gone."

AARON WILLIAMS

Defensive End
6-4, 230
Fr.*/So.

1996: Just a redshirt freshman, Williams was moved to defensive end (from linebacker) prior to the start of 1996 spring practice and is listed as the backup to Willie Lowery there going into 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We think Williams has a fine future at USC. By moving him to defensive end, we can take advantage of his strength and quickness. In the spring, he really had it going. He has a chance to be a big contributor in 1996. Watch, we'll hear from him."

1995: Williams redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 1995, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1994 honors included Super Prep All-American, College Sports All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first team, and All-Bay League Defensive MVP as a senior at Leuzinger High in Lawndale (Calif.). He averaged 10 tackles a game on defense in 1994 (he had 8 sacks) and ran for 1,029 yards with 16 TDs as a fullback. Leuzinger went 9-2-1 in 1994.

As a 1993 junior, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay, and South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first teams, and was the All-Bay League Defensive MVP while making 88 tackles (8 stops per game) and 1 interception on defense and catching 14 passes for 380 yards (27.1 avg.) and 3 TDs as a tight end.

He averaged 4 tackles and had 15 catches as a 1992 sophomore while earning 1992 All-Bay League second team honors. He was a 3-year starter. He also played on the basketball and track (with a best of 171-2 in the discus throw and 55-0 in the shot put) teams at Leuzinger.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC with a B-average (2.81 GPA). He bench presses 400 pounds. He likes to write poetry. His sports hero is Junior Seau.

LaVALE WOODS

Running Back
5-7, 190
Jr.*/Sr.

1996: Woods, a small, tough and quick running back, should figure prominently in the playing rotation as a junior in 1996 as either a tailback or fullback. He makes things happen when he's on the field.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Injuries have handicapped Woods' USC career so far, but whenever he has been healthy, he has had a big impact. In the spring, he showed that he's a much improved player. He'll play a lot in 1996, and if he stays healthy, he'll have a big season. He is as competitive as any of our backs. He's very powerful and quick. He's very good at making a tackler miss him. He's a good running back and a leader by example."

1995: Woods proved to be quite effective while seeing action as a sophomore in 7 games in 1995, including USC's first 6 games (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona, Arizona State, California and Washington State) as a backup running back and on special teams. He then suffered a strained right hamstring against Washington State and was sidelined the rest of the regular season. He appeared ready to go for the UCLA game, but reinjured his hamstring in that week's practice. He returned to action against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl, even starting that game at tailback in USC's no-huddle offense (he grabbed 2 passes for 21 yards and rushed 5 times for minus 2 yards, but scored the game's first TD on a 1-yard run on Troy's opening possession) before giving way to Delon Washington. Overall in 1995, Woods rushed for 146 yards (fourth on USC) on 28 carries (5.2 avg.) with 5 TDs and caught 5 passes for 31 yards (6.2 avg.). Because of the absence of Leonard Green (injury) and Shawn Walters (ineligible) against Arizona State, California and Washington State, Woods saw action at tailback behind Washington (Woods previously had been used mainly at fullback in 1995). He responded with 62 yards and 2 short TDs (his first Trojan scores) on 7 carries versus Arizona State (he also ran in a 2-point conversion) and another 62 yards and 2 TDs (including a 19-yarder) on 9 rushes at California (he also caught 2 passes for 15 yards). He had 8 yards on 2 tries against Washington State before getting injured. His other rushing yards came against San Jose State (14 yards on 4 carries) and Houston (2 yards on 1 rush). He also made 1 tackle at Arizona.

1994: As a redshirt freshman, Woods was a reserve tailback in 1994 who spent the last part of the season as a fullback. He appeared in 8 games in 1994 (all but the Washington, Penn State, Baylor and Oregon contests) and gained 85 yards on 15 carries (5.7 avg.) overall, plus had 1 catch for 7 yards. He had 71 yards on 8 carries against California. He also played on special teams, getting 2 tackles. He missed 1994 spring practice while recovering from arthroscopic surgery to remove a bone chip in his right knee which occurred while he was practicing long jumping for the Trojan track team (the injury even slowed him during the early part of the 1994 football season).

1993: Woods redshirted as a tailback in 1993, his first year at USC. He was looking good in 1993 pre-season fall practice, but then suffered a deep sprain of his left ankle which sidelined him all year.

HIGH SCHOOL: Woods made 1992 USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention and Super Prep All-Far West at Dobson High in Mesa (Ariz.). He rushed for 1,300 yards and had 400 receiving yards in 1992, along with scoring 20 TDs.

He was named to the 1991 All-State honorable mention, All-East Valley first team, and All-Conference first team. In 1991, he rushed for 800-plus yards in 7 games (he missed 3 games with bronchitis). He also ran track.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He played the tuba as a youngster.

LaVALE WOODS ON: Being 5-7: "I'm actually 5-7 3/4."

His injuries: "It has been frustrating because of the injuries. A lot of times I just wanted to quit. Lots of people told me to keep my spirits up, to hang in there and my time will come...The track injury was a fluke and it was stupid on my part. I went out for track to do some running and get faster, but I'm so competitive that I didn't want to come in last in the 100. So, I figured in the long jump, at least I'd have a chance to do something...The injuries were tough to deal with. I kept costing the school money, that's how I looked at it. I've already used up my whole scholarship with all they've spent on me in rehab. After I got hurt the second time, I wanted to go home. I just tried to keep my head up and stay positive. I did my rehab before and after practice so I'd be out there on the field, learning from the others while watching. A lot of guys talked to me and helped me keep my head in it."

Why he chose USC: "I think it was the song! My first memories are of watching USC games on TV and loving that fight song. I used to whistle it all the time. I even played it on the tuba."

QUINCY WOODS

Quarterback
Fr.*/So.

1996: Woods, a redshirt freshman equally adept at passing and running, will battle with John Fox for the No. 3 quarterback job behind starter Brad Otton and backup Matt Koffler in 1996.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Woods is a young, athletic player who brings a lot of things to the quarterback position. He has a good future. He'll compete for the No. 3 job in 1996."

1995: Woods redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 1995, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1994 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, College Sports All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Midwest, Blue Chip All-Midwest, Detroit Free Press Best of the Midwest, Gatorade Circle of Champions Illinois MVP, Chicago Tribune All-State first team, and Chicago Area MVP as a senior at Rich East High in Park Forest (Ill.). He passed for 2,240 yards and 22 TDs with just 8 interceptions in 1994 while rushing for 700-plus yards and 7 scores.

As a 1993 junior, he threw for 2,395 yards and ran for 788 yards while scoring 13 TDs. He was a 3-year starter.

PERSONAL: His brother, Pee Wee, plays football at Oklahoma. His sports hero is Deion Sanders.

QUINCY WOODS ON: Comparisons to Rodney Peete and Charlie Ward: "Right now, I just want to prove I can play the game at this level. I don't even worry about those comparisons right now, but it is nice."

Passing versus running: "I'd rather pass for 20 yards. I just run when I have to. It's fun to run and the crowd likes it. I was a passing quarterback in high school. My senior year, all we did was pass...I'm just trying to prove I'm a quarterback and that I can pass the ball."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: He's very, very talented athletically...He handles his body so well. He is a quarterback who can make something happen because of his athletic ability. He has a quick release and he wants to be good...He is improving in the passing game. He's a very exciting athlete and is very football-aware."

JIM WREN

Punter
6-0, 215
Jr./Jr.

1996: Wren, a strong-legged junior punter, enrolled at USC in the spring of 1996 after sitting out the sport in 1995 following a fine junior college career. He'll replace record-holding John Stonehouse. He'll also be the holder on all placekicks.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Replacing John Stonehouse is no easy task, but Wren is certainly capable. He comes to USC with a good background and an impressive leg. In the spring, he showed that he's a good punter, but he needs to be more consistent."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Wren sat out the 1995 season while serving as an assistant football coach at Servite High in Anaheim (Calif.). He was a 1994 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-Region IV first team and All-Mission Conference Central Division selection as a sophomore punter at Fullerton (Calif.) College. He averaged 42.6 per punt in 1994.

As a 1993 freshman, he won All-Mission Conference Central Division honors while averaging 41.5 yards on 42 punts (1,745 yards). His career average of 42.3 at Fullerton broke the school record held by current New York Giants punter Mike Horan. Current Trojan Matt Finch also attended Fullerton.

HIGH SCHOOL: Wren prepped at Esperanza High in Anaheim (Calif.), but was limited to punting duties after dislocating his right shoulder in 1989 (he had corrective surgery following his 1992 senior season). He averaged 40.0 yards per punt as a 1992 senior (Esperanza was the CIF Division II champion) and also punted as a 1991 junior. He also played baseball at Esperanza.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC with a B average (3.02 GPA).

"Mike is poised, has a natural sense of the game, shows leadership and gets the job done by performance and example," said Helix coach Jim Arnaiz.

(70) MIKE WHITCANACK--Offensive Tackle, 6-7, 275, Fr./Fr.

He made the 1995 Super Prep All-Far West, Bluechip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest and Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 teams as a senior at Saratoga (Calif.) High, despite missing half of the 1995 season with mononucleosis. He was an offensive tackle as a senior after 2 years at defensive tackle.

He also was on Saratoga's track team (shot put and discus).

TIEBREAKER PROCEDURE

Here is the NCAA tiebreaker system, which first was put in effect for all post-season games in the 1995 season:

1. At the conclusion of a tie game, the team captains will meet at the center of the field for a coin toss. The winning captain has 2 options: a.) offense/defense or b.) choose the end of the field the first overtime period will be played. The choice may not be deferred.

2. Each overtime period consists of an offensive series by each team. A team continues on offense until it scores, loses the ball on downs, or loses possession of the ball (fumble, intercepted pass, etc.). All series begin on a 25-yard line.

3. If a team loses the ball due to a fumble, etc., the ball continues in play until the end of that down. Team B may score (the game is over) or if Team A gets the ball back during the down, it may score. If there is no score, that series is concluded. Once a series is concluded, the defensive team begins its series, or if that series was the second of that overtime period, the period is over.

4. If the teams remain tied at the end of the first overtime period, a second period is played. The loser of the overtime coin toss has first choice as outlined in No. 1 above. Thereafter, the teams alternate first choice for as many periods as needed to determine a winner.

5. Each team is allowed 1 timeout for each extra period. No unused timeout from the regular game may be carried over to an extra period, nor may an unused timeout from an extra period be carried over to a succeeding extra period.

6. Although the 25-second clock operates during overtime, the game clock does not run.

1996 SQUAD BREAKDOWNS

EXPERIENCE BREAKDOWN

Following is a breakdown of the 1996 USC football team. Players listed in CAPITAL LETTERS were 1995 starters (with number of starts in parentheses). Players with a "% (x)" were 1995 co-starters (with number of starts). Players with a "# (x)" were 1995 part-time starters (with number of starts). Players with a "*" were 1995 lettermen. Players with a "+" were spring 1996 transfers.

1995 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 -- September 9, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, San Jose State 7
Att: 50,612

San Jose State	0	0	7	0	--	7
USC	0	21	14	10	--	45

With high expectations (several pre-season publications picked USC No. 1), the Trojans (ranked seventh by AP, USA Today/CNN and UPI) got off to a good start in 1995 by manhandling San Jose State, 45-7, before 50,612 fans in the Coliseum and a live Prime Sports West audience.

USC dominated while remaining undefeated (16-0) against Big West teams (this was Troy's first meeting with the Spartans). The Trojans had more total yards (462-247) and first downs (26-13) while averaging 6.1 yards per play and converting 9-of-12 third downs. USC's offense was balanced (257 yards passing, 205 rushing).

The Trojans, who led 21-0 at halftime, ran for 4 TDs in the game--a pair of second quarter 1-yarders by RB Shawn Walters, a 1-yarder by RB Leonard Green in the second quarter, and an 8-yarder by QB Brad Otton in the third quarter. Otton, who was 14-of-20 for 182 yards, also threw a 1-yard score to TE Tyler Cashman. Otton started, but shared time with Kyle Wachholtz, who was 6-of-11 for 62 yards and also ran for 32 yards. RB Delon Washington had a game-high 55 rushing yards on 7 carries, while Green added 49 on 12 tries.

SE Keyshawn Johnson's Heisman Trophy candidacy began impressively, as he caught 8 passes for 124 yards. It was his ninth straight 100-yard receiving game (and 10th in his 12-game career).

PK Adam Abrams, in his first action as a Trojan, hit a 33-yard field goal and all 6 of his PATs.

USC's defense posted 4 sacks, let San Jose State convert just 4-of-12 third downs, allowed only 70 rushing yards (Troy allowed an average of 162.6 in 1994) and intercepted 3 passes (by CB Daylon McCutcheon, whose 35-yard return for a TD was the first scoring pick by a true freshman at Troy since Jason Oliver did it twice in 1990, CB Brian Kelly and S Jesse Davis). It was the first time since the 1990 UCLA game that 3 Trojans had thefts in a contest. CB Quincy Harrison topped USC with 8 tackles.

GAME 2 -- September 16, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, Houston 10
Att: 50,279

Houston	3	0	0	7	--	10
USC	14	7	21	3	--	45

USC (ranked fifth by USA Today/CNN and sixth by AP and UPI)--led by a personal-best 4 touchdown passes by QB Brad Otton--had an easy time in defeating Houston, 45-10, before 50,279 Coliseum fans and a live Prime Sports West audience. It was USC's 21st win in 26 tries against Southwest Conference teams and kept Trojan coach John Robinson undefeated (8-0) against the SWC.

Troy scored on its first offensive play, a 57-yard Otton bomb to WR Keyshawn Johnson, and then 3 plays into its next series, a 4-yard Otton toss to WR Chris Miller, Johnson's cousin. Johnson, who caught 8 passes for 176 yards (his 10th consecutive 100-yard game), caught a second quarter TD over a pair of Cougar defenders on a 26-yard pass from QB Kyle Wachholtz to make it 21-3 at halftime.

Otton, whose other scoring throws came in the third quarter to RB Terry Barnum (23 yards) and TE Johnny McWilliams (29), was 14-of-21 for a career-high 223 yards in 2 quarters of work. He was the first Trojan to throw 4 TDs in a game since Rob Johnson did so in 1993, also against Houston. Wachholtz, who played the second and fourth quarters for the second week in a row, went 9-of-15 for 149 yards.

USC also used all 3 of its tailbacks, with Shawn Walters rushing for a game-high 76 yards on 8 tries, including an 8-yard TD run at the end of the third period. RB Delon Washington added 64 yards on 14 carries, while RB Leonard Green had 34 yards on 5 rushes and 70 yards on 3 catches. Walk-on PK Adam Rendon, filling in for an injured Adam Abrams, hit a 26-yard field goal to close out the scoring and made good on all 6 PAT kicks (he earned Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors).

Four of USC's scoring drives lasted less than a minute-and-a-half. Although both teams ran off nearly the same number of plays (Houston had 71 to USC's 70), USC had a big statistical edge, getting more total yards (534-293) and first downs (26-18).

Troy's defense, which yielded just 90 yards on the ground, was led by DT Matt Keneley (a game-high 10 tackles, including 2 sacks), who was named the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week, S Sammy Knight (7 stops) and LB Scott Fields (6 tackles). CB Brian Kelly intercepted a pass and S Jesse Davis recovered a fumble in the end zone late in the game as USC stopped the Cougars on fourth down at the 1-yard line.

GAME 3 -- September 23, Tucson, Arizona
USC 31, Arizona 10
Att: 58,503

USC	0	14	7	10	--	31
Arizona	0	0	0	10	--	10

In its first tough test of the season, USC (ranked fifth by AP, USA Today/CNN and UPI) got its "Race for the Roses" off to an impressive start by taking apart Arizona (24th by USA Today/CNN and UPI, 25th by AP) in Tucson, 31-10, before a sellout crowd of 58,503 and a national Prime Sports TV audience.

At 3-0, USC is off to its best start since 1988. It was USC's first win in Tucson since 1989, plus Arizona's worst loss and worst home loss since 1991.

The Trojans held a 24-0 lead until late in the fourth quarter. Troy piled up 405 yards (233 passing) and 23 first downs against the remnants of Arizona's "Desert Swarm" defense which entered the contest ranked third nationally in total defense (201.3) and seventh in scoring defense (12.3). USC completed 76.9% of its passes (20-of-26) with no interceptions.

QB Kyle Wachholtz, who again played the second and fourth quarters, threw 3 TD passes: 28 yards to WR Keyshawn Johnson and 38 yards to TE Johnny McWilliams in the second quarter and an 8-yard fourth quarter toss to RB Rodney Sermons. Wachholtz was 8-of-9 for 138 yards on the night (he was named the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week), while QB Brad Otton was 12-of-17 for 95 yards in his 2 quarters of action (Otton's streak of consecutive passes without an interception extended to a Pac-10 and USC record of 150). Johnson extended his streak of 100-yard receiving games to 11 (and the 12th in his 14-game Trojan career) with 9 grabs for 112 yards.

USC's other scores came on an 18-yard third quarter run by RB Delon Washington (who gained 63 yards on 12 carries) and a 41-yard field goal by PK Adam Abrams in the final quarter. RB Shawn Walters gained a game-high 66 yards on 9 rushes.

For the third week in a row, USC's defense limited the opponent to 10 or less points. Although the Wildcats had 329 yards of total offense, 161 of that came in the final quarter against Trojan reserves when the game was out of reach. LB Errick Herrin had a game-best 9 tackles, while S Sammy Knight had 8. DE Israel Ifeanyi added 6 stops (including 2 sacks, with a deflection and a caused fumble), as did CB Daylon McCutcheon, a true freshman making his first start for an injured Brian Kelly.

USC	3	7	14	7	--	31

USC (ranked No. 4 by USA Today/CNN and UPI, No. 5 by AP) evened its all-time series record with Arizona State at 6-6 by whitewashing the Sun Devils, 31-0, in front of 52,577 Coliseum fans and a live regional ABC-TV audience.

It was USC's first shutout of 1995 and its first over ASU since 1988 (which was also the last time the Sun Devils were blanked).

Making the victory all the more impressive, USC played without 3 starters--RB Shawn Walters, LB Errick Herrin and DE Israel Ifeanyi--who were withheld from competition pending the outcome of an investigation regarding alleged payments they received from an agent.

The game was close until 18 seconds before halftime when, after a 39-yard Adam Abrams field goal in the first quarter, RB LaVale Woods scored on a 5-yard run to give USC a 10-0 lead at intermission.

Troy opened it up in the second half, as QB Brad Otton threw scoring passes to TE John Allred (18 yards, Allred's first career TD) on the opening drive of the half and to WR Keyshawn Johnson, who turned a short hitch route into a spectacular 60-yard run. Woods closed the scoring with a 7-yard run late in the fourth quarter.

Johnson had a personal-best 13 catches for 171 yards, the 12th straight game (and 13th in his 15-game USC career) over the 100-yard mark to become the sole owner of the NCAA record for consecutive 100-yard games. He was named the Sports Illustrated national Offensive Player of the Week and the Pac-10 Player of the Week. RB Delon Washington notched USC's first 100-yard rushing game of 1995 (and the second of his career) by getting 118 yards on 25 carries (the most rushes by a Trojan in 1995). Woods added 62 yards on 7 carries while scoring his first-ever TDs. Otton, again playing in the first and third quarters, was 15-of-26 for 192 yards with the pair of scores, while QB Kyle Wachholtz was 11-of-14 for 113 yards.

USC dominated the stats, getting more first downs (26-16), total yards (517-274), plays (84-67) and possession time (33:41-26:19). ASU managed just 4-of-15 third down conversions and passed for only 148 yards. S Sammy Knight had 9 tackles, while LB Scott Fields added 8 stops and an interception. S Micah Phillips also had a pick, while 3 of DT Matt Keneley's 5 tackles were for losses (including 2 sacks).

GAME 5 -- October 7, Berkeley, California
USC 26, California 16
Att: 49,000

USC	0	12	7	7	--	26
California	0	7	3	6	--	16

Playing its sloppiest game of the season to date, USC (ranked fourth by USA Today/ CNN, fifth by UPI and tied for fifth by AP) notched its smallest victory margin of 1995 to that point as it defeated California, 26-16, before 49,000 fans in Berkeley and a live regional Prime Sports audience.

Troy was penalized 15 times for 145 yards (Cal had only 5 flags) and actually trailed for the first time all season (7-6 in the second quarter, but the Trojans regained the lead on the ensuing series). But USC allowed Cal just 266 total yards (only 55 rushing), 1-of-9 third down conversions, 21:26 possession time and 56 plays while getting 3 Bear turnovers.

QB Kyle Wachholtz threw a pair of second quarter TD passes to tight ends, a 19-yarder to John Allred and a 21-yarder to Tyler Cashman, while RB LaVale Woods scored on runs of 4 and 19 yards in the second half. Wachholtz was 7-of-12 for 66 yards (fellow QB Brad Otton was 14-of-21 for 160 yards), while Woods had 62 yards on 9 carries. RB Delon Washington posted his second consecutive 100-yard rushing outing, getting 135 yards on 29 carries, both career highs and USC season bests.

WR Keyshawn Johnson had his NCAA record streak of consecutive games with 100 yards receiving snapped at 12, as he caught 5 passes for 57 yards (including a pair of fabulous grabs on Troy's third quarter clinching scoring drive).

USC gained 421 total yards on 81 plays and converted 11-of-20 third downs.

Defensively, S Sammy Knight had a team-high 6 tackles, while S Jesse Davis snatched 2 interceptions and DE Marcus Bonds had 2 sacks among his 4 stops. USC would have held Cal to 10 points but for a late 55-yard scoring punt return by Na'il Benjamin.

GAME 6 -- October 14, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 26, Washington State 14
Att: 51,131

Wash. State	0	0	7	7	--	14
USC	3	16	7	0	--	26

In a game between teams unbeaten in Pac-10 play, No. 5 (AP, USA Today/CNN, and UPI) USC defeated Washington State, 26-14, before 51,131 Coliseum fans and a live regional ABC-TV audience. It was Troy's eighth consecutive win over the Cougars.

The Trojans used a number of big plays to lead 26-0 early in the third quarter. Up 3-0 on a 36-yard first quarter field goal by PK Adam Rendon, WR Larry Parker returned a WSU punt 63 yards early in the second quarter before fumbling inside the Cougar 5-yard line, but WR Mike Bastianelli recovered it in the end zone for a TD (Parker was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week). Then, after S Jesse Davis intercepted a pass off a lateral on WSU's next series, the Trojans marched 96 yards for another TD, this one coming on an 8-yard pass from QB Kyle Wachholtz to TE Johnny McWilliams. On the Cougars' ensuing possession, Troy recorded a safety (its first since 1992) when WSU QB Chad Davis was called for intentionally grounding out of his end zone.

The Trojans finished their scoring on their first series after halftime when, on fourth-and-one, QB Brad Otton hit TE Tyler Cashman for a 40-yard TD.

USC had 313 yards of total offense (220 passing), while WSU had 279 (236 passing, all by QB Chad Davis on his 30-of-48 line), including 218 in the second half. Troy had an uncharacteristic 2 turnovers (USC had just 1 coming in), including an Otton interception to snap his Pac-10 streak of consecutive pass without a theft at 216. Otton was 14-of-24 for 130 yards, while Wachholtz was 9-of-16 for 90 yards. WR Keyshawn Johnson caught 9 passes for 85 yards, while Parker had a career-best 6 grabs for 41 yards. RB Delon Washington had a game-high 81 rushing yards on 25 carries.

The Trojan defense gave up just 43 rushing yards, its best outing since Oregon ran for minus 10 in 1989, and repelled WSU on a pair of fourth down plays in USC territory in the fourth quarter. USC posted 14 tackles for losses, including 3 sacks, with DT Darrell Russell leading the way with 5 tackles for losses of 24 yards (including 2 sacks for minus 12) among his 6 stops (all unassisted). LB Scott Fields led USC with 9 tackles and CB Daylon McCutcheon had 8, while CB Brian Kelly also had an interception.

GAME 7 -- October 21, South Bend, Indiana
Notre Dame 38, USC 10
Att: 59,075

USC	0	7	3	0	--	10
Notre Dame	6	15	0	17	--	38

Fifth-ranked (AP, USA Today/CNN and UPI) USC suffered its first loss of the season and failed to defeat Notre Dame for the 13th year in a row, losing to the underdog Irish (No. 17 by AP, No. 19 UPI, No. 22 by USA Today/CNN), 38-10, in front of a soldout crowd of 59,075 in cold, rainy South Bend and a national NBC-TV audience.

It was the most points scored on USC in 1995 and snapped Troy's 7-game winning streak (and 8-game unbeaten string).

It was a case of missed opportunities, as USC got inside the Notre Dame 10-yard line 4 times, but came away with only a field goal (Troy fumbled twice and ran out of time at the end of the half), and the Trojans also had a scoring punt return called back because of a penalty. USC also had 4 turnovers (Troy had only 3 coming into the game) and gave up 4 rushing touchdowns (USC allowed just 3 prior to the contest) as the Irish ran for 191 yards on 56 carries.

Although the total yardage was nearly equal (ND held a 380-379 edge), the Irish had more plays (85-69) and held the ball longer (35:11-24:49) while converting 15-of-20 third downs.

USC's only scores followed ND turnovers: WR Keyshawn Johnson caught a 17-yard pass from QB Kyle Wachholtz in the second quarter after S Jesse Davis caused and recovered a fumbled punt and PK Adam Rendon hit a 25-yard third quarter field goal after CB Quincy Harrison intercepted a pass.

Notre Dame led 21-7 at intermission on 3 short scoring runs, 2 by FB Marc Edwards and the other by TB Autry Denson. The Irish scored again in the final quarter on a safety when Wachholtz was sacked in the end zone, a 2-yard pass from QB Ron Powlus to TE Pete Chryplewicz, and another short run by Edwards.

For USC, Johnson had 6 catches for 122 yards, his 14th career 100-yard game. Wachholtz was 14-of-23 for 168 yards with an interception, while QB Brad Otton was 8-of-17 for 110 yards and a pick. RB Delon Washington had 69 yards on 19 carries as USC ran for only 101 yards.

For the Irish, Powlus was 18-of-29 for 189 yards, while Denson ran for 95 yards on 27 attempts and Edwards added 82 yards on 17 tries and caught 4 passes for 30 yards.

LB Brian Haas had a game-high 13 tackles and LB Scott Fields added 10. Suspended DE Israel Ifeanyi played after obtaining a temporary restraining order.

GAME 8 -- October 28, Seattle, Washington
USC 21, Washington 21
Att: 74,421

USC	0	0	0	21	--	21
Washington	3	10	8	0	--	21

Scoring all 21 points in the fourth quarter, USC (ranked 10th by USA Today/CNN, 12th by UPI and 13th by AP) kept hold of the inside track in the Rose Bowl race as it tied Washington (17th by AP and UPI, 19th by USA Today/CNN), 21-21, in Seattle before the largest crowd in series history (74,421) and an ABC-TV regional audience. It was the first tie in the series since 1961.

After being dominated for the first 3 quarters, the Trojans came alive in the final period. First, RB Rodney Sermons ran for a 1-yard score 3 seconds into the quarter. Two USC series later, TB Terry Barnum caught a swing pass from QB Brad Otton and scooted for a 16-yard TD. After holding the Huskies on their next possession, USC took over on its own 21-yard line with 2:18 to play and marched 13 plays all the way to the end zone, scoring on a 2-yard Otton pass to TE Johnny McWilliams with 33 seconds to go.

Until the fourth quarter, USC struggled on both sides of the ball as the Huskies built up their lead on a pair of TD runs by TB Leon Neal (3 and 46 yards, the longest scrimmage play against Troy in 1995) and field goals by PK John Wales (23 and 31 yards).

Overall, Washington had more possession time (37:30-22:30), total yards (412-358), plays (72-67) and first downs (19-17). But in the fourth quarter when it counted, the Huskies never crossed midfield in 4 drives, accumulating just 14 total yards and 3 first downs.

In the game, USC ran for just 50 yards (its fewest since getting 31 against Oregon in 1994), had 13 penalties for minus 100 yards, crossed midfield on only 1 play until midway through the third quarter, had just 66 total yards in the first half and turned the ball over twice.

For the first time in 1995, Otton--who was 21-of-36 for 251 yards (all career highs)--played the fourth quarter instead of QB Kyle Wachholtz, who was 5-of-8 for 57 yards while seeing action in just the second quarter. In that final period, Otton was 13-of-22 for 137 yards and the 2 TD tosses. WR Keyshawn Johnson had his 15th career 100-yard receiving game, getting a game-high 8 catches for 111 yards. Barnum added 7 catches for 72 yards.

Neal had 152 yards on 31 carries (Washington had 203 rushing yards) and QB Damon Huard was 17-of-25 for 209 yards.

LB Scott Fields had a game-high 12 tackles, S Sammy Knight added 11 and DT Matt Keneley had 9 (including 3 for losses).

GAME 9 -- November 4, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 31, Stanford 30
Att: 62,368

Stanford	13	11	0	6	--	30
USC	0	17	0	14	--	31

For the second week in a row, USC (ranked 11th by USA Today, 13th by UPI and 14th by AP) overcame a big deficit, this time barely edging Stanford in a wild finish, 31-30, before a Homecoming crowd of 62,368 in the Coliseum and an ABC-TV regional audience.

The victory put USC--which trailed 16-0 in the second quarter--1 win away from clinching a Rose Bowl berth and gave Stanford its first loss in 5 road contests in 1995.

USC WR Keyshawn Johnson, held in check most of the game (he had just 4 catches for 69 yards, plus 30 yards on a reverse), caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from QB Kyle Wachholtz with 39 seconds to play as the Trojans drove 80 yards in 2:18. Johnson, who for the second consecutive week played deep safety for the game's final 2 plays, then knocked down Stanford's Hail Mary pass at the USC 1-yard line at the gun.

The Cardinal jumped ahead by 16 on a trio of PK Eric Abrams' field goals and a 60-yard TD pass off a fake reverse from QB Mark Butterfield to WR Mark Harris. Then USC got it going, as RB Delon Washington had an 8-yard scoring run, PK Adam Rendon hit a 36-yard field goal and, after Stanford scored on a 1-yard run by FB Adam Salina, RB Rodney Sermons ran for a 2-yard TD with 10 seconds to go in the half as the Trojans pulled within 24-17.

After a scoreless third quarter, USC took its first lead (25-24) on a 1-yard scoring run by Sermons and a 2-point conversion pass from Wachholtz to WR Chris Miller with 7:18 to play. But the Cardinal marched 80 yards right back down the field to retake the lead (30-25) on a 6-yard run by FB Greg Comella with 2:57 left (the 2-point try failed), setting up USC's decisive possession.

USC gained 468 total yards (232 rushing, its most since getting 266 against the Cardinal in 1995) to Stanford's 462, but Troy was plagued by mistakes, including 2 interceptions and a lost fumble (2 turnovers came inside the Stanford 25-yard line in the second half), plus a blocked punt which set up the Cardinal's first TD.

Wachholtz was 15-of-28 for 198 yards (all career bests) while playing the last 3 quarters because starting QB Brad Otton suffered a mild concussion. Washington had his fourth career 100-yard rushing game (third of 1995), getting 144 yards on 22 carries. Butterfield was 29-of-47 for 345 yards and Harris had 10 catches for 187 yards.

USC S Sammy Knight posted a game-high 14 tackles and 3 deflections, while LB Errick Herrin added 12 stops. Herrin and DE Israel Ifeanyi played after serving their NCAA suspensions.

GAME 10 -- November 11, Corvallis, Oregon
USC 28, Oregon State 10
Att: 21,851

USC	7	14	0	7	--	28
Oregon State	0	0	3	7	--	10

USC (ranked 10th by USA Today/CNN, 11th by UPI and 12th by AP) clinched its 28th berth to the Rose Bowl--its first since the 1989 season--with a 29-10 win over Oregon State before 21,851 fans in Corvallis and a national Prime Sports cable audience.

It was Troy's 22nd consecutive win over the Beavers.

RB Delon Washington, celebrating his 20th birthday, had a career-high in rushing yards for the second straight week (158 on 28 carries), his fourth 100-yard game of 1995 (and fifth of his career). He ran for a pair of touchdowns (9 yards in the first quarter and 1 yard in the fourth quarter).

QB Kyle Wachholtz played the entire contest (his first career start) as regular starting QB Brad Otton was held out while still feeling the effects of a mild concussion he suffered the previous week. Wachholtz completed a career-high 16 passes on 26 attempts for 154 yards with 2 TDs (a 19-yarder to RB Terry Barnum and a 1-yarder to TE Tyler Cashman, both in the second quarter).

WR Keyshawn Johnson caught 8 passes for 75 yards, tying the Pac-10 season record for receptions (78).

USC, which led 21-0 at halftime, outdistanced Oregon State in total yards (338-267), plays (73-62) and possession time (33:45-26:15). All but 29 of OSU's yards came on the ground via its option attack, including 100 by FB J.D. Stewart on 12 carries (including a 1-yard TD in the fourth quarter).

USC's defense recovered 2 of the Beavers' 5 fumbles, 1 by LB Errick Herrin (he also caused it) at the Trojan 3-yard line in the second quarter with Troy leading just 7-0 and the other by S Micah Phillips (it was forced by DE Marcus Bonds) at the OSU 20 which led to Cashman's score.

GAME 11 -- November 18, Los Angeles Coliseum
UCLA 24, USC 20
Att: 91,363

UCLA	14	7	0	3	--	24
USC	0	7	0	13	--	20

For the fifth year in a row, UCLA beat USC, this time 24-20 before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 91,363 and a regional ABC-TV audience.

It marked the longest winning streak in the series by either team and gave Bruin coach Terry Donahue a record 98th Pac-10 win. The Bruins, a 7-point underdog, landed an Aloha Bowl berth.

USC (ranked 11th by AP, USA Today/CNN and UPI) fell behind 21-0 early in the second quarter and couldn't recover despite big performances by WR Keyshawn Johnson and RB Delon Washington.

The Bruins--playing without injured star TB Karim Abdul-Jabbar--scored on the game's opening drive, culminating on a 1-yard run TD run by TB James Milliner. They scored again on their next possession, with FB Cheyane Caldwell getting a 1-yard TD run the play after QB Cade McNown hit SE Jim McElroy for 59 yards. After USC missed a 23-yard field goal on its next possession, UCLA scored on a trick play as McElroy threw a 35-yard TD pass off a reverse to FL Kevin Jordan.

Troy closed the gap to 21-14 on a 5-yard scoring toss from QB Brad Otton to TE Johnny McWilliams late in the second quarter and 2-yard Washington run at the start of the fourth quarter. UCLA answered with a 38-yard field goal by PK Greg Adrasick. USC then went on a 20-play, 82-yard drive that took up 9:08 as Otton threw a 1-yard scoring pass to TE Tyler Cashman with 3:30 to play, but the Trojans couldn't get the ball back.

Besides the missed field goal, USC lost 2 fumbles, including 1 at the Bruin 23-yard line early in the third quarter.

Johnson set Pac-10 and USC season reception records (90) as he grabbed a game-high 12 passes for 116 yards, his 16th 100-yard outing as a Trojan (and seventh of 1995). Washington became the first Trojan since Mazio Royster in 1990 to top 1,000 rushing yards (it was the 20th time a Trojan broke the 1,000-yard barrier) as he ran for a game-best 152 yards on a career-high 30 carries (his third consecutive 100-yard game, fifth of 1995 and sixth of his career). Otton, who played the last 3 quarters, was 17-of-23 for 151 yards.

For UCLA, which rushed for 216 yards, Milliner gained 74 yards on 13 tries and Derek Ayers, converted from flanker to tailback, added 69 yards on 18 carries. McNown was 8-of-17 for 131 yards and he also had a key 21-yard run on third down on UCLA's final possession.

S Sammy Knight led USC with 10 tackles (including 2 for losses), while CBs Daylon McCutcheon and Quincy Harrison intercepted passes.

Rose Bowl
USC 41, Northwestern 32
Att: 100,102

USC	7	17	7	10	--	41
Northwestern	7	3	16	6	--	32

Behind the stellar play of WR Keyshawn Johnson and QB Brad Otton, USC (ranked 15th by UPI and 17th by USA Today/CNN and AP) put an end to No. 3-ranked Northwestern's Cinderella season with an exciting 41-32 Rose Bowl win before a sellout crowd of 100,102 and a national ABC-TV audience.

It was the 50th anniversary of the Pac-10/Big Ten agreement in the Rose Bowl.

It was USC's 20th victory in its unprecedented 28th trip to Pasadena (but its first since the 1990 game) and Troy's first win over a Top 3 team since defeating Michigan in that 1990 Rose Bowl, while Northwestern--having its first winning season since 1971 (the Wildcats came in with a 10-1 record)--was playing in only its second-ever bowl (its first since winning the 1949 Rose Bowl). It also gave USC coach John Robinson a 4-0 Rose Bowl record (and 7-1 in all bowls).

The Trojans jumped off to a quick start, driving 83 yards with the opening kickoff while using a no-huddle offense as RB LaVale Woods scored on a 1-yard plunge. But Northwestern answered on its first possession, as RB Darnell Autry ran 3 yards for a TD to cap a 68-yard drive.

USC then scored 17 unanswered second quarter points: a scrambling 21-yard TD pass from Otton to RB Terry Barnum, a 30-yard field goal by PK Adam Abrams and, on Northwestern's next possession, CB Daylon McCutcheon's 53-yard fumble return after S Sammy Knight knocked the ball loose from Wildcat WR Brian Musso. Northwestern got a 29-yard field goal from PK Brian Gowins with 2 seconds to go in the half following a Trojan fumble, but Troy led 24-10 at intermission (it was USC's most first half points since scoring 34 against Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl).

The Wildcats then scored on their first 4 possessions of the second half: another Gowins field goal (this one from 28 yards), a 9-yard Autry run (after Northwestern recovered a surprise on-side kick), a 1-yard sneak by QB Steve Schnur (which followed a 56-yard Trojan scoring strike from Otton to Johnson), and a 2-yard Autry run early in the fourth quarter that gave Northwestern its first lead of the day, 32-31.

But USC came right back, getting a 46-yard Abrams field goal (the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl). S Jesse Davis then sealed the victory for USC with an interception which led to a 5-yard TD by RB Delon Washington.

Johnson, who served as a Trojan ballboy at the 1985 Rose Bowl, was named the Rose Bowl MVP, as he grabbed 12 passes (all for first downs) for a Rose Bowl record 216 yards (his 17th 100-yard outing in his career and the eighth of 1995). Otton played the entire game for the first time in the 1995 season, hitting 29-of 44 passes for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs and no interceptions; the yardage was 1 yard shy of Rob Johnson's USC record and was the third most in Rose Bowl history.

Autry had his 13th consecutive 100-yard rushing game, getting 110 yards on 32 carries with the 3 TDs, while Schnur was 23-of-39 for a career-best 336 yards (including 7 completions for 145 yards to WR D'Wayne Bates).

Northwestern outgained USC in total yards, 475-520, and limited Troy to just 29 rushing yards (its fewest since getting 7 yards against UCLA in 1993), but the Wildcats' uncharacteristic 2 turnovers led to 14 Trojan points, proving costly to a team which was third nationally in turnover margin (1.82). The Wildcats also had a TD pass called back because of a penalty late in the game and missed 2 field goals, including a 49-yard attempt that hit the upright with 35 seconds to go. USC, on the other hand, had 11 penalties (including 9 in the second half).

Trojan CB Brian Kelly had a game-high 11 tackles (along with 2 deflections), while Knight and LB Scott Fields added 7 stops each.

USC'S RECORD AGAINST CONFERENCE FOES

The information in this opponents' year-by-year section is, reading from left to right: (1) year; (2) date (with "Th" indicating a game played on Thanksgiving Day); (3) AP ranking going into the game, with USC's given first, and USC's opponent's given second; (4) other miscellaneous information ("N" for night game if contest began after 5:00 p.m. local time, "U" for upset if the result was considered a significant upset, time remaining in the game if a late score resulted in a win or tie, and weather conditions, with "R" indicating most of the game was played in the rain and "Sn" indicating most of the game was played in snow conditions); (5) game result (W, L or T); (6) game score, with USC's given first; (7) game site (home, away or neutral); and (8) attendance. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

Records include games played by USC at site when USC was not the designated home team.

USC totals include all games played on campus, including games played at Bovard Field.

Rose Bowl totals include games played against UCLA.

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888.

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes at the end. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938---USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939-- USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 13 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969--USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1969--USC 14, UCLA 12. Jimmy Jones hit Sam Dickerson with a 32-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone with 1:32 left, putting USC in the Rose Bowl.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974--USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. Then Shelton Diggs grabbed the subsequent 2-point conversion pass from Haden for the victory, which wrapped up a national championship for USC.

1977--USC 29, UCLA 27. Frank Jordan kicked a 38-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining, knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1978--USC 27, Notre Dame 25. A year after his late game-winner against UCLA, Frank Jordan kicked a nearly-identical 37-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining to beat Notre Dame.

1979--USC 17, LSU 12. Kevin Williams caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from Paul McDonald with 32 seconds to play.

1979--USC 17, Ohio State 16 (1980 Rose Bowl). Charles White scored on a 1-yard run with 1:32 remaining. USC drove 83 yards in 8 plays on the winning drive, with White carrying 6 times for 71 yards.

1980--USC 20, Tennessee 17. Eric Hipp kicked a victorious 47-yard field goal with 0:00 left.

1981--USC 28, Oklahoma 24. Fred Cornwell caught a 7-yard TD pass from John Mazur with 2 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC the win over No. 2 Oklahoma.

1981--USC 14, Notre Dame 7. Todd Spencer ran 26 yards for the game-winning TD with 4:52 to play.

1981--USC 22, UCLA 21. George Achica broke through the line on the final play of the game to block Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal try, preserving the win and knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1982--USC 17, Notre Dame 13. Michael Harper, fumbling as he dove over the goal line, scored on a controversial winning 1-yard run with 48 seconds to play. It was coach John Robinson's last game of his first tenure at USC.

1983--USC 19, Florida 19. Timmie Ware caught a 25-yard pass from Sean Salisbury with no time on the clock, but USC botched the extra point attempt as coach Ted Tollner's debut ended in a tie.

1985--USC 17, UCLA 13. Rodney Peete scored the winning points on a 1-yard sneak at 1:13 to go.

1986--USC 17, Baylor 14. Don Shafer kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in a driving rainstorm with 0:00 on the clock.

1987--USC 12, Arizona 10. Quin Rodriguez kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, his fourth three-pointer of the game.

1987--USC 17, UCLA 13. Erik Affholter made a juggling, corner-of-the-end zone 33-yard TD catch of a Rodney Peete pass with 7:59 to play in the game, bringing USC all the way back from a 13-0 third quarter deficit. The win put USC in the Rose Bowl.

1988-USC 24, Stanford 20. John Jackson caught a game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Rodney Peete with 1:19 remaining. USC trailed, 13-0, in the second quarter.

1989--USC 18, Washington State 17. Known as "The Drive," Todd Marinovich guided USC 91 yards in 18 plays (all through the air) with 3:31 remaining, culminating with a 2-yard TD pass to Ricky Ervins with 4 seconds to play. Marinovich then hit Gary Wellman for the winning 2-point conversion.

1989--USC 10, UCLA 10. A 54-yard field goal try by UCLA's Alfredo Velasco with 2 seconds to play hit the crossbar and bounced away, preserving the tie.

1989--USC 17, Michigan 10 (1990 Rose Bowl). Rose Bowl MVP Ricky Ervins ran 14 yards for the winning TD with 1:10 to play to cap a 75-yard drive.

1990--USC 35, Ohio State 26. The second half was played in heavy rain with thunder and lightning, getting so bad that officials suspended the game with 2:36 to play after USC recovered an onside kick.

1990--USC 31, California 31. Cal's Robbie Keen missed a 43-yard field goal try with 4 seconds remaining, ending the game in a tie.

1990--USC 45, UCLA 42. In the highest-scoring and perhaps most thrilling USC-UCLA game, Todd Marinovich threw a game-winning 23-yard TD pass to Johnnie Morton with 16 seconds left. The contest featured a 42-point fourth quarter (including 3 TD's in the final 3:09) with 4 lead changes. Morton also caught a 21-yard scoring TD from Marinovich with 3:09 to play to give USC a short-lived 38-35 lead, but Kevin Smith scored on a 1-yard run with 1:19 to go to put the Bruins up 42-38.

1992--USC 31, San Diego State 31. San Diego State's Andy Trakas missed 2 field goals (30 and 55 yards) in the last 0:54 to allow USC to hold onto the tie.

1992--USC 27, California 24. Down 24-13, Estrus Crayton scored twice in the final 5:45 on 2- and 1-yard runs, the second with 2:27 to play to give USC the win. Brian Williams' interception with 2:19 to go sealed Troy's victory.

1995--USC 21, Washington 21. Down 21-0 going into the fourth quarter, USC scored 3 touchdowns, the last a 2-yard pass from Brad Otton to Johnny McWilliams with 33 seconds to go (Adam Rendon's PAT tied it), thus allowing the Trojans to keep hold of the inside track in the Rose Bowl race.

1995--USC 31, Stanford 30. A week after the dramatic Washington tie, USC--behind 16-0 in the second quarter--scored with 39 seconds to play on an 8-yard Kyle Wachholtz pass to Keyshawn Johnson, who then came in as a safety on defense and knocked down a Hail Mary pass at the goal line at the gun.

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1977 Alabama game (under pressure from Alabama's Wayne Hamilton,Rob Hertel's 2-point conversion pass to Mosi Tatupu with 35 seconds to play was intercepted by Barry Krauss, sealing the Tide's 21-20 victory), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; USC's Cole Ford barely missed a 45-yard field goal at the gun), the 1992 UCLA game (UCLA came back from a 31-17 fourth quarter deficit to go ahead 38-31, only to see Rob Johnson score on a 1-yard sneak with 41 seconds to play, but Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Yonnie Jackson was deflected by Bruin Nkosi Littleton), the 1993 Penn State game (Rob Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Johnny McWilliams with 37 seconds to go fell bounced incomplete, allowing the Nittany Lions to hold on to a 21-20 win), and the 1993 UCLA game (a win or tie would put USC in the Rose Bowl, but Rob Johnson's 3-yard, third-down pass with 56 seconds to play to Tyler Cashman was intercepted in the end zone by Bruin Marvin Goodwin to preserve UCLA's 27-21 victory).

"THE COMEBACK"

1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy missed the 2-point conversion) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added receiver Johnny McKay, son of USC coach John McKay, right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed the Buckeyes, 17-10, with just minutes left to play. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and he followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's fourth highest bowl winning percentage (.658) among the 50 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind only Oklahoma State's .750, Georgia Tech's .680 and Florida State's .667). In the prestigious group of 8 schools that have played in 30 or more bowl games, Troy has the highest winning percentage of all. USC is just 2 wins behind Alabama for most bowl victories, 27 to 25. Troy's 38 bowl appearances rank behind only Alabama (47). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (USC did it in the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 25-13. The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 28 Rose Bowls, where it has a 20-8 mark. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 7 of its last 9 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 9 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, John Hancock Bowl, Freedom Bowl (twice) and Cotton Bowl.

ROSE BOWL

USC BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

1923 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Penn State 3

In the first Rose Bowl game played in the present Rose Bowl stadium, USC, a substitute Western entry for California, which had declined the invitation, defeated Penn State, 14-3. USC's first touchdown was set up by Harold Galloway, who caught a pass while flat on his back at the two-yard line. Penn State arrived at the game 45 minutes late after being caught in a traffic jam, and the game concluded in moonlight as sportswriters had to strike matches to complete their stories.

USC	0	7	7	0	-- 14
Penn State	3	0	0	0	-- 3

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Campbell, Baker. PAT, Hawkins (2).
Penn State--Field Goal, Palm.

Attendance: 43,000 Date: Jan. 1

1924 Christmas Festival: USC 20, Missouri 7

Played on Christmas Day in the Coliseum, USC posted one of its biggest wins in its early history, 20-7 over Missouri. The Trojans stopped the Tigers early, then dominated the latter part of the contest, with Hayden Pythian, Wallace Newman and Henry Lefebvre starring.

Missouri	0	0	0	7	-- 7
USC	0	0	20	0	-- 20

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Lefebvre, Badgro, Pythian. PAT, Hawkins (2).
Missouri--Touchdown, Walsh. PAT, Unknown.

Attendance: 47,000 Date: Dec. 25

1930 Rose Bowl: USC 47, Pittsburgh 14

Quarterbacks Russ Saunders and Marshall Duffield combined to pass for 279 yards and four touchdowns to lead Coach Howard Jones' first USC Rose Bowl team past Pittsburgh, 47-14. Saunders' first three passes went for touchdowns, two to Trojan end Harry Edelson. USC built a 26-0 halftime lead in coasting to the triumph.

USC	13	13	14	7	-- 47
Pittsburgh	0	0	7	7	-- 14

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Edelson (2), Duffield (2), Pinckert, Saunders, Wilcox. PAT, Shaver (2), Baker (2), Duffield.
Pittsburgh--Touchdowns, Walinchus, Collins. PAT, Parkinson (2).

Attendance: 72,000 Date: Jan. 1

1932 Rose Bowl: USC 21, Tulane 12

Erny Pinckert ran for touchdowns of 25 and 30 yards to lead USC's Thundering Herd to a 21-0 halftime lead, and the Trojans held off Bernie Bierman's Tulane team in the second half for a 21-12 victory. Six USC players on that team were named All-American during their college careers.

USC	0	7	14	0	-- 21
Tulane	0	0	6	6	-- 12

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Sparling, Pinckert (2). PAT, Baker (3).
Tulane--Touchdowns, Haynes, Glover.

Attendance: 75,562 Date: Jan. 1

1933 Rose Bowl: USC 35, Pittsburgh 0

Quarterback Cotton Warburton scored two touchdowns as USC wore down a lighter Pittsburgh team for a 35-0 win. Warburton, a 145-pounder who went on to become one of the Trojans' greatest backs, broke the game open in the second half.

USC	7	0	7	21	-- 35

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Palmer, Griffith, Warburton (2), Barber. PAT, Smith (4), Lady.

Attendance: 78,874 Date: Jan. 2

1939 Rose Bowl: USC 7, Duke 3

A fourth-string quarterback, Doyle Nave, who had played only 281/2 minutes all year, came off the bench to fire four straight passes to second team end Al Krueger, the last a 19-yard touchdown aerial, in the last two minutes to edge Duke, 7-3. Those were the only points scored on previously undefeated Duke all season.

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Schindler, Krueger. PAT, Jones, Gaspar.

Attendance: 92,200 Date: Jan. 1

1944 Rose Bowl: USC 29, Washington 0

In the only Rose Bowl game which was not intersectional (because of wartime travel restrictions), USC raced past Washington, 29-0. Quarterback Jim Hardy led the Trojans, throwing three touchdown passes. Washington entered the game as a strong favorite.

USC	0	7	13	9	-- 29

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, G. Callanan (2). G. Gray (2). PAT, Jamison (3). Safety, Planck blocked Austin's punt which was recovered in end zone by Washington.

Attendance: 68,000 Date: Jan. 1

1945 Rose Bowl: USC 25, Tennessee 0

Quarterback Jim Hardy passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third as USC defeated Tennessee, 25-0. Hardy thus in two games threw for five touchdowns and scored a sixth. Tennessee fielded a predominantly freshman team.

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, J. Callanan, Salata, J. Hardy, MacLachlan. PAT, West.

Attendance: 91,000 Date: Jan. 1

1946 Rose Bowl: Alabama 34, USC 14

Harry Gilmer, known more as a passer, ran for 113 yards while Alabama's defense choked off USC to give the Crimson Tide a 34-14 victory. Alabama allowed USC just six yards of rushing and 35 passing. It was USC's first loss in the Rose Bowl following eight victories.

Alabama	7	13	7	7	-- 34
USC	0	0	0	14	-- 14

Scoring: Alabama--Touchdowns, Self (2), Gilmer, Tew, Hodges. PAT, Morrow (4).

1975 Liberty Bowl: USC 20, Texas A&M 0

In coach John McKay's final game at USC, his Trojans shook off a four-game losing streak and surprised favored Texas A&M in Memphis, 20-0. USC's defense came up with many big plays, while the offense was able to move against the nationally-ranked Aggie defense. Vince Evans threw a 65-yard bomb to Randy Simmrin to set up one touchdown and Liberty Bowl MVP Ricky Bell ran 76 yards with a screen pass for another TD.

USC	3	17	0	0	-- 20

1977 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Michigan 6

After an opening game loss, USC won its 11th-straight game by grinding out a 14-6 win over Michigan. Michigan's Rob Lytle opened the scoring with a one-yard plunge, but Trojan quarterback Vince Evans got that back with a one-yard rollout. Freshman tailback Charles White, filling in for the injured Ricky Bell, rushed for 122 yards, including a seven-yard scoring jaunt that closed out the scoring for USC. John Robinson became only the second rookie coach from the Pac-8 to capture a Rose Bowl.

1979 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

In a tough defensive struggle, the Pac-10 ran its victory string to five in a row as USC outlasted Michigan 17-10. Trojan tailback Charles White rushed for 99 yards and scored what proved to be the decisive touchdown on a disputed three-yard plunge in the second quarter. Michigan quarterback Rick Leach almost brought the Wolverines back from a 14-point halftime deficit by completing eight of 11 second-half passes, including a 44-yard scoring bomb to Roosevelt Smith. White and Leach shared Player of the Game honors.

1980 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Ohio State 16

USC's Heisman Trophy winning tailback Charles White stole the show as he led the Trojans to a come-from-behind win in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. White, named Player of the Game for the second straight year, rushed for a Rose Bowl record 247 yards, including a one-yard touchdown dive with 1:32 remaining in the game that gave USC the win. The Trojans jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, but Ohio State came back to take a 16-10 lead in the fourth quarter. Then White took over. With 5:21 remaining in the game, the Trojans got the ball on their own 17-yard line. USC marched 83 yards in eight plays, all on the ground. On the winning drive, White carried six times for 71 yards.

1982 Fiesta Bowl: Penn State 26, USC 10

Penn State's fine defense and key Trojan miscues led to USC's first non-Rose Bowl post-season defeat, 26-10. Marcus Allen, who was held to 85 yards, fumbled away the ball on USC's first possession and the Lions' Curt Warner, who gained 145 yards, went in to score several plays later. USC's only touchdown came on a 20-yard interception by Chip Banks.

1985 Rose Bowl: USC 20, Ohio State 17

USC's defense prevailed over Ohio State's potent offense featuring Heisman Trophy runnerup Keith Byars, 20-17. Interceptions set up USC's two touchdowns and the Trojan defense also stopped two key Buckeye drives--one early in the contest that got to the four-yard line and one late in the game which ended up at the 38. For USC, Tim Green threw touchdown passes to Joe Cormier and Timmie Ware while Steve Jordan kicked two 51-yard field goals. Most of Ohio State's points were provided by Rich Spangler, who hit three field goals.

1985 Aloha Bowl: Alabama 24, USC 3

The nation's top two bowl teams (USC with the most wins and Alabama with the most appearances) faced off in balmy Honolulu. The score was tied at halftime, 3-3, but the Crimson Tide rolled in the second half to win, 24-3. USC managed only 197 total yards (just 61 rushing) and 10 first downs. On the other hand, Alabama had 317 total yards, 205 coming on the ground. Mike Shula, Al Bell, Gene Jelks, Cornelius Bennett and Jon Hand starred for the Crimson Tide.

1987 Florida Citrus Bowl: Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

1988 Rose Bowl: Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

1989 Rose Bowl: Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

1990 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

1990 John Hancock Bowl: Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl: Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

1993 Freedom Bowl: USC 28, Utah 21

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience. The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance, were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years. USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, quarterback Rob Johnson hit All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and tailback David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with Ttight endJohnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled. Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from quarterback Mike McCoy to slotback Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by fullback Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by tailback Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 seconds remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game). Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC tailback Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while fullback Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC wide receiver Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14. Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by cornerback Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards. Outside linebacker Brian Williams and safety Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses). USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

1995 Cotton Bowl: USC 55, Texas Tech 14

USC (ranked 20th by UPI, 21st by AP and 22nd by USA Today/CNN) made quite an impression in its first visit to the Mobil Cotton Bowl Classic, smashing Texas Tech, 55-14, in a record-filled performance before a sellout crowd of 70,218 and an NBC-TV national audience. It was USC's 24th bowl victory, its 37th bowl appearance (in 10 different bowls), its 17th win in the last 19 games against Southwest Conference opponents, its third win in 3 tries over Texas Tech, and coach John Robinson's sixth bowl win in 7 trips (giving Robinson at least 8 wins in each of his 9 seasons at Troy). After 59 years, it was also the last Cotton Bowl where an SWC team served as host. Texas Tech was making only its second visit to the Cotton Bowl (the first was in 1939). The game was over quickly, as it was 28-0 after the first quarter and 34-0 at halftime. USC led 48-0 before Texas Tech scored against the Trojan reserves late in the third quarter. USC set Cotton Bowl records for most points in a game, most points in a quarter (USC's most since also scoring 28 in the second quarter against California in 1978) and most touchdowns (7), while scoring its most points ever in a bowl and posting its biggest bowl victory margin (second in Cotton Bowl history). It was the most points scored against Texas Tech since Miami had 61 in 1986. Troy's first 3 scores came in a 1:16 span. After tailback Shawn Walters, 1 of 8 Texans on the Trojan roster, ran 11 yards for a TD, USC recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and, on the next play, quarterback Rob Johnson hit fullback Terry Barnum for a 19-yard score. Three plays later, cornerback John Herpin, another Texas native, intercepted a Zebbie Lethridge pass and returned it 26 yards for a TD. Herpin, who intercepted another pass in the second quarter to set up a field goal, was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player. USC's next 3 TDs came on aerials to wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson of 12, 22 and 86 yards (the 86-yarder was 1 yard shy of the longest pass in Cotton Bowl and USC history), the first 2 from Rob Johnson and the third from quarterback Brad Otton. Keyshawn Johnson, selected as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, had 8 catches overall for a Cotton Bowl-record 222 yards (just 7 yards shy of the Trojan single game record). His 3 TD catches set a Cotton Bowl record and equalled a Trojan mark. Rob Johnson, who became USC's career passing yardage leader and the Pac-10 and USC recordholder for career completion percentage, was 16-of-21 for 289 yards (the second most yards in Cotton Bowl history). The other Trojan scores came on a late 2-yard Otton pass to tight end Jeff Diltz and second quarter field goals by placekicker Cole Ford of 39 and a career-best 42 yards. Ford's 7 PAT kicks was a Cotton Bowl record. Walters ran for a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries. Otton was 8-of-14 for 146 yards. USC thoroughly dominated the statistics, more than doubling Texas Tech in total yardage (578-260) and possession time (40:02-19:58) while also having more first downs (21-14) and plays (80-63). USC, which averaged 7.2 yards per play, set Cotton Bowl records for total yards, passing yards (a USC record 435) and completions (24). USC did this against a Texas Tech defense which entered the game third nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.6), 10th in scoring defense (17.4) and 22nd in total defense (311.0). The Red Raiders had held 5 foes to single digits in scoring and had given up just 47 points in their previous 5 games. Inside linebacker Jeff Kopp led USC in tackles with 7, while safety Sammy Knight added 6. Texas Tech, which punted 10 times, advanced into USC territory on just 4 of its 16 possessions.

1996 Rose Bowl: USC 41, Northwestern 32

Behind the stellar play of wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson and quarterback Brad Otton, USC (ranked 15th by UPI and 17th by USA Today/CNN and AP) put an end to No. 3-ranked Northwestern's Cinderella season with an exciting 41-32 Rose Bowl win before a sellout crowd of 100,102 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was the 50th anniversary of the Pac-10/Big Ten agreement in the Rose Bowl. It was USC's 20th victory in its unprecedented 28th trip to Pasadena (but its first since the 1990 game) and Troy's first win over a Top 3 team since defeating Michigan in that 1990 Rose Bowl, while Northwestern--having its first winning season since 1971 (the Wildcats came in with a 10-1 record)--was playing in only its second-ever bowl (its first since winning the 1949 Rose Bowl). It also gave USC coach John Robinson a 4-0 Rose Bowl record (and 7-1 in all bowls). The Trojans jumped off to a quick start, driving 83 yards with the opening kickoff while using a no-huddle offense as running back LaVale Woods scored on a 1-yard plunge. But Northwestern answered on its first possession, as running back Darnell Autry ran 3 yards for a TD to cap a 68-yard drive. USC then scored 17 unanswered second quarter points: a scrambling 21-yard TD pass from Otton to running back Terry Barnum, a 30-yard field goal by placekicker Adam Abrams and, on Northwestern's next possession, cornerback Daylon McCutcheon's 53-yard fumble return after safety Sammy Knight knocked the ball loose from Wildcat wide receiver Brian Musso. Northwestern got a 29-yard field goal from placekicker Brian Gowins with 2 seconds to go in the half following a Trojan fumble, but Troy led 24-10 at intermission (it was USC's most first half points since scoring 34 against Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl). The Wildcats then scored on their first 4 possessions of the second half: another Gowins field goal (this one from 28 yards), a 9-yard Autry run (after Northwestern recovered a surprise on-side kick), a 1-yard sneak by quarterback Steve Schnur (which followed a 56-yard Trojan scoring strike from Otton to Johnson), and a 2-yard Autry run early in the fourth quarter that gave Northwestern its first lead of the day, 32-31. But USC came right back, getting a 46-yard Abrams field goal (the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl). Safety Jesse Davis then sealed the victory for USC with an interception which led to a 5-yard TD by running back Delon Washington. Johnson, who served as a Trojan ballboy at the 1985 Rose Bowl, was named the Rose Bowl MVP, as he grabbed 12 passes (all for first downs) for a Rose Bowl record 216 yards (his 17th 100-yard outing in his career and the eighth of 1995). Otton played the entire game for the first time in the 1995 season, hitting 29-of-44 passes for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs and no interceptions; the yardage was 1 yard shy of Rob Johnson's USC record and was the third most in Rose Bowl history. Autry had his 13th consecutive 100-yard rushing game, getting 110 yards on 32 carries with the 3 TDs, while Schnur was 23-of-39 for a career-best 336 yards (including 7 completions for 145 yards to wide receiver D'Wayne Bates). Northwestern outgained USC in total yards, 475-520, and limited Troy to just 29 rushing yards (its fewest since getting 7 yards against UCLA in 1993), but the Wildcats' uncharacteristic 2 turnovers led to 14 Trojan points, proving costly to a team which was third nationally in turnover margin (1.82). The Wildcats also had a TD pass called back because of a penalty late in the game and missed 2 field goals, including a 49-yard attempt that hit the upright with 35 seconds to go. USC, on the other hand, had 11 penalties (including 9 in the second half). Trojan cornerback Brian Kelly had a game-high 11 tackles (along with 2 deflections), while Knight and linebacker Scott Fields added 7 stops each.

1996 BOWL INFORMATION

ROSE BOWL SELECTION PROCEDURES

The Pacific-10 Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in the loss and tie columns (a tie being counted as one-half loss) in all Conference games. If, however, the lowest loss-tie totals of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be as follows:

a. Two-Team Tie. If the tied teams played one another, the winner of their game shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, if either team is ranked first or second inthe nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If they tied or did not play and are not so ranked, then the following formula shall be used:

(1) Count 4 points for a Conference win.

(2) Count 3 points for a non-Conference win against a Division I-A team.

(3) Count 2 points for a non-Conference win against a non-Division I-A team.

(4) Count 2 points for a Conference tie.

(5) Count 1 1/2 points for a non-Conference tie against a Division 1-A team.

(6) Count 1 point for a non-Conference tie against a non-Division 1-A team.

The team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative.

If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

b. Multiple Ties. When three or more teams are tied in the loss-tie column in Conference play, if one has defeated all others, that team shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, and one of the teams is ranked first or second in the nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, a team defeated by all other tied teams shall be eliminated. If one team has not defeated the others, the point formula above shall be computed. Only the top two teams on the point system shall thereafter be considered. If a tie for the second position occurs upon application of the point formula, the second team shall be the winner of the game between the tied teams, or, if the teams did not play each other or played a tie game, the team which has not played in the Rose Bowl for the longest period of time shall be the second team. If the remaining two teams played one another, the winner shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, the team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative as in paragraph "a" above. If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

NOTES: Teams ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl shall not be included in the tie-breaking formula. Games in Alaska or Hawaii shall not be counted in the point system if they are "12th games" permitted under NCAA legislation. Participation in the NACDA Kickoff Classic or the Pigskin Classic shall not be counted in the point system.

PAC-10 BOWL ARRANGEMENTS

In the ever-changing world of bowl games, one matchup remains constant--the Pacific-10 champion will meet the Big Ten champ in the Rose Bowl. While much about it changes, the Rose Bowl Game, in conjunction with the world-famous Rose Parade, maintains its preeminent position as the nation's most prestigious and glamorous New Year's Day attraction.

In addition to the champion appearing in the Rose Bowl, the Pac-10 is assured of at least 4 other participants in post-season bowl competition (assuming all win the NCAA-mandated 6 games against Division I-A opponents), as agreements have been struck with the Cotton, Plymouth Holiday, Haka, Jeep Eagle Aloha and Norwest Sun Bowls. The Pac-10 also is eligible for an at-large berth in any given year in the Bowl Alliance, which encompasses the Fiesta, Nokia Sugar and Federal Express Orange Bowls. While eligible to be selected for a berth in the Bowl Alliance, a berth is not guaranteed.

After the Rose Bowl berth is filled (and the Bowl Alliance, if applicable), a second Pac-10 team (not necessarily the second-place team) will participate against a Big 12 team in either the Cotton or Plymouth Holiday Bowl. Four teams will participate in the Cotton/Plymouth Holiday Bowl parlay--1 from the Pac-10, the WAC champion and 2 from the Big 12. The Big 12 teams will fill 1 berth in each bowl. The Cotton Bowl will then select between a Pac-10 team and the WAC champion. The team not selected by the Cotton Bowl will receive a berth in the Plymouth Holiday Bowl. This second Pac-10 team is selected at the discretion of the Cotton/Holiday Bowls and can be any eligible Pac-10 team other than the Conference's Rose Bowl representative (or Bowl Alliance selection, if applicable).

Next, the new Haka Bowl receives the highest remaining team in the Pac-10 standings (it can select from tied teams).

A fourth Pac-10 team will be selected by the Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl, then a fifth team will be picked by the Norwest Sun Bowl. For the 1996 seaosn only, if an available ACC or Big East team has a better overall record than any Pac-10 team, the Norwest Sun Bowl will have the option to select that team instead of a Pac-10 team.

There have been 30 matchups between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the Associated Press poll (19 times during the regular season, 11 times in bowls). The No. 1 team has won 18 times, the No. 2 team has won 10 times, and there have been 2 ties. USC is 2-2 in such matchups, winning both times it was No. 1 and losing both times it was No. 2. The AP poll began in 1936.

USC IN THE POLLS

USC FOOTBALL NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Here is a list of USC's college football championships as selected by every recognized authority. USC is recognized for having won eight national championships (1928-31-32-62-67-72-74-78). The Trojans were not picked by enough selectors in 1929-33-39-76-79 to claim a legitimate national crown.

#The 1972 USC team was the first team to ever receive a unanimous first-place vote by both AP and UPI.

+Selectors:

Ann--Illustrated Football Annual (1930-60). A rating system by Williams F. Boand published in the highly-regarded fan magazine Illustrated Football Annual (1932-42)and Football News (1942-44, 1951-60). Predated national champions from 1919-29.

AP--Associated Press (1936-current). Poll of sportswriters and broadcasters which began in 1936. The award actually originated in 1924 with the awarding of the Rissman Trophy to the top-rated team in the Dickinson System. It was retired in 1930, then the Knute Rockne Trophy was awarded beginning in 1931 (again to the winner of the Dickinson System through 1935, then to the winner of the AP poll). That was retired in 1940, then the Dr. Henry L. Williams Trophy was awarded beginning in 1941. That was retired in 1947, then the Father O'Donnell Trophy was awarded beginning in 1948. That was retired in 1956 and beginning in 1957, the award was known as the AP Trophy. Since 1983, the award has been known as the Paul "Bear" Bryant Trophy.

Berry--Berryman (QPRS) (1940-current). A mathematical rating system based on a quality point rating formula developed by Clyde P. Berryman.

Bill--Billingsley Report (1960-current). A mathematically based power rating system developed by Richard Billingsley.

Davis--Parke H. Davis Ratings (1889-1933). Chosen by Davis, a former player at Princeton and former coach at Wisconsin, Amherst and Lafayette. First published in the 1934 Spalding's Football Guide.

DeV--DeVold System (1945-current). A mathematical rating system developed by Harry DeVold, a former football player at Cornell. The rating have appeared in The Football News since 1962. Predated national champions from 1939-44.

Dick--Dickinson System (1924-40). Based on point formula devised by Illinois economics professor Frank G. Dickinson.

Dunk--Dunkel System (1929-current). A power index rating system devised by Dick Dunkel Sr (1929-71) and Dick Dunkel Jr. (1972-current).

FACT--Foundation for the Analysis of Competitions and Tournaments (1968-current). A computerized mathematical ranking system developed by David Rothman.

FBN--Football News (1958-current). A weekly poll of Football News' staff writers.

FBR--College Football Researchers Association (1982-92). Founded by Anthony Cusher and Robert Kirlin, it determined its champion by a Top 10 vote of membership on a point system. Predated national champions from 1919-81, conducted on a poll by Harry Carson Frye.

FWA--Football Writers Association of America (1954-current). Chosen by five-man committee representing membership. Award called the Grantland Rice Trophy.

Helms--First Interstate Bank Athletic Foundation (1883-1982). Originally called Helms Athletic Foundation, then changed to Citizen Savings Athletic Foundation before new name adopted in 1982.

HF--National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-1993). Chosen by a committee representing membership. Award called the Gen. Douglas MacArthur Trophy. Merged with UPI in 1991-922 and with USA Today in 1993.

Lit--Litkenhous System (1934-1972). A rating method developed by Fred and Edward (a professor of chemical engineering at Vanderbilt) Litkenhous.

Mat--Mathews Grid Ratings (1966-current). A mathematical rating system developed by college mathematics professor Herman Matthews.

NCF--National Championship Foundation (1980-current). An annual report established by Mike Riter. Predated national champions from 1869-1979.

Pol--Poling System (1935-84). A mathematical rating system developed by Richard Poling, a former football player at Ohio Wesleyan. Ratings were published annually in the Football Review Supplement and various newspapers. Predeated national champions from 1924-34.

Sag--Sagarin Ratings (1956-current). A mathematical rating system developed by Jeff Sagarin, a 1970 MIT mathematics graduate. It runs annually in USA Today.

Thes--The Football Thesaurus (1927-58). A system devised by Deke Houlgate and syndicated in newspapers, plus published in Illustrated Football and the Football Thesaurus (1946-58).

TSN--The Sporting News (1975-current). Voted on annually by the staff of The Sporting News.

UPI--United Press International (1950-current). Originally a poll of college coaches, in 1991 voters comprised of college football enthusiasts. In 1992, National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame co-sponsored poll, with voters consisting of 100 NFF members (athletic administrators, journalists, ex-players, and ex-coaches) and award called the Gen. Douglas MacArthur Trophy. Beginning in 1993, voters were 16 bowl representatives.

Wms--Williamson System (1931-1963). A power rating system by Paul Williamson, a geologist and Sugar Bowl committee member.

USC IN TOP 20 RANKINGS

Since the AP poll began in 1936, the weekly rankings have been published 767 times. USC has been ranked in the poll's Top 20 507 times (66.1% of the time). Here's the list of the 10 most frequently ranked teams:

1.	Notre Dame	587	6.	USC	507
2.	Michigan	564	7.	Nebraska	497
3.	Ohio State	541	8.	Texas	464
4.	Oklahoma	526	9.	Penn State	435
	Alabama	526	10.	UCLA	395

In those 767 AP polls, USC has held the No. 1 ranking 47 times. The 10 teams ranked No. 1 most often are:

1.	Notre Dame	95	6.	Texas	40

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are several teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--UPI, AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association and the Walter Camp Foundation.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been an amazing 26 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

TROJAN HONOREES

HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT--1965

Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tailbacks.

He was the Trojans' first--and only the West Coast's second--Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when 1,000-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O. J. SIMPSON--1968

O. J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season, O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing --1,709--in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All- American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11- year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher behind Jim Brown.

CHARLES WHITE--1979

Charles White, USC's third Heisman Trophy winner, finished his four-year career as the NCAA's second leading rusher ever with 5,598 regular season yards. Including bowl games, he finished with a Pac-10 record 6,245.

A two-year unanimous All-American, White set or equaled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He gained over 100 yards 31 times in his career, including 10 times in 1979.

In that senior season, Charlie averaged 186.4 yards a game, 6.2 yards a carry, led the nation in rushing, and, for the second straight season, led it in all-purpose running.

HEISMAN SALUTE

MARCUS ALLEN--1981

Marcus Allen, USC's fourth Heisman Trophy winner, was college football's first 2,000-yard rusher.

When he captured the award in 1981, Marcus set 14 new NCAA records and tied two others, including most yards rushing in a single season (2,342), highest per-game average (212.9), most 200-yard games in a career (11), most 200-yard games in a season (8) and most 200-yard games in a row (5).

Allen also led the Trojans in receiving with 30 and 34 catches in each of his last two seasons.

OUTLAND SALUTE

RON YARY--1967

Ron Yary is the only USC player to win the Outland Trophy, which goes to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and is selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

Yary was a two-time All-American offensive tackle for the Trojans and was a unanimous All-American pick in 1967 when he won the Outland. That season he led the way for O.J. Simpson. The first player picked in the 1968 draft, he was a perennial All-Pro tackle with the Minnesota Vikings and also played for the Los Angeles Rams.

LOMBARDI SALUTE

BRAD BUDDE--1979

In 1979, offensive guard Brad Budde became USC's first recipient of the coveted Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top college lineman who also "best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi."

Budde was an unanimous All-American as a senior and was also runnerup in the Outland Trophy voting. A four-year starter at Troy, he was the first freshman to start a USC season opener since World War II.

The son of ex-Kansas City Chiefs' All-Pro Ed Budde, Brad followed his father there as the Chiefs' first- round draft pick in 1980.

LOMBARDI WINNERS

1970--Jim Stillwagon, Ohio State, MG

Note: USC has had 3 finalists for the Lombardi Award--NG George Achica in 1982, OLB Jack Del Rio in 1984 and DT Tim Ryan in 1989.

THORPE SALUTE

MARK CARRIER--1989

As just a junior in 1989, free safety Mark Carrier became USC's first-ever winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to the nation's best defensive back.

A 2-time first team All-American, Carrier had 7 interceptions in 1989 (tied for 10th in the nation), plus 107 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and 10 pass deflections.

A 3-year starter with 13 career thefts, Carrier was a Thorpe semifinalist in 1988.

ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTIONS

Here is a list of Trojans named to the All-Conference first team since 1928 (from 1928 to 1951, All-Conference and All-Coast selections are included). USC joined the Pacific Coast Conference in 1922, which was reformed into the Athletic Association of Western Universities in 1959, then renamed the Pacific-8 Conference in 1968. From 1978 on, it has been the Pacific-10 Conference.

PLAYBOY PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICANS

USC has landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957, there have been 54 Trojan players selected (including Darrell Russell in 1995), as well as 1 Coach of the Year. Not including the 1996 picks, Notre Dame is next with 37 selections, followed by Oklahoma with 31 (the Sooners have also had 2 Coach of the Year honorees). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 4 different occasions (1970-76-79-80), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team. USC'sTony Boselli, who was selected in 1992-93-94, is the first 3-time Playboy selection from any school.

Here is a list of USC's Playboy pre-season All-Americans:

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

Various standards have been used to determine USC letter winners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen.

There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long-standing policy.

A NOTE ON USC'S RECORDS

The records material on these pages has been compiled from a number of sources. Although official national individual records commenced only in 1937 (nearly 50 years after USC's first team), USC's game-by-game records generally extend back to the mid-1920s. Newspaper accounts of individual games, including some extraordinary individual performances, date back to 1889. Unfortunately, for some games in USC's first 20 years, only the final result has survived to the present.

These records have been compiled by USC's Sports Information Office (previously known as the Athletic News Service), particularly the sports information directors listed elsewhere in this guide. Special mention should be made of the efforts of Tom Lawless, Dick Nash, Harley Tinkham, Chuck Weinstock, Al Wesson, Deke Houlgate, H.D. Thoreau and Mike Glenn.

USC VS. HEISMAN WINNERS

John Lujack--1947
Notre Dame 38, USC 7
Irish quarterback Lujack completed 5-of-7 passes for 59 yards and no TDs, but it was his interception and 37-yard return of a Trojan pass that led to a score. Eventual national champion Notre Dame knocked off No. 3-ranked USC, 38-7, at the Coliseum.

Leon Hart--1949
Notre Dame 32, USC 0
Hart scored on a 36-yard pass for Notre Dame's first score as the top-ranked Irish rolled to a 32-0 win in South Bend over the No. 17 Trojans. It was USC's worst loss in the series at the time.

John Lattner--1953
Notre Dame 48, USC 14
Lattner set then-series records by scoring 4 touchdowns and rushing for 157 yards in No. 2 Notre Dame's 48-14 victory over No. 20 USC in the Coliseum.

Paul Hornung--1956
USC 28, Notre Dame 20
Hornung, who played quarterback during his Heisman Trophy season, switched to halfback against USC because of painful injuries to both thumbs. His 95-yard kickoff return and PAT in the third quarter drew the Irish to within a point, 21-20. Hornung accounted for 215 all-purpose yards in the Coliseum game.

John Huarte--1964
USC 20, Notre Dame 17
Huarte completed 18-of-29 passes and threw a touchdown pass in leading top-ranked Notre Dame to a 17-0 lead. But unranked USC rallied to score 20 second-half points to upset the Irish, 20-17, in Los Angeles. It was Ara Parseghian's first loss as Irish coach.

Gary Beban--1967
USC 21, UCLA 20
With the national championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl on the line, Beban threw for 301 yards and 2 touchdowns for the top-ranked Bruins. The effort wasn't enough as O.J. Simpson, USC's 1968 Heisman winner, scored on a 64-yard TD to give the No. 4-ranked Trojans a 21-20 win.

Jim Plunkett--1970
Stanford 24, USC 14
Plunkett ended No. 4-ranked USC's hopes of a fifth straight Rose Bowl trip by completing 19-of-31 passes for 274 yards and a score in No. 12-ranked Stanford's 24-14 win at Palo Alto. The loss ended USC's 25-game unbeaten string in regular season play.

Archie Griffin--1974
USC 18, Ohio State 17
In the 1975 Rose Bowl, Griffin fumbled twice and was held to 75 yards and no TDs, as USC rallied to take an 18-17 win. The victory over the No. 3-ranked Buckeyes gave USC its seventh national title.

George Rogers--1980
USC 23, South Carolina 13
Rogers broke free for a 34-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter in Los Angeles as part of a 141-yard rushing game. But it was Marcus Allen, USC's 1981 Heisman Trophy winner, who rushed for 104 yards and 2 touchdowns to give USC a 23-13 win in its home opener.

Tim Brown--1987
Notre Dame 26, USC 15
Brown was held to 4 catches for 46 yards, but it was his 5-yard run in the second quarter that put the Irish up 17-3 in South Bend. Notre Dame's seventh Heisman winner rushed 5 times for 41 yards in the Irish's 26-15 win.

USC ON TELEVISION

USC's football team--perhaps the true "America's Team" -- has appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 224 times over the years, including 145 times on commercial network television. USC's overall record while playing on live television is 144-71-9 (the mark is 87-54-6 for commercial network telecasts only). USC set a national record in 1987 by appearing on 6 live national regular-season network telecasts. All 13 of USC's 1990 games were on some form of live television, as were all 12 in 1992, all 13 in 1993, all 12 in 1994 and all 12 in 1995.

Trojan games have always been among the top--if not the top--attractions among live televised college football games. In fact, over the 10-year period from 1972 to 1981, USC posted the highest average television rating of any school, according to figures released by the NCAA which were compiled by the A.C. Nielsen Co. rating service. During that span, USC averaged a 15.6 rating on its 24 live regular-season ABC national and regional telecasts. A rating indicates the percentage of all U.S. TV sets that are tuned to a game. A 10.0 rating is considered above average.

In a December 1988 ranking by Sports Inc., the USC-Notre Dame game recorded 5 of the 12 all-time highest college football TV ratings. The 1968 USC-ND encounter was the highest rated college football telecast ever (22.9 rating). The other USC-ND clashes in the top 12 include 1970-74-72-64.

Of the 12 highest rated games ever, according to Sports Inc., USC was involved in more than any other school: 7 (besides those 5 Notre Dame games, the others were the UCLA encounters of 1973 and 1967). Incidentally, USC was 6-0-1 in those games.

As further proof of USC's television appeal, Sports Inc. listed Troy as the top drawing team from 1974 to 1983 (the 10 years prior to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which deregulated the TV marketplace) with an average rating of 14.49 on 24 telecasts (more than a full rating point higher than No. 2 Notre Dame). After deregulation (from 1984 to 1989) and with the proliferation of telecasts, USC was still in the Top 10, ranking ninth with a 6.07 average rating on 25 appearances (less than 2 points behind the leader).

Below is a list of the USC football team's appearances on live television. Listed along with the year and the opponent are the score; the network, syndicator or station that televised the contest; whether the telecast was national, regional or local; and, if available, the Nielsen rating. An asterisk (*) indicates a home game. USC was not eligible to appear on live television in the 1983 and 1985 regular seasons because of an NCAA ban.

Doubleheaders played by USC in 1925, 1933 and 1934 are considered as one game for purposes of this list

*-USC Record

#-Excludes first 3 games +-Excludes Pomona game

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games.

The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldier Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record. In all, USC has played before at least 44,045,032 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

In 1988, USC not only set a school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

*Coliseum record for a football game.

The Coliseum seating capacity was reduced to 92,516 in 1964 (although temporary seats were added for the 1965 UCLA and 1988 Notre Dame games, hence the larger crowds then). In 1993, stadium renovation increased the Coliseum capacity to 94,159, but that figure was reduced in 1995 to 92,000. The largest crowd for a non-UCLA/non-Notre Dame game since 1964 was 86,124 for Oklahoma in 1988.

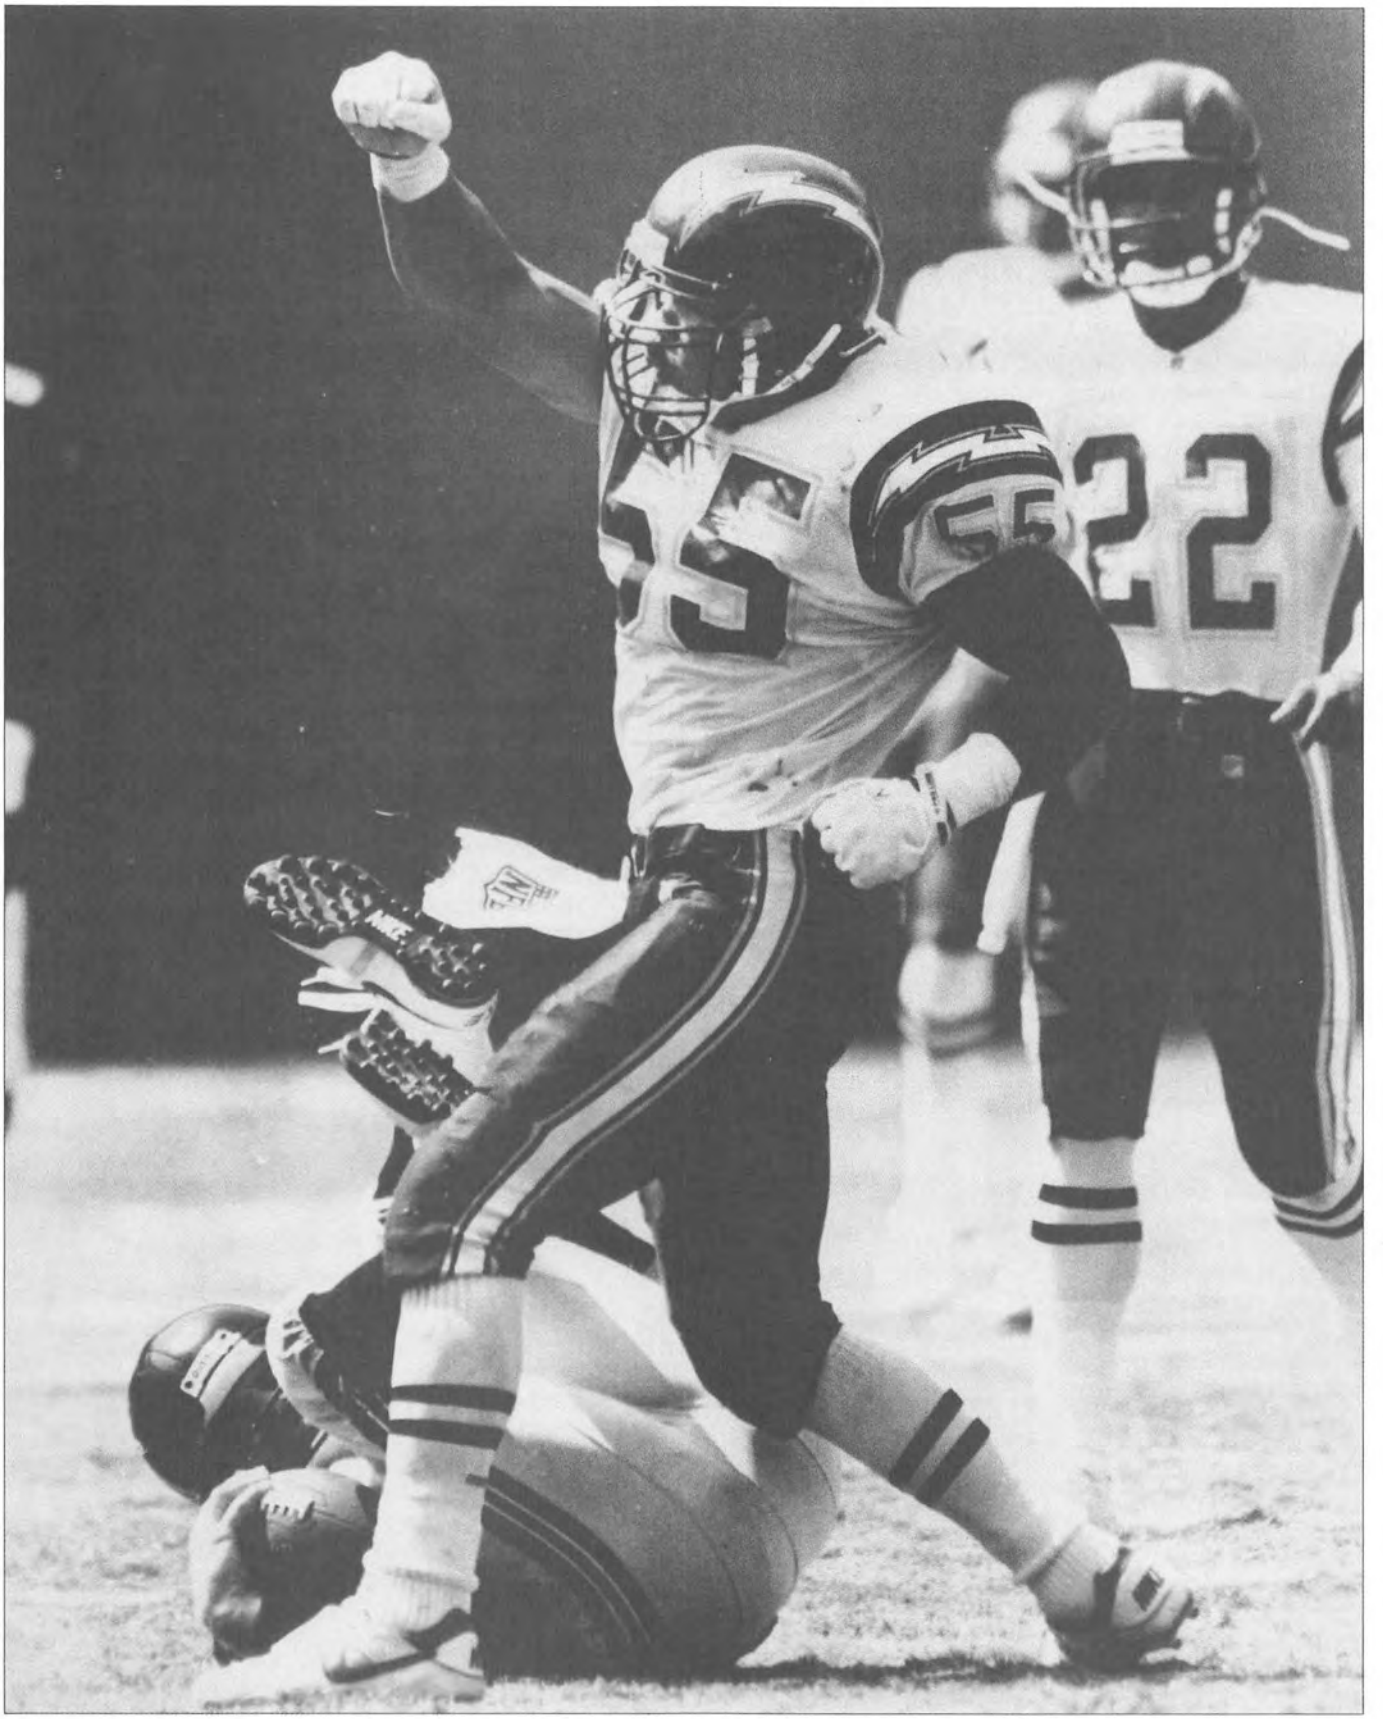
NFL TROJANS



SAN DIEGO CHARGERS LINEBACKER JUNIOR SEAU

USC: NO. 1 IN THE PROS

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC usually has more players in the pros than any other university.

At the start of training camp this past summer, there were 46 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 12 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 24 of the NFL's 30 teams. Most of the Trojans were either offensive linemen (11), linebackers (11), quarterbacks (5) or safeties (5).

In 1995, there were 34 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters; only 4 universities had more players (since records are available, USC has been No. 1 in 17 of the last 20 years).

USC has had three of the most highly drafted classes in college football history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had the most picks of any school in the 1990 NFL draft, with 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft is an NFL record. Only Notre Dame (with 5) has had more players selected as the top pick of the NFL draft than USC's 4 (Ron Yary in 1968, O.J. Simpson in 1969, Ricky Bell in 1977 and Keyshawn Johnson in 1996). USC is the only school to have the No. 1 pick for 2 consecutive years.

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing college players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for preparing running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

In a Dec. 1994 College Sports magazine ranking of the schools which have been the top sources over the years of football talent by position (on a combined college and NFL level), USC was listed first at running backs, offensive linemen and defensive backs, and third at linebackers.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-1996 (which followed the 1935-1995 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available prior to 1967, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (except for the 1960 AFL draft, in which no round-by-round records were available). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

Round	Player	Pos.	Team	Overall Draft Selection
1937--1
10	Gil Kuhn	T	Brooklyn Dodgers
1939--4
8	Ray George	T	Lions
12	Bob Hoffman	B	Redskins
16	Boyd Morgan	B	Redskins
17	Amerigo (Tony) Tonelli	B	Lions

(Note: Hoffman's selection was later declared void because he still had eligibility remaining. However, he was picked again by the Redskins in 1940.)

TROJAN TIDBITS

TROJAN TRIVIA

AFTER TIES--USC is 36-14-4 in games immediately following a tie. The Trojans have won the last 13 contests it has played after a tie, dating to 1968.

BIG TEN COMPETITION--USC has won 21 of its last 28 games (and 28 of its last 36) against Big Ten opponents.

DIAMONDS--During 1992 and 1993, USC played 4 games in a stadium with a baseball field (Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego, then played in Anaheim Stadium in the 1992 Freedom Bowl, 1993 Disneyland Pigskin Classic and 1993 Freedom Bowl). Before then, the last time USC played on a baseball field was in 1961, when the Coliseum was home to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

EARLY BIRDS--USC's Aug. 29 opener in 1993 marked the earliest that Troy's season has opened in the modern era. Before then, the earliest was Aug. 31, 1990. (The earliest that USC's season has ended was Nov. 13, 1909.) USC's latest season opener was Dec. 7, 1901 and its latest home opener was Dec. 14, 1918 (USC didn't play any home games in 1900 or 1901).

GOLDEN GRIDDERS--Two football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (1914,15,16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934,37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600 meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

GOOD BYES--USC is 70-37-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 31-8-1 following byes (4 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA).

GRID/HOOPS--USC is 11-7-1 against schools that won the NCAA men's basketball title the previous year.

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS--Among the Trojan footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (he played tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 who played Tarzan), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end who has been a supporting actor in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner has starred in many TV and motion picture films), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in various movies), Patrick Muldoon (a walk-on tight end in the mid-1980s who stars in soaps, including "Melrose Place'), Brian Turk (a lineman in the late 1980s who has appeared in various TV sitcoms and commercials), Shane Foley (the quarterback who lettered in 1989-90 has been in various TV commericals) and Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne--All-American"). Also, Irvine "Cotton" Warburton (an All-American back in 1933) won an Oscar for film editing on "Mary Poppins," while Aaron Rosenberg (a 2-time All-American guard in 1932-33) was a well-known TV and movie producer and Jess Hibbs (a 2-time All-American tackle in 1927-28) was a prominent film and TV director. Producers Hilton Green (a team manager) and Barney Rosenzweig (a Yell Leader) also were associated with the Trojan football program .

HOMECOMING--USC has a 47-21-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924.

IMPROVEMENT--USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

IN FLORIDA--USC has never won a football game in Florida, going 0-3 there.

IRISH REBOUNDS--USC is 5-10-1 versus Notre Dame when Troy was coming off a loss to UCLA. The wins were in 1950-55-70-80-82, the losses were in 1946-51-53-54-57-59-66-84-86-92, and the tie was in 1994.

NICKNAMES--Some of the more famous nicknames in Trojan gridiron lore: A.D. (Anthony Davis), Aircraft (Mark Carrier), Antelope Al (Al Krueger), B-Boys (Pete Beathard, Hal Bedsole, Willie Brown, Ben Wilson), Bambi (Mike Hull), Batman (Richard Wood, Gidion Murrell), Bear (Byron Darby), Betto (Norberto Garrido)Blackjack (Harry Smith), The Bookend All-Americans (Duane Bickett and Jack Del Rio, both outside linebackers), Bug (Kevin Williams, who was 5-9 and 165 pounds), Bullet (Roy Baker), Butch (Walt Underwood, Kendell Nungesser), Butter (Ted Gorrell), Cadillac (Cleveland Colter), Cardiac Kids (1968 and 1969 teams), Comet (Curtis Conway), Cotton (Irvine Warburton), Cotton Clubs (tackles for a loss by Marcus Cotton), Decleaters (knockdown blocks by Dave Cadigan), The Duck (Mike Garrett), End Around (Ray Sparling), Field Marshall (Marshall Duffield), Gazoo or Gnat (Ken Grace), Gloomy Gus (Coach Elmer Henderson), Gramps (Randy Tanner), Hobo (Howard Kincaid), Inky (Haskell Wotkyns), Iron Mike (Mike Garrett), Izzy (Israel Ifeanyi), Jackhammers (tackles for a loss by Jack Del Rio), Jaguar Jon (Jon Arnett), J.J. (John Jackson), Juice (O.J. Simpson), Jupiter (walk-on Jupiter Ehrlich; yes, that's his real name), Lone Ranger (David Webb, who put a bar of grease paint across his eyes when playing), Mad Dog (Tim Lavin), Mystic (Jim Powers), The Noblest Trojan of Them All (Morley Drury), Pinball Wizard (Ricky Ervins), Prince Hal (Hal Bedsole), Racehorse (Russ Saunders), Razor (Mike Battle), Red (Morris Badgro), Rolls (Mazio Royster), Sam Bam (Sam Cunningham), Shakes (Jonathan Mosley, who has Tourette's syndrome), Slam (Sam Anno), Slinky (Marvin Pollard), Speedy (Alcee Hart), Squeeze (John Kamana), Sugarbear (Charles Hinton), Sweet (Jim Musick), Sweet Peete (Rodney Peete), Tay (Raymond Brown), Tee (Artimus Parker), Tex (Michael Williams), The Thundering Herd (Coach Howard Jones' teams), Tree (Charles Young, who was 6-4 and 228 pounds), Turd (Pete Adams' dog, the unofficial mascot of the 1972 team), Turk (Derrell Marshall), The Wild Bunch (the 1969 defensive line of Al Cowlings, Jimmy Gunn, Willard Scott, Tody Smith and Charlie Weaver).

NIGHT TIME--USC's first night game was on Oct. 14, 1944 against St. Mary's Pre-Flight in Fresno. The first USC night game in the Coliseum was Oct. 23, 1944 versus Washington.

NO. 1--The last time USC was ranked No. 1 in the polls (AP and UPI) was Oct. 7, 1981.

NOS. 35 AND 55--In recent years, the No. 35 jersey has been handed down to a "stereotypical" inside linebacker. The chain of succession: Riki Gray (Ellison), Rex Moore, Scott Ross, Jeff Kopp and Taso Papadakis. The No. 55 has gone to the prototype outside linebacker (Junior Seau, Willie McGinest, Israel Ifeanyi).

OFFENSIVE LINE--There have been 26 first team All-American offensive linemen from USC since 1964 and 19 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968.

ONE GAME TURNAROUND--USC once had an 87-point turnaround from one game to the next. In 1985, the Trojans lost to Arizona State, 24-0, then came back the following game to defeat Oregon State, 63-0.

OPENERS--USC's record in all season openers is 74-21-8 (.757), with 35 shutout victories. In season openers at home, the Trojans are 54-15-7 (.757), while their record in season openers on the road is 20-6-1 (.759).

In conference openers, USC is 58-11-5 (.818) and Troy has won 20 of its last 25 (and 33 of its last 39). In conference openers at home, the Trojans are 34-6-3 (.826). Their mark in conference openers on the road is 24-5-2 (.806) and they've won 19 of their last 22.

The earliest USC has opened conference play since joining a league in 1922 was Sept. 3, 1994 against Washington.

USC's record for home openers is 77-17-7 (.797). In road openers, USC is 67-25-8 (.710).

Incidentally, in games immediately following USC's 28 non-winning openers, Troy is 20-5-4, including wins the past 12 times (dating to 1960).

PAC-10 WINS--In 1988, USC became the first Pac-10 team to win 8 conference games in a season.

PRESIDENTIAL PRECEDENT--Since 1929, USC has played in the Rose Bowl during the term of every U.S. President.

POLYNESIANS--Among the Polynesians who have played at USC: George Achica, Pat Ah-Hing, Al Aliipule, Michael Alo, Charley Ane, Paul Green, Harold Han, Arthur Hemingway, Chris Limahelu, John Kamana, Gaylord Kuamoo, Junior Moi, Johnny Naumu, Sol Naumu, Kennedy Pola, Junior Seau, Mosi Tatupu, Titus Tuiasosopo, Brian Tuliau, and Junior Utu.

RAIN--USC has an 18-20-2 record in games in which it rained during a major portion of the contest. USC's last such rain game was at Notre Dame in 1995 (USC lost, 38-10).

RAIN OUT--The final 2:36 of USC's 1990 win (35-26) at Ohio State was suspended by game officials when a heavy rainstorm with thunder and lightning hit.

SAME STADIUM--USC's 1992 season finale and its 1993 opener, both in Anaheim Stadium, marked the first time that Troy played 2 straight games in the same stadium (besides the Coliseum) since 1935, when it played Kamehamaha High's Alumni and the University of Hawaii in the same Honolulu location.

SEASON ENDERS--USC is 56-37-10 in all season finales.

SELLOUT--USC's last home sellout was the 1995 UCLA game.

SNOW--The last time USC played in snow was on Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). The temperature was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, too, 28-7).

STREAK BUSTERS--USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 25-game winning streak was stopped by Oregon State in 1933.

SWC COMPETITION--USC won 10 of its last 11 games (and 18 of its last 20) against foes from the now-defunct Southwest Conference.

SUNDAY--USC has played only 1 game on a Sunday: the 1993 opener versus North Carolina in the Disneyland Pigskin Class (USC lost, 31-9).

3 FOR THE ROAD--1992 was the first time that USC started a season with 3 road games in a row (in 1918 Troy began with 2 on the road and 1 at a neutral site, while in 1900 USC opened with 2 at a neutral site and 1 road game).

1,000-YARD RUNNERS--USC is second behind North Carolina for most 1,000-yard runners in a season, 24-20. Troy's last rusher to break the 1,000-yard barrier was running back Delon Washington in 1995, with 1,109 yards.

TOUGH STARTS--USC's last 6 head coaches--Don Clark, John McKay, John Robinson (twice), Ted Tollner and Larry Smith--all failed to win their debut.

TRAVELOGUE--USC has played football in 31 of this country's 50 states, as well as in Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawaii, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

TRICK OR TREAT--USC's record is 5-5 in games played on Halloween.

TURNAROUNDS--In 103 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 29 times. But following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

VERSUS NO. 1--USC is 7-11 all-time versus teams ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

— L.A. MEMORIAL COLISEUM —

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is one of the greatest --and largest-- stadiums in America. It combines the traditional and the modern into a premier athletic environment.

USC has played football in the Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923).

Construction on the Coliseum took less than 2 years, with ground breaking ceremonies held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000.

The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. Over the years, the Coliseum has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams and Raiders football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball. The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

There have been only 4 seasons--1923-24-25-95--that USC was the stadium's sole football tenant.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The Coliseum's floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts are a maximum of 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). During this renovation, the lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Southern California's damaging January, 1994 earthquake hit the Coliseum hard, requiring some $93 million of repairs. And, in the summer of 1995, a new $6 million press box was constructed.

The Coliseum has a present full-capacity of 92,000 seats (almost all are chair-back seats). However, for most USC games, a retractable fabric covers many seats, bringing the Coliseum's capacity to about 68,000. There are approximately 25,000 seats from goal line to goal line, including both the north and south sides.

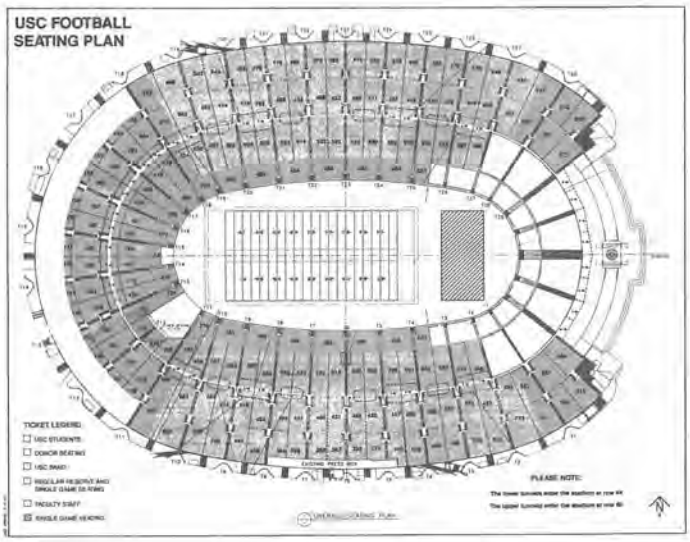
The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The Coliseum's general offices are located at the south side of the peristyle end and are open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on game day. The USC Game Management Office on game day only is at the north side of the peristyle end. The will call booth is located outside the fence at Gate 4. Identification is required to claim tickets left under a specific name. The booth opens three hours prior to kickoff and closes at the end of the first quarter.

The first aid station is located on the concourse opposite Stairway 6. A Goodhew ambulance is available at the Coliseum to transport cases requiring further treatment. Paramedics are stationed at Tunnels 6, 14, 29 and Stairway 23. Doctors expecting an emergency call must register their seat location at the Coliseum office. A messenger will be sent to notify doctors of emergency calls; doctors will not be paged over the public address system.

The police substation is located at Tunnel 14 and is manned by LAPD officers from the Southwest Division. There are also roaming officers and T-shirted security personnel working in and around the Coliseum.

Items that are found should be taken to the Administrative Office at the peristyle end or to the police substation at Tunnel 14. People who have lost something should check back at the Administrative Office a couple of days after the event to see if it has been found.



HERITAGE HALL

Heritage Hall, which sits in the middle of the University of Southern California campus, houses the University's athletic department and celebrates the glorious Trojan athletic heritage. USC has won more national team championships, produced more Olympic athletes and developed the second most NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipients than any other university.

Originally 48,000 square feet and built at a cost of $2.8 million, the 3-level brick and concrete colonnaded building opened in 1971. Heritage Hall was designed by Grillias, Savage and Alves of Santa Ana, Calif. Myers Brothers Construction Company, Inc., of Los Angeles was the general contractor. Initial construction began in Feb. 5, 1970. It has been expanded twice: once in 1984 (a 6,000-square foot addition to the weight room) and in 1992 (a 13,500-square foot expansion that houses the Academic Resource Center). Heritage Hall is located close to USC's various athletic practice and competition on-campus facilities.

Between the north and south wings on the building's ground level are some of USC's numerous athletic trophies, including various NCAA team championships, 4 Heisman Trophies and the jerseys of Troy's winners (Mike Garrett, O.J. Simpson, Charles White, Marcus Allen), swimmer John Naber's Sullivan Award, and a display honoring 1992 Olympic gold medalist 400-meter runner Quincy Watts. There are also busts of USC athletic directors Willis O. Hunter and Jess Hill, football coaches Howard Jones and John McKay, and track coach Dean Cromwell, as well as one of actor John Wayne (who played football at USC in the 1920s under his real name, Marion Morrison). A video display highlights USC's football history. Wall plaques acknowledge special financial contributors to the USC athletic program. The north wing houses a 200-seat auditorium and a formal lounge, while some coaches and administrators have offices in the south wing. A patio area extends outside to the west (placed in the patio floor are plaques commemorating the members of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame).

Heritage Hall's upper level is the home to many administrative and coaches' offices (located on the south "Jess Hill Wing" and north "John McKay Wing," respectively). The Honors Rail, which encircles the open-air foyer above the first floor lobby, has bronze medallions saluting every Trojan who won an Olympic gold medal, captured an NCAA individual championship, or was named a first team All-American in an NCAA sport in which there are no individual champions (i.e. football, basketball, baseball, volleyball, water polo). Also on the second floor are busts of USC football running backs Morley Drury ("The Noblest Trojan of Them All") and Ricky Bell. Like on the ground floor, tucked in alcoves on both ends of this floor are other athletic trophies and team displays.

The underground lower level of Heritage Hall houses various locker rooms, plus the equipment room, medical training room, weight room, and the Academic Resource Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes).

Because of space limitations, USC's baseball, golf, swimming and water polo coaches are located in the nearby Kennedy Aquatics Building.

—TRAVELER, USC'S MASCOT—

Traveler, the beautiful white horse that appears at all USC home football games with a regal Trojan warrior astride, is one of the most famous college mascots.

Ardefhir Radpour is the current rider of Traveler, having taken over that job for the 1996 season. Tom Nolan and Rick Oas, both USC alums, shared riding duties in 1991and Nolan took over full-time in 1992 through 1995(Oas began riding Traveler in 1989). In the 1987 and 1988 seasons, Cass Dabbs, a USC student, shared the riding duties with the late Richard Saukko, Traveler's longtime rider. Saukko, who passed away in March of 1992, rode Traveler from 1961 through 1988 (he missed the 1979 season while recuperating from a back injury).

Saukko was spotted riding in the 1961 Rose Parade by Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events. Jani persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Saukko started off with Traveler I, half-Arabian, half-Tennessee Walker, and rode him until the end of the 1966 season. Traveler I, who appeared in movies with the late actor Leo Carillo and whose brother was the Lone Ranger's Silver, died in 1975 at 33 years of age. Traveler II, a Tennessee Walker now 33 years old, took over until retiring in the mid-1970s with a leg injury. Twenty-seven-year-old Traveler III, a 1,000-pound, 15 1/2 hand-high Arabian who was a professional show horse, was the next horse used. The current Trojan mascot is Traveler IV, Traveler III's 16-year-old Arabian brother who was used frequently in 1988 before taking over fulltime in 1989 (the mother of Traveler IV and the daughter of Traveler III are also used on occasion).

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus. But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games, but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 35 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including the last 10 years in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), and in commercials.

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, at halftime of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, a costumed Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group, rode a rented white horse. Bob Caswell and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in the late 1950s.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years and then George III for 5 years.

TROJAN TRADITIONS

TOMMY TROJAN

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert. "Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

ORIGIN OF USC'S NICKNAME--TROJANS

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

COLORS: CARDINAL AND GOLD

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

SUPER FAN!

Giles Pellerin missed USC's 12-0 win over St. Mary's at the conclusion of the 1925 football season. That was the last Trojan game that he has missed.

There are devoted college sports fans and then there is Pellerin.

Known as USC's "Super Fan," the 89-year-old retired phone company executive from Pasadena, Calif., is not only the Trojans' most loyal football fan, but he might be the most rabid college football fan ever!

At the end of the 1995 season, Pellerin has viewed in person 763 consecutive USC football games, home and away. In all, he has traveled by plane, train and automobile more than 650,000 miles and spent upwards of $85,000 doing so.

"I never played the game, but I love it," he said. "There's just a certain spirit about college football. I've always said that going to USC games is the thing that has kept me alive, young and happy. It keeps me alive looking forward to the next season.

"I don't think I'm a nut. It's all been fun. I could've spent a lot more money on other hobbies. A guy can spend as much money playing golf or poker. Some people think I'm crazy for spending as much money as I have traveling to see these games. They don't understand that I do more than just watch a game when I visit these cities. I've met a lot of nice and interesting people on these trips."

His streak began at the start of the 1926 season, his sophomore year at USC. Coach Howard Jones' Trojans won that opener, 74-0 over Whittier, and since then, USC has compiled a 487-199-39 record. Pellerin has seen every USC-Notre Dame game (67 in all) and USC-UCLA game (all 65) ever played. He has watched Troy play in nearly 75 different stadiums and been to more than 50 cities (even Tokyo) doing so. He has viewed all eight of USC's national championship squads and all 120 of USC's first team All-Americans (including the four Heisman Trophy winners), plus he has seen 10 Trojan coaching regimes. His streak began before USC's famous white horse mascot, Traveler, first appeared at Trojan games (in 1927) and before the on-campus Tommy Trojan statue was built (in 1930).

"The players all greet me as the No. 1 Trojan," he said. "We (he and his late wife, Jessie) had no children of our own, so I think of all the USC players as our family."

Interestingly, the first USC football game Pellerin ever saw pre-dated the start of his streak. It was the 1923 Rose Bowl when, while he was a student at Huntington Park (Calif.) High, USC beat Penn State, 14-3. That means he also has seen all 28 Trojan Rose Bowls (and nine of Troy's 10 other bowl appearances).

So dedicated is Pellerin that he pushed back his honeymoon eight months so that he could celebrate it at a 1935 USC game in Hawaii. And his love for USC is so strong that he has donated $1.3 million to endow three football scholarships and a swimming scholarship.

"I've had so much pleasure following the Trojans all this time that that's the least I can do to help repay them," he said. "My whole life has been USC football and I've loved every minute of it."

Giles has come close to missing a game or two, including in 1993. But Trojan fate stepped in. Pellerin was about to leave his hotel the day after the 1993 Penn State road game when he suffered a ruptured aortic abdominal aneurysm. He was hospitalized in a Harrisburg (Pa.) hospital for 12 days, but fortunately USC had a bye that following week and after signing a waiver releasing hospital officials from any liability he was released in time for USC's next game, at home against Washington State. His streak was intact, with two days to spare!

"God must be a Trojan," Pellerin said. "I've been lucky."

Another near miss came in 1949 when he was hospitalized five days before a home contest for an emergency operation to remove his appendix. On game day, he told the nurses he was going out for a walk on the hospital grounds. Instead, he went to the Coliseum and returned to his bed several hours after USC dumped Oregon, 40-13. The nurses were none the wiser!

He also has survived a blown water pump outside Oklahoma City 36 hours before kickoff while driving to South Bend for a Notre Dame game and several instances of lost tickets. He also defied doctors orders to stay bedridden for six weeks following stomach tumor surgery a couple of weeks before USC's 1969 opener.

Football isn't Pellerin's only cardinal-and-gold passion. He attends many home games of USC's other 19 sports, including almost every home men's basketball game.

Pellerin's next goal is to hit 800 football games in a row, which should occur in either the 1998 or 1999 season, depending on USC's bowl game fortunes.

"Sure, I could sit in my rocking chair and grow old," he said. "But I don't intend to do that. You've got to have something to look forward to."

In 1996, he won the first annual Sears DieHard Fan Award as "America's NCAA Division I DieHard College Sports Fan." In 1994, Pellerin was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame. And in 1988, he was named a finalist in the Fisher Nut "America's Nuttiest Sports Nuts" Contest (he was flown to New York City for the festivities).

He is constantly interviewed by sportswriters (recent stories about his exploits have appeared in USA Today and Sports Illustrated) and featured on USC's nationally-televised game broadcasts. He speaks to various service groups, like Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, about his streak.

Giles isn't alone in his pursuit. Brother Oliver, 85, of Hawthorne, Calif., hasn't missed a USC game since 1945. That's 566 in a row. Another brother, Max, 83, of Palm Springs, Calif., had a 300-plus string interrupted when he was sent overseas to work.

RIVALRY TROPHIES

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This reignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools--USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer--signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 29 times while in USC's possession and blue 24 times while in UCLA's hold (there have been 4 ties).

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

SHILLELAGH

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The shillelagh awarded for year-long possession and display to the victor of the Trojan-Irish game was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was originally devised as the trophy by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it.

The foot-long shillelagh has emerald-studded shamrocks with the year and game score representing Notre Dame victories, while ruby-adorned Trojan heads stand for USC wins. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle."

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band--known as "The Spirit of Troy" --is perhaps the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of the most visible public relations tools of the University.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 10 Presidents (including Ronald Reagan, just prior to his 1984 inauguration), and has appeared in 5 movies (including "Hello Dolly"), plus numerous commercials and television shows (including the 1978 Academy Awards). The band even recorded the title track of the rock group Fleetwood Mac's popular 1979 album, "Tusk," and has produced several records of its own music (featuring the well-known "Conquest" and "Fight On").

Among the many famous musicians who have played in the band was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (he was in the cornet section). And among the various guest artists who have appeared with the band were Henry Mancini, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, and John Wayne.

The band marches upwards of 80 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting almost every USC athletic team. A typical football halftime show by the band (with precision drills, special musical charts and dance routines) takes more than 4,000 work hours to prepare. The band also frequently appears at many professional sporting events throughout Southern California. Approximately 11 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance.

Now 270-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1969 (he is assisted by arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Nationally-renowned, Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (125 bandsmen were from USC) which played in the opening and closing ceremonies at the Games. Interestingly, it was the second time a Trojan musical group was involved with the Olympics, as the USC band formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games.

Bartner was also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directs the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. In the summer of 1986, he and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In the spring of 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags), plus the famous USC Song Leaders and Yell Leaders.

TOMMY WALKER

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

SCHOOL SONGS

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On, " was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director (1928-1942). He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

"CONQUEST"

USC's other famous song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman.

USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage--and with good reason. Consider:

--Trojan teams have won more national championships, 76 men's and 13 women's, than any other university but UCLA;

--the Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85);

--USC has won the National College All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times since its inception in 1971;

--Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (270) than those from any other school in the nation;

--Troy has also established a stellar reputation and a long tradition of nurturing Olympic athletes. Since 1904 (but not including the 1996 Atlanta Games), 281 Trojan athletes (more than any other university) have competed in the Games, taking home 87 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics since 1912), 55 silver and 46 bronze.

--3 Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959) and swimmer John Naber (1977).

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 45 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, third among all schools. In addition, USC has had 25 first team Academic All-Americans and 3 athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here's a closer look at the history of each of the 20 sports which USC offers on the intercollegiate level:

FOOTBALL--Since starting football in 1888, USC has amassed an impressive all-time won-loss record of 647-259-54 (a .702 winning percentage).

USC's record against Pac-10 opponents is a stellar 331-125-29 (.712). Since 1959, the Trojans have won the conference championship 14 times and tied for the title on 5 other occasions.

USC has the nation's fourth best bowl winning percentage among the 50 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (.658) and its 28 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 25-13, including 20-8 in the Pasadena New Year's Day Classic. The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, immediately comes to mind. Four Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981. Other standout tailbacks have included Clarence Davis, Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, and safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989. USC players have been named first team All-American 120 times, with 39 of those consensus selections and 21 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 8 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 3 of those titles (1928-31-32). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and has led USC to 3 bowl wins.

Scores of Trojans have gone on to successful NFL careers (there have been 59 first round picks, with 4 No. 1 selections), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Willie Wood, Pete Beathard, Rod Sherman, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott and Junior Seau.

BASEBALL--No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 11 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 5).

Since starting baseball in 1924, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,916-907-15 (.678) against college opponents, and have captured outright or tied for 36 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to each of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 36 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison and Bill Bordley being 2-time selections.

USC boasts many successful past and present major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp, Mark McGwire, Randy Johnson and Bret Boone. In all, more than 70 Trojans have gone on to play in the major leagues and scores more in the minors.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year record of 1,332-571-11 (.699) versus college foes, making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1995 squad was the runnerup at the College World Series (his 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1993, 1994 and 1996 teams were NCAA regional participants).

MEN'S BASKETBALL-- Only about 4 dozen schools have more than 1,000 victories in college basketball, and USC is one of those schools. Since starting basketball in 1907, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,228-875 (.584), winning 14 conference championships along the way.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams and Harold Miner are a few of USC's All-American selections. Overall, Trojans have earned All-American honors 21 times. Three Trojans, Sharman, Jack Gardner and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has the winningest record among USC basketball coaches, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant coach for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over the coaching helm in 1986-87 and led Troy into the post-season playoffs 4 times. Charlie Parker succeeded Raveling prior to the 1995 season and Henry Bibby was named head coach midway through the 1996 season.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL-- After improving steadily, USC first reached the pinnacle of success in women's basketball in 1983 and the Trojans have been at or near the top almost ever since, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours over the last 16 years.

USC's team became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Pam and Paula McGee to give the Trojans a formidable front line that led the squad to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1994 and led USC to a Pac-10 title and 2 NCAA playoff appearances. She was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1995. Fred Williams took over as coach in 1996.

The Women of Troy made the NCAA tourney 5 of the past 6 years, including advancing to the regionals 3 of the last 5 seasons. Lisa Leslie won the Naismith Award in 1994.

WOMEN'S CREW--The women's crew team, under head coach George Jenkins, has varsity and novice eight teams that train all year long for regattas such as San Pedro's Head of the Harbor race and the Pacific Coast Rowing Championships.

MEN'S GOLF--USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 3 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, and Ron Commans in 1981) and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al "Mr. 59" Gelberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Scott Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-10, winning 15 of the 37 conference championships to date.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC continued its success, winning the conference championship in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the prestigious Masters golf tournament in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf's Player of the Year.

Former team captain Jim Empey took over the coaching duties in 1993. Kurt Schuette became head coach in 1995 and guided the Trojans to an impressive fifth place finish at the NCAA tourney, Troy's best placing in 18 years, and then ninth in 1996.

WOMEN'S GOLF--The USC women's golf team is one of college's finest, as witnessed by their second, third, fourth, fifth and ninth place finishes at the NCAA Championships in 5 of the past 11 years. The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989. Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second place at the NCAAs in her first year. Cherie Zaun took over for 1996 (with men's coach Kurt Schuette serving as Director of Golf).

Top individuals have included current professionals Marta Figueras-Dotti, Denise Strebig and Jill McGill.

SAILING--Mike Segerblom, John Shadden and Russ Silvestri are among the long line of All-Americans produced by the USC sailing team, perhaps the most successful program on the West Coast. In fact, Troy has produced more All-Americans than any other West Coast school and has sent participants to the America's Cup, as well as the Olympics and other prestigious world events. USC's program, first recognized as a varsity sport in 1965, is co-ed. Segerblom serves as the coach.

WOMEN'S SOCCER--The women's soccer team began competing in 1993. Karen Stanley coached the team for the first 3 seasons. Jim Millinder took over in 1996.

MEN'S SWIMMING--The type of dominance USC has had in this sport was best exemplified by Troy's performance in the 1976 Olympic Games, when Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country except the United States.

Over the years, USC swimmers have made Olympic teams 70 times, winning 18 gold, 10 silver and 11 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 98 NCAA meet individual and relay titles and have earned All-American honors an amazing 473 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland. He also serves as the head coach of the Women of Troy. His men's teams have placed sixth, seventh and 10th at the NCAAs.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING--USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 15 of the last 20 years, and have produced 138 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC's more famous women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd and current star Kristine Quance (she won 3 events at the 1994 NCAA meet as the Women of Troy placed sixth and won 3 more events to be the high point scorer at the 1996 meet as USC finished fifth).

MEN'S TENNIS--USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 15 team champions (tied for most in the country), 13 singles champions (second most in the country), and 20 doubles champs (more than any other school). Cecil Mamiit won the 1996 NCAA singles crown as a freshman.

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojan netters for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and has posted a 452-91 (.832) mark in 17 years. His 1991, 1993 and 1994 teams won the NCAA tourney and 8 of his other teams have finished fourth or better.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 121 times, with a number of those players also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS-- The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team. The Women of Troy have won 7 national championships.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was phenomenal: his teams went 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won national singles titles, along with 1 doubles champ and 60 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars have included Barbara Hallquist, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman and Trisha Laux.

Cheryl Woods, a former Trojan player, took over for Borelli in 1989. Richard Gallien, a successful player and coach at Pepperdine, became head coach in 1996.

MEN'S TRACK--The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 75-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 30 Pacific Coast or Pac-10 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 38 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 381-104-4 (.783).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1909-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team. Ron Allice, who won 11 state titles at Long Beach City College, took over the combined men's and women's programs in 1995 (the men were fourth at the 1995 NCAA meet and 10th in 1996).

Fifty-eight USC tracksters have won 84 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 24 individual Olympic titles and shared in 8 relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and quartermiler Quincy Watts.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 103 NCAA individual or relay winners from Troy (including 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996 NCAA champion Balazs Kiss in the hammer throw, only the fifth collegian to win 4 consecutive NCAA titles).

The Trojans also have had a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN'S TRACK, CROSS COUNTRY--The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 5 times, including third in 1987. The 1996 squad won the Pac-10 title and placed seventh at the NCAAs.

The women's track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. Fred LaPlante succeeded her from 1984 through 1988. Barbara Edmondson was coach in 1992 through 1994. In 1995, Ron Allice took over as the combined men's and women's coach.

Troy has had many other successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champion Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title.

The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall under coach Tom Walsh.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL--Final Four appearances have become commonplace for the USC men's volleyball team, which has made 11 trips there in the 20 years since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 6 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Twenty Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and 25 times USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers all helped lead the United States to its first gold medal ever in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson and former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who led Troy to an NCAA title in 1988) also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year. Powers became head coach for 1997.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL--USC has won 4 national crowns in women's volleyball, all under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and has guided USC into the NCAAs in 6 of her 7 seasons.

In 1978, Debbie Green won the prestigious Broderick Award in volleyball. Some 30 Trojans have been named All-American and 11 have been members of the U.S. National team (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Megan McCallister).

MEN'S WATER POLO--Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 765-445-7 (.631) record, winning 10 conference championships along the way.

Current coach John Williams has led the Trojans to national prominence since taking over the program in 1973. Sixteen of his last 19 teams have finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1987, 1993 and 1994 squads which placed second in the NCAA tourney.

Sixteen Trojan poloists have participated in the Olympics and 94 have made various All-American teams. Some of the more prominent names in USC water polo history are Ron Severa, Wally Wolf, Greg Fults, Zach Stimson, Craig Furniss, Charles Harris and Robert Lynn.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO--USC's newest sport, the women's water polo team began play in 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic. The Women of Troy finished third in the 1995 Division II tourney.

USC'S NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 68--far more than any other university. And the football team has been voted national champions 8 times.

USC has won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 13 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77).

Here's a list with the coaches of the winning teams.

TROJANS STAR IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only are second in the nation in the number of national team championships (76 by the men and 13 by the women), but rank third (behind Air Force and Nebraska) in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (45, including 19 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 3 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh and trackster James O'Toole), 25 first team Academic All-Americans (including 21 footballers, tops among Pac-10 schools and tied for fifth best in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Six scholar award, 10 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 4 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell), a NCAA Women's Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Laura Servis), and a USC co-valedictorian (water poloist Craig Furniss). In 1987, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women's award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990 and Jeremy Hogue was a 1996 NACDA Preseason Games Scholar-Athlete.

The Nov. 1994 issue of The Sporting News examined the relative academic strength of the nation's top 25 football teams and found USC's players ranked second in high school GPA, sixth in SAT scores and third in ACT scores.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE GARRETT

Michael L. Garrett, so much a part of USC's unparalleled athletic tradition, was named the school's sixth-ever athletic director in January of 1993.

Garrett, Troy's 1965 Heisman Trophy-winning tailback who has a background in business, law, government, athletic administration, and community affairs, oversees the 20 men's and women's teams and the accompanying $21 million budget that make up the nation's most successful athletic program.

Already during his tenure, USC has won 2 NCAA titles (in men's tennis, 1993 and 1994).

Garrett, 52, succeeded Mike McGee, who became the athletic director at South Carolina after 9 years at USC.

Garrett became the seventh African-American athletic director at a major Division I-A institution.

Garrett had served as USC's associate athletic director since December of 1990. In that role, he was responsible for the athletic department's budget, personnel, contract compliance and corporate sponsorships. He also handled day-to-day supervision of 5 men's sports--volleyball, golf, tennis, swimming and water polo.

Prior to joining the USC staff, he was director of business development for the Great Western Forum (1988-90), including its highly-successful boxing program.

Earlier in his career, he worked for the San Diego district attorney's office and as a youth counselor, held management positions in the retail, construction and real estate industries, did color commentary on USC football telecasts, and ran for Congress (1982) and San Diego City Council (1983).

Garrett has been involved in community affairs since his days at USC. While in college, he helped found the Cool-Head Program, an organization that met with youth groups to try to offset racial tensions in Los Angeles, and volunteered at the MacLaren Children's Center, a home for abused children. Later, he founded San Diego's Harambee House, a community-based institution for juvenile delinquents.

He helped establish the East Los Angeles Youth Activities Foundation in 1989, a community-based group that ran boxing/educational clubs as a gang-intervention program. The program (now called the Mike Garrett Foundation), funded in part by a grant from the Amateur Athletic Foundation, continues to grow with additional sports and services, and now serves the entire Boyle Heights and Lincoln Heights areas of East Los Angeles.

In 1996, he received the Boys and Girls Clubs of Pasadena's "Youth Partnership Award."

Born April 12, 1944 in East Los Angeles, Garrett was a prep All-American at that neighborhood's Roosevelt High.

As a student at USC, Garrett set the standard for the modern-era "I" formation Trojan tailbacks. He was a 2-time All-American (1964-65) who set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his 3-year career, including a then-NCAA career rushing mark of 3,221 yards and a then-USC season mark of 1,440 yards in 1965. He was the first Trojan since 1927 to run for 1,000 yards in a season.

A versatile athlete, he also started at cornerback for the Trojans and was an All-League outfielder for USC's baseball team (he hit .309 in 1965 and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Los Angeles Dodgers).

Garrett played 8 seasons (1966-73) in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers, becoming the first player to rush for 1,000 yards for 2 teams. An All-Pro, he played in Super Bowls I and IV.

Garrett was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame in 1985 and won the NCAA's prestigious Silver Anniversary Award in 1990. He was a charter member of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame, which he founded in 1994.

Garrett graduated from USC in 1967 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and earned a law degree from Western State University College of Law in Fullerton, Calif., in 1986.

Garrett and his wife, Suzanne, have 2 children, Sara, 14, and Daniel, 9.

Beth Woodin serves as Garrett's executive assistant.

USC ATHLETIC DIRECTORS

Willis O. Hunter	1926-57
Jess Hill	1957-72
John McKay	1972-75
Richard Perry	1975-84
Mike McGee	1984-93
Mike Garrett	1993-

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).

USC ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

To recruit and develop student-athletes who will perform successfully in the classroom and compete at the championship level in every sport, in compliance with the letter and spirit of all applicable rules and under an administrative structure managed in an open and fiscally sound manner, supporting equitable opportunity for all students and staff, and committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct. Decision-making in the Athletic Department will follow 4 basic principles: (1) promoting the well-being of student participants; (2) attaining and maintaining competitive excellence; (3) administering clearly, openly and responsibly; and (4) supporting the overall goals of the USC community.

In a more specific context, the goals for USC Athletics include the following: (1) to compete successfully in every sport, striving to be in the Top 10 nationally, with the ultimate goal of winning national championships; (2) to graduate every student-athlete who completes athletics eligibility at USC; (3) to provide an environment conducive to positive growth and development of student-athletes and Athletic Department staff; (4) to provide adequate financial support within the department to ensure continuing development of the sports programs without university subsidization; and (5) to comply fully with all NCAA and Pac-10 regulations..

THE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The University of Southern California is a research institution of international distinction. Founded in 1880, it is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States.

The university enrolls about 28,000 students annually on 2 campuses, the 150-acre University Park Campus in Exposition Park and the 40-acre Health Sciences Campus, 4 miles to the northeast of downtown Los Angeles.

Some facts of significance about the university include the following:

--USC is a member of the Association of American Universities, a select group of 60 public and private universities in the U.S. and Canada that, together, do about two-thirds of all federally funded academic research and development.

--Enrollment stands at 27,970, including 15,170 undergraduates and 12,800 graduate and professional students.

--In basic research, USC is nationally and internationally prominent. Currently, USC ranks among the top 10 private universities receiving federal funds for research and development support and in the top 20 among all universities.

--USC professor George A. Olah was the sole recipient of the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

--Many of USC's academic programs rank in the top 10 nationally.

--USC has 45 faculty members who are members of the National Academy: 7 in the National Academy of Sciences, 20 in the National Academy of Engineering, 9 in the Institute of Medicine, and 9 in the National Academy of Public Administration. Membership in these prestigious academies, created by Congress, is by election only and is based on a faculty member's distinguished and continuing achievements.

--The University is the home of 18 professional schools, in addition to the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and the Graduate School. These schools train specialists in fields ranging from medicine and law to architecture, theater, education and business. Graduates of USC professional schools are serving society's needs in the United States and many foreign countries.

--USC's schools of Cinema-Television, Social Work, Public Administration and International Relations are among the oldest such schools in the country.

--USC maintains one of 27 comprehensive cancer centers in the U.S. The university's $40 million USC Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center opened in 1983.

--Among USC's distinguished alumni are musicians Herb Alpert, Lionel Hampton and Patrice Rushen; astronauts Neil Armstrong and Charles Bolden; columnist Art Buchwald; sportscaster Frank Gifford; architects Frank Gehry, Jon Jerde and Carey K. Jenkins; rapper "Young M.C." (Marvin Young) and opera star Marilyn Horne; directors George Lucas, John Singleton, Ron Howard and Paul Mazursky; Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf; U.S. Secretary of State Warren Christopher; California Supreme Court Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas and Associate Justice Joyce L. Kennard; U.S. Ambassador to Australia Edward Perkins; actors John Ritter, Tom Selleck, and the late John Wayne and Michael Landon; actresses Marlo Thomas and Ally Sheedy; symphony conductor Michael Tilson Thomas; and producers David L. Wolper and Barney Rosenzweig.

INTERESTING USC FACTS

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is one of the top 4 private universities in the western half of the United States?

--USC, Caltech, Stanford and Rice are the only private universities west of Missouri boasting membership in the Association of American Universities, the premier teaching and research institutions of North America?

--USC is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States. The university was founded in 1880 with 53 students; today, USC enrolls about 28,000 students in its College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and 18 top-ranked professional schools.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is above the 96th percentile of all colleges and universities nationwide in student selectivity?

--USC's entering freshman class is among the strongest in the country, boasting an average GPA of 3.6 and an average SAT score of 1113. The majority of entering freshmen come to USC from the upper sixth of their high school graduating class.

--Also, USC is among the top dozen schools in the nation in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's Thematic Option Program was cited by the New York Times Guide to Colleges as one of the nation's best undergraduate honors programs?

--In 1995, the 200 students entering the Thematic Option Program boasted an average SAT score of 1360 and an average GPA of 4.0.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is among the top 1% of all colleges and universities in the western half of the nation in the number of Rhodes Scholars produced?

--USC has had 8 Rhodes Scholars, including 3 in the last 7 years.

DID YOU KNOW...that Nobel laureate George Olah helped pave the way for high-octane gasoline and a number of advances in our daily life?

--Professor Olah, who has been at USC for almost 2 decades, has transformed the field of chemistry through his pioneering work with hydrocarbons, work which has led to less polluting gasoline, more effective oil refining and many modern drugs. For his research, Professor Olah received the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Cinema-Television is ranked No. 1 by U.S. News & World Report's Annual Guide to America's Best Graduate Schools?

--USC tied for top honors with New York University's Tisch School of the Arts, and was ranked ahead of the American Film Institute, UCLA and the California Institute of the Arts.

--Every year since 1950, at least one USC graduate has been nominated for an Academy Award.

--USC alumni have held key creative or production positions in 10 of the 12 highest-grossing movies in history.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC physicians serve more than 1 million patients each year through the Health Sciences Campus and 12 affiliated hospitals?

--Four USC-affiliated hospitals are ranked by U.S. News & World Report as being among the best in the nation: Rancho Los Amigos Medical Center, Doheny Eye Institute, Childrens Hospital Los Angeles and Women's and Children's Hospital at the Los Angeles County+USC Medical Center.

DID YOU KNOW...that the Southern California Earthquake Center is based at USC?

--The SCEC was established by the federal government in 1991 to coordinate geological research relating to earthquakes.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is home to the world's largest university-based research effort in photonics technology?

--This light-based technology is believed by many people to hold the key to the next major advance in information processing and control.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC researchers played a key role in the early development of the Internet?

--USC's Information Sciences Institute, part of the School of Engineering, has won a $9.2 million contract to upgrade the Internet, the electronic "Information Superhighway" which now links more than 20 million users all over the planet.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's Ethel Percy Andrus Gerontology Center is considered to be the nation's premier program for studies of aging?

--The Leonard Davis School of Gerontology, founded in 1975, was the nation's first school in this critical, emerging field.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's endowment has grown by more than 4,000% in the last 30 years, a record unequaled in American higher education?

--Since 1962, USC's endowment and similar investments has grown from about $18 million to more than $1 billion today.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's crime rate is lower than that of most other large research universities located in or near major cities?

--Latest available figures show USC's overall crime rate to be lower than that of Stanford or UCLA, and less than half the crime rate of the nation as a whole.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is the largest private employer in the city of Los Angeles, and one of the largest in Southern California?

--USC's employee base of almost 17,000 and operating budget of just under $1 billion per year contributes some $3 billion each year in total impact on the Southern California economy, which in turn generates some 40,000 jobs outside the university.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC ranked in the top 3 last year among private universities in the number of times its faculty were quoted as experts in the national press?

--Only faculty from Harvard and Michigan were called upon more often for expert comment on current affairs.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Music is the most active producer of live music performances in all of Southern California, with more than 500 concerts and recitals each year?

--The USC School of Music is ranked in the top 10 nationally by U.S. News & World Report's Annual Guide to America's Best Graduate Schools.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is the only university that broadcasts its own daily national news program?

--"Marketplace," the nightly business news program produced by KUSC and broadcast nationally on Public Radio International, is heard by more than 2.3 million listeners each day. It has been described by the Columbia Journalism Review as "the best business program on radio and television."

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT STEVEN B. SAMPLE

Steven B. Sample, who became the 10th president of the University of Southern California on march 31, 1991, is a professor of electrical engineering at USC and regularly teaches undergraduate courses, the most recent being "The Art and Adventure of Leadership," an undergraduate seminar he co-taught with Distinguished Professor Warren Bennis.

He began his academic career as an assistant professor in the School of Electrical Engineering at Purdue University in 1966, following his graduation with a Ph.D. in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1965 and a year as senior scientist at Melpar Inc., a research and development firm in Washington, D.C.

He was promoted to associate professor with tenure in 1970. During the 1970-71 academic year, he served as an American Council on Education administrative fellow in the Office of the President at Purdue. In 1971, he took a leave of absence from Purdue to accept an appointment as deputy director for academic affairs with the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which is responsible for master planning, program approval and budget recommendations for the Illinois system of higher education.

In 1974, Sample was named executive vice president for academic affairs and dean of the Graduate College at the University of Nebraska, where he was also appointed professor of electrical engineering.

His paper on electronic motor starting systems received the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers' Outstanding Paper Award at the 1976 Appliance Technical Conference held at Purdue University. His patents in the field of digital appliance controls have been licensed to practically every major manufacturer of appliance controls and microwave ovens in the world; as a result, nearly 100 million home appliances have been built using his inventions. In 1980, Sample was given the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the department of electrical engineering at the University of Illinois.

In 1982, he was named president of the State University of New York at Buffalo, the flagship campus of the SUNY system. Sample held this post he held until accepting the USC presidency in 1991. He was also professor of electrical and computer engineering at Buffalo and, as he has done consistently throughout his career, continued to maintain both his teaching and research.

During his tenure at Buffalo, the university was invited to join the Association of American Universities, a highly selective organization of leading research universities whose 60 members constitute fewer than 2% of all the colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. This 1989 invitation marked the first time that a public university in New York or New England had been asked to join the AAU.

In 1994, Sample was appointed chair of the AAU's committee on postdoctoral education.

Sample currently serves on the boards of directors of First Interstate Bancorp, Los Angeles; the Presley Companies Inc., Newport Beach, Calif.; Western Atlas, Beverly Hills, Calif.; Galaxy International, Los Angeles; The Los Angeles Metropolitan Project (LAMP); and Rebuild L.A. (RLA). He is a trustee of the Los Angeles Educational Alliance for Restructuring Now (LEARN), the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, and the Regenstrief Medical Foundation, Indianapolis. He is a member of Project California and the Coalition of 100 of Los Angeles.

Sample earned B.S. and M.S. degrees in electrical engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1962 and 1963, respectively, prior to receiving his Ph.D. at the same university in 1965. He has received honorary degrees from Canisius College in Buffalo, the University of Sheffield in England, Purdue University, Hebrew Union College and the University of Nebraska.

Sample received an Alumni Achievement Award from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1994 and the University of Illinois College of Engineering's Alumni Honor Award in 1985. He was chosen to receive Purdue University's prestigious Outstanding Electrical Engineer Award in 1993. The award, given yearly by the faculty of the university's School of Electrical Engineering, recognizes contributions made by alumni and faculty to the field of electrical engineering and related industries.

He is the author or co-author of numerous journal articles and published papers, both in science and engineering and in the field of higher education.

Sample married the former Kathryn Brunkow of Park Ridge, Ill., in 1961. They have two daughters, Michelle Sample Smith and Melissa Ann Sample. Mrs. Sample is a certified surgical technologist.

PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE

With 7 NCAA team championships in 1995-96, plus 31 NCAA individual titles, the Pacific-10 Conference--which combines 10 of the finest academic institutions in the nation--once again demonstrated it is the "Conference of Champions," thus continuing to live up to its billing as having the strongest overall intercollegiate athletic league in the country.

Pac-10 members have now won 219 NCAA men's team championships, far and away more than any other conference (the Big Ten is next with 146), and 50 women's crowns, also more than any league (the Southeastern Conference is next with 35).

Pac-10 men's teams have won at least 4 NCAA team titles 21 of the last 26 years, a feat unprecedented in intercollegiate athletics. The NCAA men's team championships have come at a phenomenal rate--14 basketball titles, more than any other conference; 16 of the last 30 baseball titles; 18 of the last 37, and an incredible 44 titles overall, in track and field; 18 of the last 33 in swimming and diving; 34 of the last 37 in tennis; 23 of the last 37 in water polo; and 20 of the last 27 in volleyball. Pac-10 men have also claimed an incredible 959 NCAA individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 15 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed 4 titles in a single season on 9 occasions. Included in this are 10 of 15 tennis crowns, 12 of 15 softball championships, 4 of the last 6 volleyball titles, and 6 of the last 8 golf and swimming and diving trophies. Plus, the 260 NCAA individual titles lead all leagues.

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference go back 80 years. On Dec. 2, 1915, the Pacific Coast Conference was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Oregon. Original membership consisted of 4 schools--University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the PCC, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to 8 teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the conference in 1924 and in 1928 the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-1945 when World War II somewhat curtailed intercollegiate competition. In 1950, Montana resigned from the conference to join the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a 9-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new conference was formed called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962, with Oregon and Oregon State joining in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the Pacific-10 Conference took on a new look, expanding to included 10 women's teams.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 10 men's and 11 women's sports, while Conference members are part of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in 5 additional men's sports and 2 other women's sports.

Edwin N. Atherton was named the Conference's first Commissioner in 1940. He was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971) and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

The Pac-10 offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.

USC FOOTBALL TICKET INFORMATION

Season and individual game tickets are available from the USC Ticket Office for all 5 1996 Trojan home contests. Reserved tickets cost $22 per game, with the Notre Dame game priced at $35 (a season ticket package is $123). There is also a Family Plan season ticket package (seating in west end zone, no Notre Dame tickets) available for $70. General admission tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for children 12 and under (there are no general admission seats for the Notre Dame game). Group rates (25 or more) are also available by calling (213) 740-4170.

The USC Ticket Office also has tickets on sale for all of Troy's road games.

For tickets and information, contact the USC Ticket Office at File No. 2235, Los Angeles, Calif. 90074-2235, (213) 740-GO SC (4672). The office is located in Student Union 100 and is open between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays.

USC home game tickets are also on sale at the Los Angeles Sports Arena box office, as well as at all Ticketmaster agencies. On the day of home games, tickets are on sale at the Coliseum, starting 3 hours prior to kickoff.

MEDIA INFORMATION

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE--The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, associate Nancy Mazmanian, and assistants John Tamanaha and Paul Goldberg) is located in the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall. It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. The fax number is (213) 740-7584. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS--Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance.

TROJAN HOTLINE--Dial (213) 743-2989 for a 90-second taped interview with USC coach John Robinson. The tape changes each Sunday afternoon during the football season.

JOHN ROBINSON MEDIA LUNCH--Coach Robinson hosts a weekly media-only lunch in the lounge of Heritage Hall at 11:30 a.m. each Tuesday during the season. Transcribed notes from each session are available from the Sports Information Office.

USC PRACTICES--Most Trojan practices on Howard Jones Field are open to the media, however please call in advance to confirm the schedule.

GAME CREDENTIALS--Because of space limitations, only members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team) can be credentialled to Trojan home games. Freelancers cannot be accommodated. Credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis. Requests for game credentials should be sent on company letterhead as early as possible to: Tim Tessalone, USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601. Credentials can be mailed up to 7 days before the game; after that time, credentials can either be picked up during the week of the game at the Sports Information Office or beginning 2 hours before kickoff on game day at press will call outside Tunnel 4 on the south side of the Coliseum. Three types of credentials are issued: working press (press box seat during game, field access during last 5 minutes of game), TV and photo (field and press box roof access, limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game locker room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the area of the team benches.

PRESS BOX--Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevator near Tunnel 6. The upper level has seats for the written press, while the lower level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof is available for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in the lower level (seats 219-225) during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through either side door on the lower level and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES--A complimentary meal is served in the press box. Game programs, speed cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Robinson and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box and a detailed play-by-play and Coach Robinson's post-game press conference are announced over the press box public address system. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section on the lower level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact UT&T at (714) 286-2200. Tell UT&T that the phone installer can obtain your seat location from Tim Tessalone. To call the press box on game day for score updates, dial either (213) 741-1341 or (213) 747-7111 (ask for the press box extension). USC provides complimentary fax service in the press box. Fax, telecopier and computer terminal service for a fee also is available by contacting either Bassler Communications (Dick Bassler), 6706 Noble Ave., Van Nuys, CA 91405, (310) 451-5805, or Amfax (Rick Laubert), 1445 Park Ave., Long Beach, Calif. 90804, (310) 494-8757.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS--The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the west end of the Coliseum. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, the USC locker room will open to the media. Coach Robinson will conduct a post-game press session and afterwards several key Trojan players will be brought to the session.

VIDEO SERVICES--The USC Sports Information Office makes video highlights of key Trojans available to the media. The Pac-10 Office has a weekly video satellite feed featuring highlights and interviews from all league schools (call 510-932-4411 for information). To contract specific video services, contact Rich Zielinski of Zielinski Productions at (714) 842-5050, Dennis Kirkpatrick of Bayview Productions at (310) 543-1835 or Pat McClenahan of McClenahan-Kelly Productions at (818) 567-4220. Kirkpatrick and McClenahan (or McClenahan's producer, Jeff Proctor, or his assistant, Jim Marinkovich) also can be reached at Prime Sports at (310) 286-3800.

FAXBACK--Call the Pacific-10 Office (510-932-4411) or the USC Sports Information Office (213-740-8480) to obtain the media-only phone number for the Pac-10 FaxBack, a fax-on-demand system that provides access to press releases from the Pac-10 Office and all Pac-10 schools on a 24-hour-a-day basis.

USC ATHLETICS ON THE WEB--The USC athletic department has an official "home page" on the World Wide Web, featuring current and historical information about Trojan sports. For access, type http://www.usc.edu/dept/sports.

Trojans in the Pros

PLAYERS

Seventeen of the last 20 years, USC has had the most players on National Football League rosters. This year alone, 46 Trojans grace the rosters of 24 of the NFL's 30 teams.

DRAFT

Nearly 400 Trojans have been drafted into the NFL, with many more making rosters as free agents. Since the first USC player was drafted in 1940, 59 Trojans have been 1st round selections -- an average of one a year.

PRO BOWL

Trojan alums are among the brightest stars in the NFL. The annual showcase of the league's top talent, the NFC-AFC Pro Bowl, has had 169 Trojan participants.

SUPER BOWL

Seventy-two Trojans have played in the Super Bowl. USC has been represented by a player in all but one of the 30 games. In Super Bowl XI alone, 9 Trojans played in the game. Two Trojans -- Lynn Swann in Super Bowl X and Marcus Allen in XVIII -- were named the game's MVP.

COACHES

USC provides the NFL with some of its best coaches. Among the former Trojans coaching in the NFL are Detroit's Wayne Fontes, Green Bay's Mike Holmgren, Chicago's Dave Wannstedt, Houston's Jeff Fisher, and Washington's Norv Turner. About two dozen Trojans were on NFL coaching staffs last year.

HALL OF FAME

Eight Trojans have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Among the recent inductees are O.J. Simpson, Willie Wood and Al Davis.
